Conditions of Sale.

1*st.* The Opium will be sold for Exportation by Sea only, and no Certificate will be granted, except to cover such Export

2*nd.* The Opium will be ordinarily offered for Sale at an upset price of Rupees 400 per Chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which provision is made by Clause 12th of the Conditions of Sale

3*rd.* The Sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A. M. and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P M, but if at that hour any of the Lots advertized for Sale shall remain unsold, the Sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a Public Holiday) at the hour of 11 A. M., and so on, until the whole of the remaining Lots are disposed of; or if the quantity of 3,460 Chests shall not be sold on the day advertized, the Board may dispose of the Lots which remain on hand at a future Sale.

4*th.* Each Lot to contain Five Chests.

5*th* A deposit in a Promissory Note, either for 25 per cent. even money of the amount for which each Lot is knocked down, or for Rupees 1,000, at the discretion of the Officer superintending the Sale, shall be made by the purchaser in the Sale Room, and before the Lot is registered in the Sale Book; and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this Office by Sub-Treasurer's Receipts or by substitution of other Public Securities of the Bengal Government, on or before 4 o'clock of the afternoon of Tuesday, the 15th January; or on the other hand, failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the Lot or Lots for which no Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or deposit of other Public Securities as aforesaid, shall have been delivered in, shall be re sold at such time or times, and under such conditions of Re-sale, as the Board of Revenue shall see fit; and all losses and expenses whatsoever attending such Re sale shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such Re-sale shall be forfeited to Government.

6*th.* The Promissory Notes taken on the day of Sale, under the last-mentioned Condition, if remaining unredeemed on the said 15th January, will be placed in the hands of the Attorney to the Hon'ble Company, for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

7th. No tender of money, S[illegible] Receipts or Public Securities, on account of Opium, upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before 4 o'clock of the 15th January, will be afterwards accepted.

8th. The Opium now advertized for Sale shall be paid for within fifteen clear days from the day of Sale, that is to say, no Treasury Receipt will be accepted in payment after 4 P. M. of Friday, the 25th January 1856; and in case any Lots of such Opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the Cash deposit of 25 per cent. even money of the amount for which each Lot is knocked down, or Rupees 1,000 for each Lot, or any Public Securities that may have been deposited on account of such Lots or Chests, shall be forfeited, and the Opium be disposed of on account of Government, at such time, and in such manner, as the Board of Revenue shall think fit; and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the Re-sale, and the amount at which the Opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such Re-sale.

9th. Purchasers taking out Certificates or Orders for the delivery of Opium, after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of Lots of their purchase which they may desire to be included in each Certificate or Order, and it is to be clearly understood that the Certificates or Orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other Certificates or Orders authorizing the delivery of single Lots, or of a different number of Lots or Chests, whether more or less than the number of Lots or Chests originally required to be included in each Certificate or Order.

10th. No Sub-Treasurer's Receipts or deposit of Public Securities, under the 5th of the present Conditions, will be received in this Office, except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the Sale Book or his authorized Agent. The Receipt for deposit of Public Securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the Securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

11th. The Officer superintending the Sale on the part of the Board of Revenue is empowered to reject at his discretion the bid of any individual, unless such individual shall, on demand, tender at the time a deposit, either in Bank of Bengal Notes, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or other Government Securities, equal to 25 per cent. even money of the amount so bid, or Rupees 1,000 for each Lot.

12th. With a view to prevent fictitious biddings, designed to obstruct the Sale, it is hereby notified, that the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall be competent, at any time during the Sale, to withdraw any unsold Lot, and immediately to put it up again for Sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually, until a bid is obtained; and the first bonâ fide bidder for a Lot, after it has been offered for Sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said Lot, and the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall also be competent to dispose in the same manner of as many of the subsequent Lots as he may think proper; provided always that no Lot shall be sold below the minimum price of Rupees 400 specified in the 2nd Clause of these Conditions.

13th. The purchaser of any Lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing, in immediate succession, any number of Lots of the same Agency Opium to the extent of Twenty-five Lots; and for the Lots so purchased, the purchaser shall deposit for each Lot 25 per cent. even money of the amount bid by him for the first Lot, or Rupees 1,000 for each Lot, and pay the same price per Chest as that for which he purchased his first Lot; provided always that there remain a sufficient number of Lots of that Opium to complete the said Twenty-five, but not otherwise.

14th. In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the Sale of the Opium included in this Notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, and all and every plea and pleas to the jurisdiction of the said Supreme Court shall be waived.

15th. The following papers, together with samples of the Opium for Sale, will be exhibited for inspection on the day of Sale, or may be seen previously to that date by application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue:—

No. 1. Certificate of the Opium now advertized for Sale.

No. 2. Report of the Examination of such Opium.

16th. The Public are hereby informed, that in providing the investment of the Behar and Benares Opium, for the year 1854-55, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years, to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the Cakes, and to have the due proportion of Opium put into each Cake. An account of the weight of the drug when packed at Behar and Benares, and a statement of the average weight of the Chests, indiscriminately taken, for the purpose of comparison, from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta, may be seen on application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue; and further, that four Chests of Behar and Benares Opium, which have been reserved from the provision of the two preceding years, will be also shown to the purchasers at the Exchange Rooms on the day of Sale, to enable them to judge of the state of preservation in which the drug has kept.

17th. Any further information, respecting weight or quality of the Opium advertized for Sale that may be desired by parties connected with the Trade, will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on application at the Office of the Board of Revenue but in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of Opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to Chests after the sale and delivery of the Opium for shipment.

18th. The Public are hereby informed, that in addition to the quantity above-mentioned, the following quantities,* more or less, of Behar and Benares Opium, will be brought to Sale in the year 1856 on or about the

It is hereby further notified, that under the 6th Article of the Convention between Great Britain and France, dated the 7th March 1815, quoted below, the Agents in India of the French Government, or persons duly appointed by them, are entitled to demand, that out of the quantities of Behar and Benares Opium, declared as above for Sale at the twelve Sales in the months of January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October, November, and December 1856, there shall be delivered to them, at the average of the particular Sale or Sales to which the Opium so applied for may belong, a quantity not exceeding in the aggregate 300 Chests, and the Agents of the French Government must make requisition for the whole of the Opium required by them during the year within thirty days after the publication of this Advertisement, specifying the particular Sale or Sales from which the quantity of Opium is intended to be taken. If the Agents of the French Government shall not make the requisition for Opium within the time above-mentioned, the entire quantity of about 41,508 Chests of Behar and Benares, as above estimated, will be brought to Sale in the usual manner, and if they shall make application for a quantity of Opium to be delivered to them out of the quantity advertized for Sale at each or any of the Twelve Sales above-mentioned, but shall not pay for it within the prescribed period of payment, the Government of Bengal reserves to itself the right of disposing of the Opium which the French Authorities may so fail to pay for, either by increasing the quantity reserved at the Sale next ensuing the date of payment, or by selling it at a Sale to be held expressly for the purpose :—

Article of the Convention above referred to.

Article 6th. "With regard to the Trade in Opium, it is agreed between the high contracting parties, that at each of the periodical Sales of that Article, there shall be reserved for the French Government, and delivered upon requisition duly made by the Agents of His Most Christian Majesty, or by the persons duly appointed by them, the number of Chests so applied for, provided that such supply shall not exceed Three hundred Chests in each year, and the price for the same shall be determined by the average rate at which Opium shall have been sold at every such periodical Sale, it being understood that, if the quantity of Opium applied for at any one time shall not be taken on account of the French Government by the Agents of His Most Christian Majesty within the usual period of delivery, the quantity so applied for shall nevertheless be considered as so much on reduction of the Three hundred Chests hereinbefore mentioned. The requisitions for Opium as aforesaid are to be addressed to the Governor General at Calcutta, within thirty days after notice of the intended Sales shall have been published in the Government Gazette."

Lights on Flat Island and on the Coast of Mauritius.

LIGHT-HOUSES.

His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified for general information, that the following Lights will be exhibited on Flat Island and on the Coast of Mauritius, on and from the 1st December next, viz. :—

A first class revolving Catoptric Light on Flat Island.

A first class fixed Catoptric Light on Cannonier Point.

A green Mast Light on Cooper's Island, at the mouth of the Harbour.

Detailed descriptions of, and sailing directions for these Lights are published below for general information.

J. DOWLAND,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
7th September 1855.

Sailing Directions for making the Anchorage off the Harbour of Port Louis, Mauritius, with reference to the Light-houses recently erected upon "Flat Island" and "Cannonier Point," and also the two Mast Lights near the entrance of the Harbour.

DESCRIPTION OF THE LIGHTS.

"FLAT ISLAND."

This is a revolving Catoptric Light of the first order, situated at the South West or highest extremity of the Island, in Latitude S. 19° 53′ 26″, and Longitude E. 57° 38′ 8″, determined by Triangulation from the Observatory of Port Louis. Variation of the Compass 11° 47′ 13″ West.

Its elevation above the mean level of the sea (the rise of tide being only about 3 feet) is 366 feet, and it will be visible in clear weather from the deck of a vessel 13 feet above the water, a distance of about 25 Nautical Miles

"CANNONIER POINT."

This is a fixed Catoptric Light, also of the first order.

It is situated in Latitude S. 20° 0′ 35″ and Longitude E. 57° 22′ 39″. Its elevation above the mean level of the sea is 39 feet 6 inches, and it will be seen from the deck of a vessel 13 feet above the water, a distance of about 10 Nautical Miles.

The objects of this Light are, to indicate the position of a dangerous shoal, nearly 1½ miles from the shore, and to keep vessels clear of the coral reefs to the North-East and South-West of the Point.

"HARBOUR MAST LIGHTS."

One of these is placed as a leading Light (Red) at the Martello Tower at the mouth, and on the left bank of the Grand River; and the other (Green) at Fort George, on Tonnelier Island.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS.

Vessels making the land from the Eastward (Windward) side of the Island should give a berth of 2½ Miles to the reefs off Amber Island and be careful not to approach the Light on Flat Island on a course to the Westward of N. W. by N. ½ N., until Gunner's Quoin bears West, when they may shape a mid-channel course between Gunner's Quoin and Flat Island.

When to the Westward of the Quoin the Light at Cannonier Point will become visible and must be approached with the Flat Island Light, bearing astern E. N. E. ½ N., until abreast of Cannonier Point, when that Light will bear S., E. by S. a berth of rather more than 2 Nautical Miles being thus given to the dangerous reef and shoal off the Point.—They may then haul up to S. W. by S. for the anchorage distant about 10 Nautical Miles, taking care to keep the Cannonier Point Light white for a distance of 6¾ Miles, when the Flat Island and Cannonier Point Lights will appear in one—the change of this color to red within that distance will indicate a too near approach to the end.

The red Light at the mouth of the Grand River will now be opened bearing S. S. W., for which vessels may safely steer until the Mast Light (Green) upon Fort George on Tonnelier Island bears S. E. ½ S., when they may immediately let go the anchor, being on the best ground—a nearer approach to the Light at Grand River would bring them too close to the reefs.

If the night is clear, the "Corps de Garde" Mountain will be clearly seen in line with the Grand River Light.

It is, however, generally advisable for vessels passing Cannonier Point at night, to lay to, keeping sail occasionally upon the ship, for the purpose of maintaining a good position for making the anchorage at day-break, in preference to attempting it at night, by which, in a very few instances, any time will be gained. Considerable risk, as well as the necessity for anchoring outside at all, will also be thus avoided.

 The book extends to 264 full-sized octavo pages.

The new book by D. L. R., which we have for some time past been anxiously looking for, is published, and will no doubt be as popular as the preceding works of this justly favorite author, whose writings are even more highly esteemed in England and America than in India.—Bengal Hurkaru, September 28, 1855.

He is well known in the literary circles of England as one of the purest English writers of the day. To say that the work before us is among the happiest productions of his pen, is to say more for it than the highest eulogy can express. It has been long expected, but public patience has received an ample reward.—Eastern Star, September 29, 1855.

It is a valuable contribution to our Indian Literature. —Calcutta Christian Advocate, October 6.

A Book of Gems, well worthy the Author's high reputation.—Central Star, October 13.

We cannot but recommend this volume to all who admire sprightly writing and elegantly selected poetry —Indian Times, October 17.

Mr. Richardson—better known to the reading public as "D. L. R."—has a wide reputation as a careful and polished writer.—Bombay Telegraph and Courier, October 22.

A very pleasant book which we can cordially recommend to the attention of our readers—A delightful melange about flowers and flower gardens, floriculture in general, and the enjoyments of rural life.—Bombay Times, October 27, 1855.

His last work is well worthy of a post in any library where the quality and not quantity of books is considered. —Phœnix, November 13, 1855.

Notice.

THE following Rules which, under the orders of the Government of India, have been issued for the guidance of the Officers of the Post Office, are published for general information :—

1*st*. Letters arriving at the Presidency Towns by Mail Steamers will be immediately sorted for delivery according to the address alone, without any reference to instructions which may have been received regarding change of address. Such changes will be left to be discovered by the Delivery Officers, and be corrected in the Forward and Unclaimed Departments of the Office.

2*nd*. A separate instruction will be required for every change of address, and no instruction will be attended to for more than three months after its receipt.

3*rd*. Under Section XXIII. of Act XVII. of 1854, Forward Postage will be charged in addition to all other postage due or paid thereon, upon every letter, without exception, which may be re-directed in any Post Office. For example, if a letter posted in Calcutta and addressed to Hooghly is, under instructions which may have been received from the addressee, re-directed in the Calcutta Post Office and sent to Barrackpore, Forward Postage will be charged in addition to the Postage which would have been due, had the letter been despatched to Hooghly according to its original address.

4*th*. The practice of giving instructions to the Officers of the Post Office to intercept and re-direct letters, not only imposes much labor upon them, but in large Offices seriously retards the delivery and despatch of the Mails. A register of instructions regarding changes of address will be kept in every Post Office, but it must be understood, that it is impossible to guarantee that they shall be attended to, except in the case of letters received for delivery.

2*nd.* The Opium will be ordinarily offered for Sale at an upset price of Rupees 400 per Chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which provision is made by Clause 12th of the Conditions of Sale.

3*rd.* The Sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A. M. and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P. M, but if at that hour any of the Lots advertized for Sale shall remain unsold, the Sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a Public Holiday) at the hour of 11 A M, and so on, until the whole of the remaining Lots are disposed of; or if the quantity of 3 460 Chests shall not be sold on the day advertized, the Board may dispose of the Lots which remain on hand at a future Sale

4*th.* Each Lot to contain Five Chests.

5*th* A deposit in a Promissory Note, either for 25 per cent even money of the amount for which each Lot is knocked down or for Rupees 1,000, at the discretion of the Officer superintending the Sale, shall be made by the purchaser in the Sale Room, and before the Lot is registered in the Sale Book; and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this Office by Sub-Treasurer's Receipts or by substitution of other Public Securities of the Bengal Government, on or before 4 o'clock of the afternoon of Tuesday, the 15th January, or on the other hand, failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the Lot or Lots for which no Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or deposit of other Public Securities as aforesaid, shall have been delivered in, shall be re sold at such time or times, and under such conditions of Re-sale, as the Board of Revenue shall see fit; and all losses and expenses whatsoever attending such Re sale shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such Re-sale shall be forfeited to Government.

6*th.* The Promissory Notes taken on the day of Sale, under the last-mentioned Condition, if remaining unredeemed on the said 15th January, will be placed in the hands of the Attorney to the Hon'ble Company, for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

9*th*. Purchasers taking out Certificates or Orders for the delivery of Opium, after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of Lots of their purchase which they may desire to be included in each Certificate or Order, and it is to be clearly understood that the Certificates or Orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other Certificates or Orders authorizing the delivery of single Lots, or of a different number of Lots or Chests, whether more or less than the number of Lots or Chests originally required to be included in each Certificate or Order.

10*th*. No Sub-Treasurer's Receipts or deposit of Public Securities, under the 5th of the present Conditions, will be received in this Office, except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the Sale Book or his authorized Agent. The Receipt for deposit of Public Securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the Securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

11*th*. The Officer superintending the Sale on the part of the Board of Revenue is empowered to reject at his discretion the bid of any individual, unless such individual shall, on demand, tender at the time a deposit either in Bank of Bengal Notes, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or other Government Securities, equal to 25 per cent. even money of the amount so bid, or Rupees 1,000 for each Lot.

12*th*. With a view to prevent fictitious biddings, designed to obstruct the Sale, it is hereby notified, that the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall be competent, at any time during the Sale, to withdraw any unsold Lot, and immediately to put it up again for Sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually, until a bid is obtained; and the first bonâ fide bidder for a Lot, after it has been offered for Sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said Lot, and the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall also be competent to dispose in the same manner of as many of the subsequent Lots as he may think proper; provided always that no Lot shall be sold below the minimum price of Rupees 400 specified in the 2nd Clause of these Conditions.

13*th*. The purchaser of any Lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing, in immediate succession, any number of Lots of the same Agency Opium to the extent of Twenty-five Lots; and for the Lots so purchased, the purchaser shall deposit for each Lot 25 per cent. even money of the amount bid by him for the first Lot, or Rupees 1,000 for each Lot, and pay the same price per Chest as that for which he purchased his first Lot; provided always that there remain a sufficient number of Lots of that Opium to complete the said Twenty-five, but not otherwise.

14*th*. In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the Sale of the Opium included in this Notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, and all and every plea and pleas to the jurisdiction of the said Supreme Court shall be waived.

15*th*. The following papers, together with samples of the Opium for Sale, will be exhibited for inspection on the day of Sale, or may be seen previously to that date by application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue:—

No. 2, Report of the Examination of such Opium.

16*th*. The Public are hereby informed, that in providing the investment of the Behar and Benares Opium, for the year 1854-55, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years, to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the Cakes, and to have the due proportion of Opium put into each Cake. An account of the weight of the drug when packed at Behar and Benares, and a statement of the average weight of the Chests, indiscriminately taken, for the purpose of comparison, from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta, may be seen on application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue; and further, that four Chests of Behar and Benares Opium, which have been reserved from the provision of the two preceding years, will be also shown to the purchasers at the Exchange Rooms on the day of Sale, to enable them to judge of the state of preservation in which the drug has kept.

17*th*. Any further information, respecting weight or quality of the Opium advertized for Sale, that may be desired by parties connected with the Trade, will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on application at the Office of the Board of Revenue, but in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of Opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to Chests after the sale and delivery of the Opium for shipment.

18*th*. The Public are hereby informed, that in addition to the quantity above-mentioned, the following quantities,* more or less, of Behar and Benares Opium, will be brought to Sale in the year 1856 on or about the

If the Agents of the French Government shall not make the requisition for Opium within the time above-mentioned, the entire quantity of about 41,508 Chests of Behar and Benares, as above estimated, will be brought to Sale in the usual manner, and if they shall make application for a quantity of Opium to be delivered to them out of the quantity advertized for Sale at each or any of the Twelve Sales above-mentioned, but shall not pay for it within the prescribed period of payment, the Government of Bengal reserves to itself the right of disposing of the Opium which the French Authorities may so fail to pay for, either by increasing the quantity reserved at the Sale next ensuing the date of payment, or by selling it at a Sale to be held expressly for the purpose:—

Article of the Convention above referred to.

Article 6th "With regard to the Trade in Opium, it is agreed between the high contracting parties, that at each of the periodical Sales of that Article, there shall be reserved for the French Government, and delivered upon requisition duly made by the Agents of His Most Christian Majesty, or by the persons duly appointed by them, the number of Chests so applied for, provided that such supply shall not exceed Three hundred Chests in each year, and the price for the same shall be determined by the average rate at which Opium shall have been sold at every such periodical Sale, it being understood that, if the quantity of Opium applied for at any one time shall not be taken on account of the French Government by the Agents of His Most Christian Majesty within the usual period of delivery, the quantity so applied for shall nevertheless be considered as so much on reduction of the Three hundred Chests hereinbefore mentioned. The requisitions for Opium as aforesaid are to be addressed to the Governor General at Calcutta, within thirty days after notice of the intended Sales shall have been published in the Government Gazette."

ON FLOWERS AND FLOWER GARDENS,

BY D L RICHARDSON

PRICE THREE RUPEES.

Published by Messrs. P S DeRozario & Co

 The book extends to 204 full-sized octavo pages

The new book by D L R, which we have for some time past been anxiously looking for, is published, and will no doubt be as popular as the preceding works of this justly favorite author, whose writings are even more highly esteemed in England and America than in India.—Bengal Hurkaru, September 28, 1855.

He is well known in the literary circles of England as one of the purest English writers of the day. To say that the work before us is among the happiest productions of his pen, is to say more for it than the highest eulogy can express It has been long expected, but public patience has received an ample reward.—Eastern Star, September 29, 1855.

It is a valuable contribution to our Indian Literature.—Calcutta Christian Advocate, October 6

A Book of Gems, well worthy the Author's high reputation.—Central Star, October 13.

We cannot but recommend this volume to all who admire sprightly writing and elegantly selected poetry.—Indian Times, October 17.

Mr. Richardson—better known to the reading public as "D. L. R."—has a wide reputation as a graceful and polished writer.—Bombay Telegraph and Courier, October 22.

A very pleasant book which we can cordially recommend to the attention of our readers—A delightful melange about flowers and flower gardens, floriculture in general, and the enjoyments of rural life.—Bombay Times, October 27, 1855.

His last work is well worthy of a post in any library where the quality and not quantity of books is considered.—Phœnix, November 13, 1855.

Lights on Flat Island and on the Coast of Mauritius.

LIGHT-HOUSES.

His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified for general information, that the following Lights will be exhibited on Flat Island and on the Coast of Mauritius, on and from the 1st December next, viz. :—

A first class revolving Catoptric Light on Flat Island.

A first class fixed Catoptric Light on Cannonier Point.

A green Mast Light on Cooper's Island, at the mouth of the Harbour.

Detailed descriptions of, and sailing directions for these Lights are published below for general information.

J. DOWLAND,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
7th September 1855.

Sailing Directions for making the Anchorage off the Harbour of Port Louis, Mauritius, with reference to the Light-houses recently erected upon "Flat Island" and "Cannonier Point," and also the two Mast Lights near the entrance of the Harbour.

DESCRIPTION OF THE LIGHTS.

"FLAT ISLAND."

This is a revolving Catoptric Light of the first order, situated at the South West or highest extremity of the Island, in Latitude S 19° 53′ 26″, and Longitude E 57° 38′ 8″, determined by Triangulation from the Observatory of Port Louis Variation of the Compass 11° 47′ 13″ West

Its elevation above the mean level of the sea (the rise of tide being only about 3 feet) is 366 feet, and it will be visible in clear weather from the deck of a vessel 13 feet above the water, a distance of about 25 Nautical Miles.

"CANNONIER POINT."

This is a fixed Catoptric Light, also of the first order.

It is situated in Latitude S 20° 0′ 35″ and Longitude E. 57° 22′ 39″. Its elevation above the mean level of the sea is 39 feet 6 inches, and it will be seen from the deck of a vessel 13 feet above the water, a distance of about 10 Nautical Miles.

The objects of this Light are, to indicate the position of a dangerous shoal, nearly 1¾ miles from the shore, and to keep vessels clear of the coral reefs to the North-East and South-West of the Point.

"HARBOUR MAST LIGHTS."

One of these is placed as a leading Light (Red) at the Martello Tower at the mouth, and on the left bank of the Grand River; and the other (Green) at Fort George, on Tonnelier Island.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS.

Vessels making the land from the Eastward (Windward) side of the Island should give a berth of 2½ Miles to the reefs off Amber Island and be careful not to approach the Light on Flat Island on a course to the Westward of N. W. by N. ½ N., until Gunner's Quoin bears West, when they may shape a mid-channel course between Gunner's Quoin and Flat Island.

When to the Westward of the Quoin the Light at Cannonier Point will become visible and must be approached with the Flat Island Light, bearing astern E. N. E. ½ N., until abreast of Cannonier Point, when that Light will bear S., E by S a berth of rather more than 2 Nautical Miles being thus given to the dangerous reef and shoal off the Point—They may then haul up to S. W. by S. for the anchorage distant about 10 Nautical Miles, taking care to keep the Cannonier Point Light white for a distance of 6¾ Miles, when the Flat Island and Cannonier Point Lights will appear in one—the change of this color to red within that distance will indicate a too near approach to the end.

The red Light at the mouth of the Grand River will now be opened bearing S S W, for which vessels may safely steer until the Mast Light (Green) upon Fort George on Tonnelier Island bears S. E. ½ S, when they may immediately let go the anchor, being on the best ground—a nearer approach to the Light at Grand River would bring them too close to the reefs

If the night is clear, the "Corps de Garde" Mountain will be clearly seen in line with the Grand River Light.

It is, however, generally advisable for vessels passing Cannonier Point at night, to lay to, keeping sail occasionally upon the ship, for the purpose of maintaining a good position for making the anchorage at day-break, in preference to attempting it at night, by which, in a very few instances, any time will be gained. Considerable risk, as well as the necessity for anchoring outside at all will also be thus avoided.

Surveyor General.

ON FLOWERS AND FLOWER GARDENS,

BY D. L. RICHARDSON.

PRICE THREE RUPEES.

Published by Messrs. P. S. DeRozario & Co.

 The book extends to 264 full-sized octavo pages.

The new book by D. L. R., which we have for some time past been anxiously looking for, is published, and will no doubt be as popular as the preceding works of this justly favorite author, whose writings are even more highly esteemed in England and America than in India.—Bengal Hurkaru, September 28, 1855.

He is well known in the literary circles of England as one of the purest English writers of the day. To say that the work before us is among the happiest productions of his pen, is to say more for it than the highest eulogy can express. It has been long expected, but public patience has received an ample reward.—Eastern Star, September 29, 1855.

It is a valuable contribution to our Indian Literature.—Calcutta Christian Advocate, October 6.

A Book of Gems, well worthy the Author's high reputation.—Central Star, October 13.

We cannot but recommend this volume to all who admire sprightly writing and elegantly selected poetry.—Indian Times, October 17.

Mr. Richardson—better known to the reading public as "D. L. R."—has a wide reputation as a careful and polished writer.—Bombay Telegraph and Courier, October 22.

A very pleasant book which we can cordially recommend to the attention of our readers—A delightful melange about flowers and flower gardens, floriculture in general, and the enjoyments of rural life.—Bombay Times, October 27, 1855.

His last work is well worthy of a post in any library where the quality and not quantity of books is considered.—Phœnix, November 13, 1855.

Just Published,

ON FLOWERS AND FLOWER GARDENS,

BY D. L RICHARDSON.

PRICE THREE RUPEES.

Published by Messrs. P. S. DeRozario & Co.

 The book extends to 264 full-sized octavo pages.

The new book by D. L. R., which we have for some time past been anxiously looking for, is published, and will no doubt be as popular as the preceding works of this justly favorite author, whose writings are even more highly esteemed in England and America than in India.—Bengal Hurkaru, September 28, 1855.

He is well known in the literary circles of England as one of the purest English writers of the day. To say that the work before us is among the happiest productions of his pen, is to say more for it than the highest eulogy can express. It has been long expected, but public patience has received an ample reward.—Eastern Star, September 29, 1855

It is a valuable contribution to our Indian Literature.—Calcutta Christian Advocate, October 6

A Book of Gems, well worthy the Author's high reputation.—Central Star, October 13.

We cannot but recommend this volume to all who admire sprightly writing and elegantly selected poetry.—Indian Times, October 17.

Mr. Richardson—better known to the reading public as "D. L R."—has a wide reputation as a careful and polished writer.—Bombay Telegraph and Courier, October 22

A very pleasant book which we can cordially recommend to the attention of our readers—A delightful melange about flowers and flower gardens, floriculture in general, and the enjoyments of rural life —Bombay Times, October 27, 1855.

His last work is well worthy of a post in any library where the quality and not quantity of books is considered. —Phœnix, November 13, 1855.

LIGHT-HOUSES.

His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified for general information, that the following Lights will be exhibited on Flat Island and on the Coast of Mauritius, on and from the 1st December next, viz.:—

A first class revolving Catoptric Light on Flat Island.

A first class fixed Catoptric Light on Cannonier Point.

A green Mast Light on Cooper's Island, at the mouth of the Harbour.

Detailed descriptions of, and sailing directions for these Lights, are published below for general information.

J. DOWLAND,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
7th September 1855.

Sailing Directions for making the Anchorage off the Harbour of Port Louis, Mauritius, with reference to the Light-Houses recently erected upon "Flat Island" and "Cannonier Point," and also the two Mast Lights near the entrance of the Harbour

DESCRIPTION OF THE LIGHTS.

"FLAT ISLAND."

This is a revolving Catoptric Light of the first order, situated at the South-West or highest extremity of the Island, in Latitude S. 19° 53′ 26″ and Longitude E. 57° 38′ 8″, determined by Triangulation from the Observatory of Port Louis. Variation of the Compass 11° 47′ 13″ West.

Its elevation above the mean level of the sea (the rise of tide being only about 3 feet) is 366 feet, and it will be visible in clear weather from the deck of a vessel 13 feet above the water, a distance of about 25 Nautical Miles.

"CANNONIER POINT."

This is a fixed Catoptric Light, also of the first order

It is situated in Latitude S. 20° 0′ 35″ and Longitude E 57° *32′ 39″. Its elevation above the mean level of the sea is 39 feet 6 inches, and it will be seen from the deck of a vessel 13 feet above the water, a distance of about 10 Nautical Miles.

The objects of this Light are, to indicate the position of a dangerous shoal, nearly *1¼ miles from the shore, and to keep vessels clear of the coral reefs to the North-East and South-West of the Point.

"HARBOUR MAST LIGHTS."

One of these is placed as a leading Light (Red) at the Martello Tower at the mouth, and on the left bank of the Grand River; and the other (Green) at Fort George, on Tonnelier Island.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS.

Vessels making the land from the Eastward (Windward) side of the Island should give a berth of 2½ Miles to the reefs off Amber Island and be careful not to approach the Light on Flat Island on a course to the Westward of *N. N. W. ½ W., until Gunner's Quoin bears West, when they may shape a mid-channel course between Gunner's Quoin and Flat Island.

When to the Westward of the Quoin the Light at Cannonier Point will become visible and must be approached with the Flat Island Light, bearing astern E N E. ½ N, until abreast of Cannonier Point, when that Light will bear S. E. by S., a berth of rather more than 2 Nautical Miles being thus given to the dangerous reef and shoal off the Point. They may then haul up to S. W. by S. for the anchorage, distant about 10 Nautical Miles taking care to keep the Cannonier Point Light white for a distance of 6½ Miles, when the Flat Island and Cannonier Lights will appear in one—the change of this color to red within that distance will indicate a too near approach to the land.

The red Light at the mouth of the Grand River will now be opened bearing S. S W., for which vessels may safely steer until the Mast Light (Green) upon Fort George on Tonnelier Island bears S E. ½ S, when they may immediately let go the anchor, being on the best ground—a nearer approach to the Light at Grand River would bring them too close to the reefs

If the night is clear, the "Corps de Garde" Mountain will be clearly seen in line with the Grand River Light.

It is, however, generally advisable for vessels passing Cannonier Point at night, to lay to, keeping sail occasionally upon the ship, for the purpose of maintaining a good position for making the anchorage at day-break, in preference to attempting it at night, by which, in a very few instances, any time will be gained. Considerable risk, as well as the necessity for anchoring outside at all will also be thus avoided.

Surveyor General.
EDWARD KELLY,
Harbour Master

We cannot but recommend this volume to all who admire sprightly writing and elegantly selected poetry.—Indian Times, October 17.

Mr. Richardson—better known to the reading public as "D. L. R." has a wide reputation as a careful and polished writer.—Bombay Telegraph and Courier, October 22.

A very pleasant book which we can cordially recommend to the attention of our readers—A delightful melange about flowers and flower gardens, floriculture in general, and the enjoyments of rural life.—Bombay Times, October 27, 1855.

His last work is well worthy of a post in any library where the quality and not quantity of books is considered.—Phœnix, November 13, 1855.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1856.

Legislative Council.

The 19th January 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th January 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 23rd of April next:—

A Bill to facilitate the remedies on Bills of Exchange, Hoondies, and Promissory Notes by the prevention of frivolous or fictitious defences to actions thereon in Her Majesty's Supreme Courts.

Preamble.

WHEREAS bond fide holders of dishonored Bills of Exchange, Hoondies, and Promissory Notes, are often unjustly delayed, and put to unnecessary expense in recovering the amount thereof by reason of frivolous or fictitious defences to actions thereon, and it is expedient that greater facilities than now exist should be given for the recovery of money due on such Bills, Hoondies, and Notes: It is enacted as follows:—

All actions upon Bills of Exchange, &c., may be by writ of summons in the form contained in Schedule A.

I. From and after the day of , all actions upon Bills of Exchange, Hoondies, or Promissory Notes commenced in any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature within six months after the same shall have become due and payable, may be by writ of summons in the special form contained in the Schedule A. to this Act annexed, and endorsed as therein mentioned.

Writ to issue on order of Judge obtained upon production of Bill of Exchange, &c., and affidavit showing that the amount is due, &c.

II. Such writ of summons shall issue, without plaint filed, on an order to be obtained from a Judge of any of the said Courts upon production of the Bill of Exchange, Hoondie, or Promissory Note; and on an Affidavit or Affidavits showing that the amount sought to be recovered is due to the plaintiff as the holder of such Bill of Exchange, Hoondie, or Promissory Note from the party sought to be charged thereon, and that such party is subject to the jurisdiction of the Court.

Time and manner of service of writ.

III. The service of such writ shall in all cases be personal, unless a Judge of the Court out of which the same is issued shall upon special grounds have directed that a particular mode of substituted service shall be good service thereof; and the time to be named therein shall in no case be less than twelve days including the day of service, and shall be increased in proportion to the distance of the defendant's residence from the Court, according to the usual practice of the Court in like cases.

Plaintiff, upon filing affidavit of due service, may at once sign final judgment as in the form contained in Schedule B.

IV. If the defendant shall not have obtained leave to appear, and shall not have appeared to such writ according to the exigency thereof, it shall be lawful for a Judge of any of the said Courts, upon being satisfied by affidavit, and by the production of a copy of the said writ of summons and the endorsements thereon, that the same has been duly served, and upon such further proof of such service, and of the truth of the plaintiff's demand (if any) as he may see fit to require, to order that the plaintiff be at liberty to sign judgment in the form contained in Schedule B. to this Act annexed, for any sum not exceeding the sum endorsed on the writ, together with subsequent interest calculated to the date of judgment, and a sum for costs to be fixed by the Judges of the said Courts respectively (unless on special grounds the Judge shall see fit to allow the plaintiff more than such fixed sum, in which case the costs shall be taxed in the ordinary way); and the plaintiff may, upon such judgment, issue execution forthwith.

V. A Judge of any of the said Courts shall, upon the application of the defendant at any time within the period fixed by the writ of summons for obtaining such leave, give leave to appear to such writ and defend the action, on the defendant paying into Court the sum endorsed on the writ; or upon affidavits, satisfactory to the Judge, which disclose a legal or equitable defence, or such facts as would make it incumbent on the holder to prove consideration, or such other facts as the Judge may deem sufficient to support the application, and on such terms as to security, making admissions, or otherwise, as to the Judge may seem fit; and in every such case the order giving leave to appear shall be filed by the defendant at the time of entering his appearance with the proper Officer, and no plea which is inconsistent with such order shall afterwards be received.

Defendant showing a defence upon the merits to have leave to appear.

VI. After judgment, the Court or a Judge may, under special circumstances, set aside the judgment, and, if necessary, stay or set aside execution, and may give leave to appear to the writ, and defend the action, if it shall appear to be reasonable to the Court or Judge so to do and on such terms as to the Court or Judge may seem just.

Judge may, under special circumstances, set aside judgment, &c.

VII. In any proceedings under this Act it shall be competent to the Court or a Judge to order the Bill, Hoondie, or Note sought to be proceeded upon, to be forthwith deposited with an Officer of the Court, and further to order that all proceedings be stayed until the plaintiff shall have given security for the costs thereof.

Judge may order Bill, &c to be deposited with Officer of Court in certain cases.

VIII. The holder of every dishonored Bill of Exchange, Hoondie, or Promissory Note, shall have the same remedies for the recovery of the expenses incurred in noting the same for non-acceptance, or non-payment, or otherwise, by reason of such dishonor, as he has under this Act for the recovery of the amount of such Bill or Note.

Recovery of expenses of noting non acceptance, &c. of dishonored Bill, &c.

IX. The holder of any Bill of Exchange, Hoondie, or Promissory Note, may, if he think fit, issue one writ of summons according to this Act against all or any number of the parties to such Bill, Hoondie, or Promissory Note, and such writ of summons shall be the commencement of an action or actions against the party or parties therein named respectively; and all subsequent proceedings against such parties respectively shall be in like manner, so far as may be, as if separate writs of summons had been issued.

One summons may be issued against all or any of the parties to a Bill, &c.

X. If the defendant in any such action shall, under the provisions of this Act, have obtained the leave of a Judge to appear, and shall have appeared to such action, the plaintiff shall, within one week from the date of such appearance, file a plaint in the usual form and rule the defendant to plead thereto; and if he shall make default herein, the defendant shall be entitled at any time thereafter to move for judgment, as in the case of a non-suit.

If defendant have leave to appear, plaintiff to file plaint within one week of defendant's appearance.

If plaintiff make default, defendant entitled to move for judgment as in case of non-suit.

XI. The term "Her Majesty's Supreme Courts" used in this Act shall be taken to include the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales' Island, Singpore, and Malacca, and every division of that Court.

Legislative Council.

The 19th January 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th January 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 23rd of April next:—

A Bill to remove all legal obstacles to the Marriage of Hindoo Widows.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is known that, by the law as administered in the Civil Courts established in the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, Hindoo widows, with certain exceptions, are held to be, by reason of their having been once married, incapable of contracting a second valid marriage, and the offspring of such widows by any second marriage are held to be illegitimate, and incapable of inheriting property: and whereas many Hindoos believe that this imputed legal incapacity, although it is in accordance with established custom, is not in accordance with a true interpretation of the precepts of their religion, and desire that the Civil law administered by the Courts of Justice shall no longer prevent those Hindoos who may be so minded from adopting a different custom, in accordance with the dictates of their own consciences: and whereas it is just to relieve all such Hindoos from this legal incapacity of which they complain; and the removal of all legal obstacles to the marriage of Hindoo widows will tend to the promotion of good morals and to the public welfare: It is enacted as follows:—

No marriage between Hindoos to be invalid by reason of the woman having been previously married or betrothed to another person since deceased.

I. No marriage contracted between Hindoos shall be invalid, and the issue of no such marriage shall be illegitimate, by reason of the woman having been previously married or betrothed to another person since deceased, any custom and any interpretation of Hindoo Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Estate of deceased husband to descend to next heirs on re-marriage of widow.

II. All rights and interests which any widow may by law have in her deceased husband's estate, either by way of maintenance or by inheritance, shall, upon her second marriage, cease and determine as if she had then died; and the next heirs of such deceased husband then living shall thereupon succeed to such estate.

Proviso.

Provided that nothing in this Section shall affect the rights and interests of any widow in any estate or other property which she may have succeeded by inheritance otherwise than through her deceased husband, or to which she may have become entitled under the will of her deceased husband, or in any estate or other property which she may possess as stridhun, or which she may have herself acquired, either during the life-time of her deceased husband, or after his death.

PRICE THREE RUPEES.

Published by Messrs. P. S. DeRozario & Co.

 The book extends to 264 full-sized octavo pages.

The new book by D. L. R., which we have for some time past been anxiously looking for, is published, and will no doubt be as popular as the preceding works of this justly favorite author, whose writings are even more highly esteemed in England and America than in India.—Bengal Hurkaru, September 28, 1855.

He is well known in the literary circles of England as one of the purest English writers of the day. To say that the work before us is among the happiest productions of his pen, is to say more for it than the highest eulogy can express. It has been long expected, but public patience has received an ample reward.—Eastern Star, September 29, 1855.

It is a valuable contribution to our Indian Literature.—Calcutta Christian Advocate, October 6.

A Book of Gems, well worthy the Author's high reputation.—Central Star, October 13.

We cannot but recommend this volume to all who admire sprightly writing and elegantly selected poetry.—Indian Times, October 17.

Mr. Richardson—better known to the reading public as "D. L. R."—has a wide reputation as a careful and polished writer.—Bombay Telegraph and Courier, October 22.

A very pleasant book which we can cordially recommend to the attention of our readers—A delightful melange about flowers and flower gardens, floriculture in general, and the enjoyments of rural life.—Bombay Times, October 27, 1855.

His last work is well worthy of a post in any library where the quality and not quantity of books is considered.—Phœnix, November 13, 1855.

Time and manner of service of writ.

III. The service of such writ shall in all cases be personal, unless a Judge of the Court out of which the same is issued shall upon special grounds have directed that a particular mode of substituted service shall be good service thereof; and the time to be named therein shall in no case be less than twelve days including the day of service, and shall be increased in proportion to the distance of the defendant's residence from the Court, according to the usual practice of the Court in like cases.

IV. If the defendant shall not have obtained leave to appear, and shall not have appeared to such writ according to the exigency thereof, it shall be lawful for a Judge of any of the said Courts, upon being satisfied by affidavit and by the production of a copy of the said writ of summons and the endorsements thereon, that the same has been duly served, and upon such further proof of such service, and of the truth of the plaintiff's demand (if any) as he may see fit to require, to order that the plaintiff be at liberty to sign judgment in the form contained in Schedule B to this Act annexed, for any sum not exceeding the sum endorsed on the writ, together with subsequent interest calculated to the date of judgment, and a sum for costs to be fixed by the Judges of the said Courts respectively, (unless on special grounds the Judge shall see fit to allow the plaintiff more than such fixed sum, in which case the costs shall be taxed in the ordinary way); and the plaintiff may, upon such judgment, issue execution forthwith.

V. A Judge of any of the said Courts shall, upon the application of the defendant at any time within the period fixed by the writ of summons for obtaining such leave, give leave to appear to such writ and defend the action, on the defendant paying into Court the sum endorsed on the writ; or upon affidavits, satisfactory to the Judge, which disclose a legal or equitable defence, or such facts as would make it incumbent on the holder to prove consideration, or such other facts as the Judge may deem sufficient to support the application, and on such terms as to security, making admissions, or otherwise, as to the Judge may seem fit; and in every such case the order giving leave to appear shall be filed by the defendant at the time of entering his appearance with the proper Officer, and no plea which is inconsistent with such order shall afterwards be received.

VI. After judgment, the Court or a Judge may, under special circumstances, set aside the judgment, and, if necessary, stay or set aside execution, and may give leave to appear to the writ, and defend the action, if it shall appear to be reasonable to the Court or Judge so to do and on such terms as to the Court or Judge may seem just.

Judge may, under special circumstances, set aside judgment, &c.

VII. Judge may order Bill, &c. to be deposited with Officer of Court in certain cases.

VIII. The holder of every dishonored Bill of Exchange, Hoondie, or Promissory Note, shall have the same remedies for the recovery of the expenses incurred in noting the same for non-acceptance, or non-payment, or otherwise, by reason of such dishonor, as he has under this Act for the recovery of the amount of such Bill or Note

One summons may be issued against all or any of the parties to a Bill, &c.

X. If the defendant in any such action shall, under the provisions of this Act, have obtained the leave of a Judge to appear, and shall have appeared to such action, the plaintiff shall, within one week from the date of such appearance, file a plaint in the usual form and rule the defendant to plead thereto; and if he shall make default herein, the defendant shall be entitled at any time thereafter to move for judgment, as in the case of a non-suit.

Legislative Council.

The 19th January 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th January 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 23rd of April next:—

A Bill to remove all legal obstacles to the Marriage of Hindoo Widows.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is known that, by the law as administered in the Civil Courts established in the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, Hindoo widows, with certain exceptions, are held to be, by reason of their having been once married, incapable of contracting a second valid marriage, and the offspring of such widows by any second marriage are held to be illegitimate, and incapable of inheriting property: and whereas many Hindoos believe that this imputed legal incapacity, although it is in accordance with established custom, is not in accordance with a true interpretation of the precepts of their religion, and desire that the Civil law administered by the Courts of Justice shall no longer prevent those Hindoos who may be so minded from adopting a different custom, in accordance with the dictates of their own consciences: and whereas it is just to relieve all such Hindoos from this legal incapacity of which they complain; and the removal of all legal obstacles to the marriage of Hindoo widows will tend to the promotion of good morals and to the public welfare: It is enacted as follows:—

No marriage between Hindoos to be invalid by reason of the woman having been previously married or betrothed to another person since deceased.

I. No marriage contracted between Hindoos shall be invalid, and the issue of no such marriage shall be illegitimate, by reason of the woman having been previously married or betrothed to another person since deceased, any custom and any interpretation of Hindoo Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Estate of deceased husband to descend to next heirs on re-marriage of widow.

II. All rights and interests which any widow may by law have in her deceased husband's estate, either by way of maintenance or by inheritance, shall, upon her second marriage, cease and determine as if she had then died; and the next heirs of such deceased husband then living shall thereupon succeed to such estate. Provided that nothing in this Section shall affect the rights and interests of any widow in any estate or other property to which she may have succeeded by inheritance otherwise than through her deceased husband, or to which she may have become entitled under the will of her deceased husband, or in any estate or other property which she may possess as stridhun, or which she may have herself acquired, either during the life-time of her deceased husband, or after his death.

General Order by the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council.

Fort William, 23rd January 1856.

No. 132 of 1856.—It appears from the Report of a Court of Inquiry held at Bolarum, the proceedings of which have been laid before Government, that, on the evening of the 21st of September 1855, a very serious outrage was perpetrated on the person of Brigadier Colin Mackenzie, Commanding the Southern Division of the Hyderabad Contingent, by certain Sowars and followers of the 3rd Regiment of Cavalry of the Contingent, during the celebration of the Festival of the Mohurrum at Bolarum.

The Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council, having maturely considered the circumstances under which this lamentable occurrence took place, and having directed that the persons concerned in committing the deadly outrage upon the person of Brigadier Mackenzie shall be tried for the offence in the usual form, is pleased to promulgate for general information the conclusions to which he has come, and the measures which he considers it necessary to adopt, on the present occasion.

It appears that, on the 20th of September, a Cantonment Order was issued at Bolarum by Brigadier Mackenzie, regulating the arrangements for conducting the processions of the different Regiments at the Station, so as not to interfere with one another; and the Order declared that no procession, music, or noise, would be allowed on any account whatever from 12 o'clock on Saturday night the 22nd, to 12 o'clock on Sunday night the 23rd of September. On the 21st a subsidiary Order was issued, modifying this declaration; it having been ascertained that Sunday, the 23rd, was a day of the Festival, on which processions were indispensable to its due celebration.

The Orders thus issued were, in the opinion of the Governor General in Council, in their general tenor, unusually stringent. The first Order was not only unusual, but objectionable, in that it put forward the Mohurrum in direct conflict with the Christian Sabbath, and so introduced a religious element into the prohibition. But this Order was withdrawn.

It further appears that, on the evening of the 21st of September, a procession was observed by Brigadier Mackenzie proceeding along one of the roads by which the passage of processions had just been prohibited in orders. As the party approached his own residence, Brigadier Mackenzie sent word to them to be silent and to proceed to their own lines; but the messengers, of whom several were sent, were unsuccessful. Upon this disregard of his orders, the Brigadier himself went up to the procession to enforce compliance; and finding no obedience paid to him, and being met with shouts of defiance, he seized two standards after struggling with the bearers, and wresting a sheathed sword from the hand of one of the parties, the Brigadier struck the man with it. One or two followers, who were of the procession, were taken up, and the rest, then dispersed. The standards and sword were quietly retained by the Brigadier.

Shortly afterwards, an armed mob, issuing from the Cavalry Lines, and having among them, as it appears, many Sowars, broke into Brigadier Mackenzie's garden, murderously assaulted him, and followed him into his house, threatening his life. By the same mob, Lieutenant Murray, Second in Command of the 3rd Cavalry Regiment, was wounded and knocked down, and violence was offered to several gentlemen and ladies who happened to pass along the road where they were collected.

Some of the ringleaders have been arrested, and with them the law of the land will deal.

It is with sincere regret that the Governor General in Council finds himself bound to say that, in his opinion, the immediate and the real cause of the outrage by which Brigadier Mackenzie has so severely suffered, was the act of the Brigadier himself in rushing from his compound into the midst of a Mussulman rabble, roused by the excitement of the Mohurrum, and there seizing their standards and coming into personal conflict with them.

The Governor General in Council entertains a high respect for Brigadier Mackenzie, as a good and distinguished Soldier, and as honorable, conscientious, and gallant a gentleman as the ranks of the Army can show. His Lordship in Council therefore looks with not less regret than disapprobation on the intemperate act which has produced so much evil, and has brought down such grievous suffering upon the Brigadier himself. This Officer will be compelled by the severity of his wounds to quit Bolarum, and proceed on leave to England.

But the act of the Brigadier did not justify the murderous violence of those with whom he interfered.

Neither did it justify the mutinous conduct of the Sowars of the 3rd Regiment of Cavalry.

It is clear to the Governor General in Council, from the evidence before him, that the greater part of the Regiment in the lines was in a state of open mutiny; some rushed into the streets, cutting and hacking at the passers-by, and brutally assailing even women in their course.

Their European Officers were not allowed to approach them. They paraded without orders from their European Officers, and without any of the usual calls to parade, but by the direction of their Rissaldar. They were armed, mounted, and equipped. They sent out Videttes to watch the approach of other Troops sent for from Secunderabad, and acted as a military body guided by other orders than those of their regular European superiors.

Such proceedings are manifestly destructive of all discipline, and tend not less to destroy all confidence in the fidelity of Troops that serve the Government. They appear to the Governor General in Council to call for grave animadversion and for severe punishment.

They appear to His Lordship in Council to call the louder for animadversion and punishment, that this is not the first time that the Hyderabad Cavalry has been guilty of violence towards their European Officers.

The Governor General in Council is convinced that he would be perfectly warranted in disbanding the whole Regiment, if he so pleased; but it is not his intention to have recourse to so sweeping a measure.

His Lordship in Council holds that, in every such case as this, it is to the Native Officers that the Government has a right to look for the maintenance of order and fidelity in the Corps. Native Officers have long been in the habit of thinking that, if they only keep themselves clear from any manifest participation in the disaffection of their Corps, if they abstain themselves from any overt act of disobedience or mutiny, no blame will be imputed to them, and they will be allowed to escape with impunity.

The Governor General in Council regards this as a most pernicious feeling, which Government should lose no opportunity of eradicating.

The Native Officers of the 3rd Cavalry of the Hyderabad Contingent will accordingly now be dealt with as responsible for its conduct.

That they could have exercised a control over their men is clear, for, when one of their number, Jemadar Shah Mirza Beg, loyally refused to join their tumultuous parade, and ordered the 5th Troop to remain in their quarters, though a very few men had in the first instance paraded, after the Jemadar's orders not a man of the Troop appears to have quitted the lines.

That, with the exception of Jemadars Shah Mirza Beg and Mozuffur Khan, the Native Officers did not control their men, is shown by the whole tenor of the evidence. They tolerated, if they did not abet, the mutiny; they did all they could to screen their men from blame or punishment; and they lent no assistance whatever to the authorities in their attempts to discover the men of the Regiment who were accused of having committed the murderous assault on the life of Brigadier Mackenzie.

Having regard to these considerations, the Governor General in Council has resolved on, and hereby directs, the dismissal from the Service of the Native Commissioned Officers of the 3rd Cavalry, as a fitting and an effectual measure of punishment.

There will be several exceptions to it.

Jemadar Shah Mirza Beg, whose conduct was loyal and obedient, will of course be excepted. Officers who were on detachment, or were absent from the lines, or were confined by sickness, will also in justice be excepted. Jemadar Mozuffur Khan is also excepted, he having invited the interposition of the European Officers.

Jemadar Shah Mirza Beg is appointed Rissaldar in the Regiment, in the room of Rissaldar Meer Bundah Hussun, now dismissed.

In making the necessary promotions in succession to the Native Officers dismissed, it is the desire of the Governor General in Council, that no man of the Corps who was present in the lines during the days of the tumult and mutiny shall receive advancement, unless he belonged to the 5th Troop.

The Orderly Sowar attached to Brigadier Mackenzie on the 21st of September, Guffoor Khan, Bargeer, is advanced to the Rank of Naib Duffadar.

The Governor General in Council considers it necessary to note the conduct of the Infantry Guard at the Brigadier's house on the 21st of September.

It is proved that the permanent Havildar's Guard made no attempt whatever to resist the mob, or defend the person of the Brigadier.

The Jemadar who came subsequently with another Infantry Guard, refused to seize the rioters who were pointed out to him.

Brigadier Mackenzie, it appears, had enjoined the Havildar's Guard not to load, when he first saw the mob coming; but that injunction was, in the opinion of the Governor General in Council, no justification to the Guard for not resisting, when it saw the mob actually cutting down its Officer before its eyes.

The plea of the Jemadar, that he would not take orders from the man who pointed out the culprits, is, in the judgment of the Governor General in Council, perfectly worthless.

Cowardice in a Soldier is as much to be condemned as mutiny. To defend his Officer is certainly not less his duty than to obey him.

For some men of the two Infantry Guards, there appears to be the palliation that they were placed where possibly they might not have distinctly seen what was passing; some were posted as sentinels; one had in charge a prisoner. But the Governor General in Council can see no palliation or excuse for the conduct of the leaders of these Guards; and His Lordship in Council holding the Commanders as mainly responsible, accordingly directs that Havildar Bowanee Uppadiah, of the 3rd Infantry Regiment, and Jemadar Sumjawun, of the 3rd Infantry Regiment, of the Hyderabad Contingent, who commanded the two Guards, be dismissed the Service.

The Governor General in Council, in closing this statement of his views of the lamentable occurrences at Bolarum above detailed, feels constrained to observe, that the evidence before the Court of Inquiry has not left a favorable impression on his mind in regard to Captain Sutherland G. G. Orr, Commanding the 3rd Cavalry Regiment, nor satisfied His Lordship in Council that that Officer exhibited as much vigor, resolution, or determination to expose and punish the mutinous conduct of his Corps, as Government would have expected to see in the European Commandant of the Regiment.

The Governor General in Council embraces the present occasion to reiterate in the strongest manner the injunction so repeatedly given to Officers in the Service of Government, never to interfere with the religious observances of the Natives of India under their control, further than is actually necessary for the preservation of the public peace and the maintenance of discipline and order.

In conclusion, the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct, that this General Order, pointing out as it does the duties, responsibilities and liabilities of Native Officers, in cases of mutiny, shall be not only issued to the Hyderabad Contingent, but communicated to all other Forces and Contingents also under the immediate orders of the Government of India.

Sailing Directions for making the Anchorage off the Harbour of Port Louis, Mauritius, with reference to the Light-Houses recently erected upon "Flat Island" and "Cannonier Point," and also the two Mast Lights near the entrance of the Harbour.

DESCRIPTION OF THE LIGHTS.

"FLAT ISLAND."

This is a revolving Catoptric Light of the first order, situated at the South-West or highest extremity of the Island, in Latitude S. 19° 53′ 26″ and Longitude E. 57° 38′ 8″, determined by Triangulation from the Observatory of Port Louis. Variation of the Compass 11° 47′ 13″ West

Its elevation above the mean level of the sea (the rise of tide being only about 3 feet) is 366 feet, and it will be visible in clear weather from the deck of a vessel 13 feet above the water, a distance of about 25 Nautical Miles.

"CANNONIER POINT."

This is a fixed Catoptric Light, also of the first order.

It is situated in Latitude S. 20° 0′ 35″ and Longitude E. 57° *32′ 39′. Its elevation above the mean level of the sea is 39 feet 6 inches, and it will be seen from the deck of a vessel 13 feet above the water, a distance of about 10 Nautical Miles.

The objects of this Light are, to indicate the position of a dangerous shoal, nearly *1¼ miles from the shore, and to keep vessels clear of the coral reefs to the North-East and South-West of the Point.

"HARBOUR MAST LIGHTS."

One of these is placed as a leading Light (Red) at the Martello Tower at the mouth, and on the left bank of the Grand River; and the other (Green) at Fort George, on Tonnelier Island.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS.

Vessels making the land from the Eastward (Windward) side of the Island should give a berth of 2½ Miles to the reefs off Amber Island and be careful not to approach the Light on Flat Island on a course to the Westward of *N. N. W. ½ W., until Gunner's Quoin bears West, when they may shape a mid-channel course between Gunner's Quoin and Flat Island.

When to the Westward of the Quoin the Light at Cannonier Point will become visible and must be approached with the Flat Island Light, bearing astern E. N. E. ½ N., until abreast of Cannonier Point, when that Light will bear S. E. by S., a berth of rather more than 2 Nautical Miles being thus given to the dangerous reef and shoal off the Point. They may then haul up to S. W. by S. for the anchorage, distant about 10 Nautical Miles taking care to keep the Cannonier Point Light white for a distance of 6¾ Miles, when the Flat Island and Cannonier Lights will appear in one—the change of this color to red within that distance will indicate a too near approach to the land.

The red Light at the mouth of the Grand River will now be opened bearing S. S. W., for which vessels may safely steer until the Mast Light (Green) upon Fort George on Tonnelier Island bears S. E. ½ S., when they may immediately let go the anchor, being on the best ground—a nearer approach to the Light at Grand River would bring them too close to the reefs.

If the night is clear, the "Corps de Garde" Mountain will be clearly seen in line with the Grand River Light.

It is, however, generally advisable for vessels passing Cannonier Point at night, to lay to, keeping sail occasionally upon the ship, for the purpose of maintaining a good position for making the anchorage at day-break, in preference to attempting it at night, by which, in a very few instances, any time will be gained. Considerable risk, as well as the necessity for anchoring outside at all will also be thus avoided.

Surveyor General.

The new book by D. L. He is well known in the literary circles of England as one of the purest English writers of the day. To say that the work before us is among the happiest productions of his pen, is to say more for it than the highest eulogy can express. It has been long expected, but public patience has received an ample reward.—Eastern Star, September 29, 1855.

It is a valuable contribution to our Indian Literature.—Calcutta Christian Advocate, October 6.

A Book of Gems, well worthy the Author's high reputation.—Central Star, October 13.

VI. After judgment, the Court or a Judge may, under special circumstances, set aside the judgment, and, if necessary, stay or set aside execution, and may give leave to appear to the writ, and defend the action, if it shall appear to be reasonable to the Court or Judge so to do and on such terms as to the Court or Judge may seem just.

VIII. The holder of every dishonored Bill of Exchange, Hoondie, or Promissory Note, shall have the same remedies for the recovery of the expenses incurred in noting the same for non-acceptance, or non-payment, or otherwise, by reason of such dishonor, as he has under this Act for the recovery of the amount of such Bill or Note.

The 19th January 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th January 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 23rd of April next:—

A Bill to remove all legal obstacles to the Marriage of Hindoo Widows.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is known that, by the law as administered in the Civil Courts established in the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, Hindoo widows, with certain exceptions, are held to be, by reason of their having been once married, incapable of contracting a second valid marriage, and the offspring of such widows by any second marriage are held to be illegitimate, and incapable of inheriting property: and whereas many Hindoos believe that this imputed legal incapacity, although it is in accordance with established custom, is not in accordance with a true interpretation of the precepts of their religion, and desire that the Civil law administered by the Courts of Justice shall no longer prevent those Hindoos who may be so minded from adopting a different custom, in accordance with the dictates of their own consciences: and whereas it is just to relieve all such Hindoos from this legal incapacity of which they complain; and the removal of all legal obstacles to the marriage of Hindoo widows will tend to the promotion of good morals and to the public welfare: It is enacted as follows:—

No marriage between Hindoos to be invalid by reason of the woman having been previously married or betrothed to another person since deceased.

I. No marriage contracted between Hindoos shall be invalid, and the issue of no such marriage shall be illegitimate, by reason of the woman having been previously married or betrothed to another person since deceased, any custom and any interpretation of Hindoo Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Estate of deceased husband to descend to next heirs on re-marriage of widow

II. All rights and interests which any widow may by law have in her deceased husband's estate, either by way of maintenance or by inheritance, shall, upon her second marriage, cease and determine, as if she had then died; and the next heirs of such deceased husband then living shall thereupon succeed to such estate.

Proviso.

Provided that nothing in this Section shall affect the rights and interests of any widow in any estate or other property to which she may have succeeded by inheritance otherwise than through her deceased husband, or to which she may have become entitled under the will of her deceased husband, or in any estate or other property which she may possess as stridhun, or which she may have herself acquired, either during the life-time of her deceased husband, or after his death.

Legislative Council.

The 26th January 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 26th January 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 30th of April next:—

A Bill to improve the Law relating to sales of Land for arrears of Revenue in the Bengal Presidency.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to discontinue the practice of obtaining the previous sanction of the Board of Revenue to sales of estates for arrears of revenue, or other demands of Government, in the Province of Cuttack; and whereas it is just that a person having a lien upon an estate, and paying the money necessary to protect it from sale for arrears of revenue, should be reasonably secured; and whereas it is expedient to afford sharers in estates who duly pay their shares of the Sudder Jumma of their estates, easy means of protecting their shares from sale by reason of the default of their co-sharers; and whereas it is expedient to afford landholders, particularly absentees, facilities in guarding against the accidental sale of their estates for arrears of revenue by reason of the neglect or fraud of their agents; and whereas it is expedient to enforce the registration of dependent talooks existing at the time of settlement, and to give absolute security to such talooks when so registered; and whereas it is expedient to protect the holders of under-tenures created in good faith, not resumable by the grantors or their representatives and held at rents fully sufficient for the security of the public revenue, from loss by the avoidance of their tenures on the occasion of a sale of the superior estate for arrears of public revenue, for which such holders may not be in any degree responsible; and it is therefore proper for the above and other purposes to improve the law relating to sales of land for arrears of revenue in the Bengal Presidency: It is enacted as follows:—

Laws repealed.

I. Act I of 1845, except in so far as it repeals other laws, and except in regard to sales made or advertised, suits commenced, and acts done under authority thereof; Regulation X of 1818; and Sections XV, XVI, XVII, and XVIII of Regulation XIV of 1793, are hereby repealed.

What is an arrear of revenue.

II. If the whole or a portion of a kist or instalment of any month of the era, according to which the settlement and kistbundee of any mehal have been regulated, be unpaid on the first of the following month of such era, the sum so remaining unpaid shall be considered an arrear of revenue.

Latest day of payment in permanently settled districts and in Cuttack.

III. Upon the promulgation of this Act, the Board of Revenue at Calcutta shall determine upon what dates all arrears of revenue and all demands which, by the Regulations and Acts in force, are directed to be realized in the same manner as arrears of revenue, shall be paid up in each permanently settled district under their jurisdiction, and in each of the districts not permanently settled in the Province of Cuttack; in default of which payment the estates in arrear in those districts, except as hereinafter provided, shall be sold at public auction to the highest bidder. VI. The Collector or other officer duly authorized to hold sales under this Act shall, as soon as possible after the latest day of payment fixed in the manner prescribed in Section III or Section IV of this Act, issue notifications in the language of the district, to be affixed in his own office and in the Court of the Judge of the district, and to be published in the official Gazette, specifying the estate or estates which will be sold as aforesaid, and the day on which the sale of the same will commence, which day shall not be less than fifteen or more than thirty clear days from the date of affixing the notification in the office of the Collector or other officer as aforesaid. And, except as hereinafter provided, all estates so specified shall, on the day notified for sale, or on the day or days following, be put up to public auction by and in the presence of the Collector or other officer as aforesaid, and shall be sold to the highest bidder. And no payment, or tender of payment, made after sunset of the said latest day of payment, shall bar or interfere with the sale, either at the time of sale or after its conclusion.

Claims against Government not to invalidate a sale.

VIII. No claim to abatement or remission of revenue, unless the same shall have been allowed by the authority of Government, and no private demand or cause of action whatever, held or supposed to be held by any defaulter against Government, shall bar or render void or voidable a sale under this Act; nor shall the plea that money belonging to the defaulter, and sufficient to pay the balance or part of it, was in the Collector's hands, bar or render void or voidable a sale under this Act, unless such money stand in the defaulter's name alone and without dispute, and unless after application in due time made by the defaulter, or after the written agreement provided for in Section XV of this Act, the Collector shall have neglected, or refused on insufficient grounds, to transfer it to the credit of the estate.

Deposits receivable from persons not proprietors.

IX. The Collector or other officer as aforesaid shall, at any time before sunset of the latest day of payment determined according to Section III or Section IV of this Act, receive as a deposit from any person not being a proprietor of the estate in arrear the amount of the arrear of revenue due from it, to be carried to the credit of the said estate at sunset as aforesaid, unless before that time the arrear shall have been paid by a defaulting proprietor of the estate. And in case the person so depositing, whose money shall have been credited to the estate in the manner aforesaid, shall be a party in a suit pending before a Court of Justice for the possession of the same or any part thereof, it shall be competent to the said Court to order the said party to be put into temporary possession of the said estate or part thereof, subject to the rules in force for taking security in the cases of parties in Civil suits. And if the person so depositing, whose money shall have been credited as aforesaid, shall prove before a competent Civil Court that the deposit was made in order to protect an interest of the said person, which would have been endangered or damaged by the sale of the estate, or which he believed in good faith would have been endangered or damaged by such sale, he shall be entitled to recover the amount of the deposit, with or without interest, as the Court may determine, from the proprietor of the said estate. And if the party so depositing, whose money shall have been credited as aforesaid, shall prove before such a Court that the deposit was necessary in order to protect any lien he had on the estate, the amount so credited shall be added to the amount of the original lien.

Separation of shares held in common tenancy.

X. When a recorded sharer of a joint estate, held in common tenancy, desires to pay his share of the Government revenue separately, he may submit to the Collector a written application to that effect. The application must contain a specification of the extent and nature of the interest held in the estate by the applicant. The Collector will then cause to be published in his own cutcherry, in that of the Judge, Magistrate, (or Joint Magistrate, as the case may be), Principal Sudder Ameens, Sudder Ameens, and Moonsiffs, and in the Police Thannahs in whose jurisdiction the estate or any part thereof is situated, as well as on some conspicuous part of the estate itself, a copy of the application made to him. If within six weeks from the date of the publication of these notices, no objection is made by any other recorded sharer, the Collector will open a separate account with the applicant, and will credit separately to his share all payments made by him on account of it. The date on which the Collector records his sanction to the opening of a separate account shall be held to be that from which the separate liabilities of the share of the applicant commence.

Separation of shares consisting of specific portions of land.

XI. When a recorded sharer of a joint estate, whose share consists of a specific portion of the land of the estate, desires to pay his share of the Government revenue separately, he may submit to the Collector a written application to that effect. The application must contain a specification of the land comprised in his share, and of the boundaries and extent thereof, together with a statement of the amount of sudder jumma heretofore paid on account of it. On the receipt of this application, the Collector will cause it to be published in the manner prescribed for publication of notice in the last preceding Section. In the event of no objection being urged by any recorded co-sharer within six weeks from the time of publication, the Collector will open a separate account with the applicant, and will credit separately to his share all payments made by him on account of it. The date on which the Collector records his sanction to the opening of a separate account, shall be held to be that from which the separate liabilities of the share of the applicant commence.

Summary inquiry by the Collector.

XII. If any recorded proprietor of the estate, whether the same be held in common tenancy or otherwise, object that the applicant has no right to the share claimed by him, or that his interest in the estate is less than, or is of a different nature from, that claimed by him, the Collector will institute a summary inquiry into the fact of possession, and if he be satisfied that the applicant is really in possession of the share as claimed by him, he will open a separate account for his share, as directed in one or other of the last two preceding Sections. If, in the case of a claimant of specific land, the objection be that the jumma alleged by the applicant to be the separate jumma of his specific share of the lands of the estate is not the jumma which has been recognized as such by the other sharers, the Collector will make a summary inquiry into the fact, and will reject or admit the application. The orders of the Collector under this Section shall be subject to appeal to the higher revenue authorities in regular course, and shall be subject to reversal or alteration by a regular suit in the Civil Courts, provided that such suit shall have been instituted within one year from the date of the final award of the revenue authorities, but not otherwise.

Sale of separate shares

XIII. Whenever the Collector shall have ordered a separate account or accounts to be kept for one or more shares, if the estate shall become liable to sale for arrears of revenue, the Collector in the first place shall put up to sale only that share, or those shares, of the estate from which, according to the separate accounts, an arrear of revenue may be due. In all such cases notice of the intention of excluding the share or shares from which no arrear is due, shall be given in the advertisement of sale prescribed in Section VI of this Act. The share or shares sold, together with the share or shares excluded from the sale, will continue to constitute one integral estate, the share or shares sold being charged with the separate portion or the aggregate of the several separate portions of jumma assigned thereto.

Entire estate may be sold under certain conditions.

XIV. If in any case of a sale held according to the provisions of the last preceding Section, the highest offer for the share exposed to sale shall not equal the amount of arrear due thereupon to the date of sale, the Collector shall stop the sale, and shall declare that the entire estate will be put up to sale for arrears of revenue at a future date, unless the other recorded sharer or sharers, or one or more of them, shall within ten days purchase the share in arrear by paying to Government the whole arrear due from such share. If such purchase be completed, the Collector or other officer as aforesaid shall give such certificate as is provided for in Section XXVII of this Act, to the purchaser or purchasers, who shall have the same rights as if the share had been purchased by him or them at the sale. If no such purchase be made within ten days as aforesaid, the entire estate shall be sold, after the notification and in the form prescribed in Section VI of this Act, in the same manner as if the entire estate had been in arrear after the latest day of payment.

XV. If any recorded proprietor or co-partner of an estate shall deposit with the Collector money, or Government Securities endorsed and made payable to the order of the Collector, and shall sign an agreement pledging the same to Government by way of security for the jumma of the entire estate, and authorizing the Collector to apply to the payment of any arrear of revenue that may become due from that estate the whole or any portion of the said money or securities that may be necessary for that purpose, then in the case of any arrear of revenue due from the said estate not being paid before sunset of the latest day of payment fixed under Section III or Section IV of this Act, the Collector shall apply to the payment of such arrear the said money or securities, or such part thereof, or of any interest due on the said securities, as may be necessary; and for this purpose the Collector shall first apply any money that may be in his hands, and any interest that may be due upon such securities. And so long as any money or securities as aforesaid shall remain and be available as aforesaid, the estate for the protection of which the said deposit was made shall be exempted from sale for arrears of revenue.

Deposit for the protection of an estate from sale.

XVI. It shall be competent to the person making a deposit under the provision of the last preceding Section, or his representative or assignee, at any time to withdraw the deposit, and to revoke the pledge of the same; and from the date of such withdrawal and revocation the estate shall be subject to the ordinary rules relating to sales for arrears of revenue.

Withdrawal of the deposit

XVII. No estate shall be liable to sale for the recovery of arrears which have accrued during the period of its being under the management of the Court of Wards; and no estate the sole property of a minor or minors, and descended to him or them by the regular course of inheritance duly notified to the Collector for the information of the Court of Wards, but of which the Court of Wards has not assumed the management under Regulation VI 1822, shall be sold for arrears of revenue accruing subsequently to his or their succession to the same until the minor or minors, or one of them, shall have attained the full age of eighteen years. And no estate held under attachment by the revenue authorities otherwise than by order of a judicial authority, shall be liable to sale for arrears accruing whilst it was so held under attachment. And no estate held under attachment by a revenue officer, in pursuance of an order of a judicial authority, shall be liable to sale for the recovery of arrears of revenue accruing during the period of such attachment, until after the end of the year in which such arrears accrued.

On the day of sale fixed according to Section VI of this Act, sales shall proceed in regular order; the estate to be sold bearing the lowest number on the towjee or register in use in the Collector's office of the district being put up first, and so on, in regular sequence; and it shall not be lawful for the Collector or other officer as aforesaid to put up any estate out of its regular order by number, except where it may be necessary to do so on default of deposit, as provided in Section XXII of this Act.

In the absence of any objection, the Collector, if after making due inquiry he is satisfied of the applicant's claim, shall register the tenure. If any objection is made, he shall require both parties, within a reasonable time, to produce their respective proofs, and shall fix a day, by notification in his cutcherry, for the summary investigation of the case. If after such summary investigation he shall be of opinion that the applicant has failed to establish his claim, he shall reject the application. If after such investigation he shall be of the contrary opinion, he shall forthwith register the under-tenure in the provisional registry book. Any party dissatisfied with the Collector's award may, within one year from the date of the award, but not afterwards, institute a suit in the Civil Court for the reversal of the same, and after the final decision of the Civil Court, the tenure shall be dealt with accordin to such decision. Immediately upon receipt of the application, the Collector shall cause whatever measurement, survey, and local enquiry he may deem necessary for the security of the Government revenue, to be made. When no objection on the part of the proprietor of the parent estate, or of any other party interested is filed; or when, if such objection is filed, the Collector after summary investigation may be of opinion that the applicant has established his claim so far as the rights of the proprietor and other private parties are concerned; before registering the tenure, the Collector shall satisfy himself that it was created in good faith so far as the interests of the Government revenue are concerned, and that the rent payable by the holder is not less than is fully sufficient to afford a fair proportion of the revenue assessed upon the parent estate. If the Collector be not satisfied upon this point, he shall reject the application. If he be satisfied upon this point, he shall register the tenure in the provisional registry book under the rules prescribed in Section XXXVIII of this Act. Provided always that, in the case of such tenures created after the passing of this Act, no application for registration shall be received, unless the same be submitted within one month from the date of the deed constituting the tenure.

Protection of under-tenures provisionally registered.

XXXVIII. Talookdaree tenures, for the registration of which application shall be made within the prescribed time shall, in case of the sale of the parent estate for arrears of revenue, be protected pending the summary investigation of the Collector, and shall be protected eventually by provisional or permanent registration, if the award of the Collector upon such application be in favor of the applicant, or in case of that award being against the applicant, if that award be reversed by the final decision of a Civil Court.

Appeals from Collector's registration awards.

XXXIX. The awards of Collectors passed under Sections XXXVI and XXXVII of this Act shall be open to appeal to the superior revenue authorities in the usual course.

Restriction of jurisdiction of Civil Courts.

XL. No Civil Court shall be competent to interfere with any award of any revenue authority passed under Sections XXXVI and XXXVII of this Act, founded upon any consideration regarding the good faith in which a tenure may have been created so far as the interests of the Government revenue are concerned, or the adequacy of the rent for the security of that revenue.

Protection of under-tenures permanently registered.

XLI.  The book extends to 264 full-sized octavo pages.

The new book by D. L. R., which we have for some time past been anxiously looking for, is published, and will no doubt be as popular as the preceding works of this justly favorite author, whose writings are even more highly esteemed in England and America than in India Bengal Hurkaru, September 28, 1855.

He is well known in the literary circles of England as one of the purest English writers of the day. To say that the work before us is among the happiest productions of his pen, is to say more for it than the highest eulogy can express. It has been long expected, but public patience has received an ample reward – Eastern Star, September 29, 1855.

It is a valuable contribution to our Indian Literature.—Calcutta Christian Advocate, October 6.

A Book of Gems, well worthy the Author's high reputation.—Central Star. October 13.

We cannot but recommend this volume to all who admire sprightly writing and elegantly selected poetry.—Indian Times, October 17.

Mr. Richardson—better known to the reading public as "D. L. R." has a wide reputation as a careful and polished writer. Bombay Telegraph and Courier, October 22.

A very pleasant book which we can cordially recommend to the attention of our readers—A delightful melange about flowers and flower gardens, floriculture in general, and the enjoyments of rural life - Bombay Times, October 27, 1855.

Legislative Council.

The 26th January 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 26th January 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 30th of April next:—

A Bill to improve the Law relating to sales of Land for arrears of Revenue in the Bengal Presidency.

WHEREAS it is expedient to discontinue the practice of obtaining the previous sanction of the Board of Revenue to sales of estates for arrears of revenue or other demands of Government, in the Province of Cuttack; and whereas it is just that a person having a lien upon an estate, and paying the money necessary to protect it from sale for arrears of revenue, should be reasonably secured; and whereas it is expedient to afford sharers in estates who duly pay their shares of the Sudder Jumma of their estates, easy means of protecting their shares from sale by reason of the default of their co-sharers; and whereas it is expedient to afford landholders, particularly absentees, facilities in guarding against the accidental sale of their estates for arrears of revenue by reason of the neglect or fraud of their agents; and whereas it is expedient to enforce the registration of dependent talooks existing at the time of settlement, and to give absolute security to such talooks when so registered; and whereas it is expedient to protect the holders of under-tenures created in good faith, not resumable by the grantors or their representatives and held at rents fully sufficient for the security of the public revenue, from loss by the avoidance of their tenures on the occasion of a sale of the superior estate for arrears of public revenue, for which such holders may not be in any degree responsible; and it is therefore proper for the above and other purposes to improve the law relating to sales of land for arrears of revenue in the Bengal Presidency: It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. Act I of 1845, except in so far as it repeals other laws, and except in regard to sales made or advertised, suits commenced, and acts done under authority thereof, Regulation X of 1818; and Sections XV, XVI, XVII, and XVIII of Regulation XIV of 1793, are hereby repealed.

Claims against Government not to invalidate a sale

VIII. No claim to abatement or remission of revenue, unless the same shall have been allowed by the authority of Government, and no private demand or cause of action whatever, held or supposed to be held by any defaulter against Government, shall bar or render void or voidable a sale under this Act; nor shall the plea that money belonging to the defaulter, and sufficient to pay the balance or part of it, was in the Collector's hands, bar or render void or voidable a sale under this Act, unless such money stand in the defaulter's name alone and without dispute, and unless after application in due time made by the defaulter, or after the written agreement provided for in Section XV of this Act, the Collector shall have neglected, or refused on insufficient grounds, to transfer it to the credit of the estate.

IX. The Collector or other officer as aforesaid shall, at any time before sunset of the latest day of payment determined according to Section III or Section IV of this Act, receive as a deposit from any person not being a proprietor of the estate in arrear the amount of the arrear of revenue due from it, to be carried to the credit of the said estate at sunset as aforesaid, unless before that time the arrear shall have been paid by a defaulting proprietor of the estate. And in case the person so depositing, whose money shall have been credited to the estate in the manner aforesaid, shall be a party in a suit pending before a Court of Justice for the possession of the same or any part thereof, it shall be competent to the said Court to order the said party to be put into temporary possession of the said estate or part thereof, subject to the rules in force for taking security in the cases of parties in Civil suits. And if the person so depositing, whose money shall have been credited as aforesaid, shall prove before a competent Civil Court that the deposit was made in order to protect an interest of the said person, which would have been endangered or damaged by the sale of the estate, or which he believed in good faith would have been endangered or damaged by such sale he shall be entitled to recover the amount of the deposit, with or without interest, as the Court may determine, from the proprietor of the said estate. And if the party so depositing, whose money shall have been credited as aforesaid, shall prove before such a Court that the deposit was necessary in order to protect any lien he had on the estate, the amount so credited shall be added to the amount of the original lien.

Separation of shares held in common tenancy

X. When a recorded sharer of a joint estate, held in common tenancy, desires to pay his share of the Government revenue separately, he may submit to the Collector a written application to that effect The application must contain a specification of the extent and nature of the interest held in the estate by the applicant. The Collector will then cause to be published in his own cutcherry, in that of the Judge, Magistrate, (or Joint Magistrate, as the case may be), Principal Sudder Ameens, Sudder Ameens, and Moonsiffs, and in the Police Thannahs in whose jurisdiction the estate or any part thereof is situated, as well as on some conspicuous part of the estate itself, a copy of the application made to him. If within six weeks from the date of the publication of these notices, no objection is made by any other recorded sharer, the Collector will open a separate account with the applicant, and will credit separately to his share all payments made by him on account of it. The date on which the Collector records his sanction to the opening of a separate account, shall be held to be that from which the separate liabilities of the share of the applicant commence

Separation of shares consisting of specific portions of land

XI When a recorded sharer of a joint estate, whose share consists of a specific portion of the land of the estate, desires to pay his share of the Government revenue separately, he may submit to the Collector a written application to that effect The application must contain a specification of the land comprised in his share, and of the boundaries and extent thereof, together with a statement of the amount of sudder jumma heretofore paid on account of it On the receipt of this application, the Collector will cause it to be published in the manner prescribed for publication of notice in the last preceding Section In the event of no objection being urged by any recorded co-sharer within six weeks from the time of publication the Collector will open a separate account with the applicant and will credit separately to his share all payments made by him on account of it The date on which the Collector records his sanction to the opening of a separate account, shall be held to be that from which the separate liabilities of the share of the applicant commence.

Summary inquiry by the Collector.

XII. If any recorded proprietor of the estate, whether the same be held in common tenancy or otherwise, object that the applicant has no right to the share claimed by him, or that his interest in the estate is less than, or is of a different nature from, that claimed by him, the Collector will institute a summary inquiry into the fact of possession, and if he be satisfied that the applicant is really in possession of the share as claimed by him, he will open a separate account for his share, as directed in one or other of the last two preceding Sections. If, in the case of a claimant of specific land, the objection be that the jumma alleged by the applicant to be the separate jumma of his specific share of the lands of the estate is not the jumma which has been recognized as such by the other sharers, the Collector will make a summary inquiry into the fact, and will reject or admit the application. The orders of the Collector under this Section shall be subject to appeal to the higher revenue authorities in regular course, and shall be subject to reversal or alteration by a regular suit in the Civil Courts, provided that such suit shall have been instituted within one year from the date of the final award of the revenue authorities, but not otherwise.

Sale of separate shares

XIII. Whenever the Collector shall have ordered a separate account or accounts to be kept for one or more shares, if the estate shall become liable to sale for arrears of revenue, the Collector in the first place shall put up to sale only that share, or those shares, of the estate from which, according to the separate accounts, an arrear of revenue may be due. In all such cases notice of the intention of excluding the share or shares from which no arrear is due, shall be given in the advertisement of sale prescribed in Section VI of this Act. The share or shares sold, together with the share or shares excluded from the sale, will continue to constitute one integral estate, the share or shares sold being charged with the separate portion or the aggregate of the several separate portions of jumma assigned thereto.

Entire estate may be sold under certain conditions.

XIV. If in any case of a sale held according to the provisions of the last preceding Section, the highest offer for the share exposed to sale shall not equal the amount of arrear due thereupon to the date of sale, the Collector shall stop the sale, and shall declare that the entire estate will be put up to sale for arrears of revenue at a future date, unless the other recorded sharer or sharers, or one or more of them, shall within ten days purchase the share in arrear by paying to Government the whole arrear due from such share. If such purchase be completed, the Collector or other officer as aforesaid shall give such certificate as is provided for in Section XXVII of this Act, to the purchaser or purchasers, who shall have the same rights as if the share had been purchased by him or them at the sale. If no such purchase be made within ten days as aforesaid, the entire estate shall be sold, after the notification and in the form prescribed in Section VI of this Act, in the same manner as if the entire estate had been in arrear after the latest day of payment

XV. If any recorded proprietor or co-partner of an estate shall deposit with the Collector money, or Government Securities endorsed and made payable to the order of the Collector, and shall sign an agreement pledging the same to Government by way of security for the jumma of the entire estate, and authorizing the Collector to apply to the payment of any arrear of revenue that may become due from that estate the whole or any portion of the said money or securities that may be necessary for that purpose, then in the case of any arrear of revenue due from the said estate not being paid before sunset of the latest day of payment fixed under Section III or Section IV of this Act, the Collector shall apply to the payment of such arrear the said money or securities, or such part thereof, or of any interest due on the said securities, as may be necessary; and for this purpose the Collector shall first apply any money that may be in his hands, and any interest that may be due upon such securities. And so long as any money or securities as aforesaid shall remain and be available as aforesaid, the estate for the protection of which the said deposit was made shall be exempted from sale for arrears of revenue.

Deposit for the protection of an estate from sale.

XVI. It shall be competent to the person making a deposit under the provision of the last preceding Section, or his representative or assignee, at any time to withdraw the deposit, and to revoke the pledge of the same; and from the date of such withdrawal and revocation the estate shall be subject to the ordinary rules relating to sales for arrears of revenue.

Withdrawal of the deposit.

XVII. No estate shall be liable to sale for the recovery of arrears which have accrued during the period of its being under the management of the Court of Wards; and no estate the sole property of a minor or minors, and descended to him or them by the regular course of inheritance duly notified to the Collector for the information of the Court of Wards, but of which the Court of Wards has not assumed the management under Regulation VI. 1822, shall be sold for arrears of revenue accruing subsequently to his or their succession to the same, until the minor or minors, or one of them, shall have attained the full age of eighteen years. And no estate held under attachment by the revenue authorities otherwise than by order of a judicial authority, shall be liable to sale for arrears accruing whilst it was so held under attachment. And no estate held under attachment by a revenue officer, in pursuance of an order of a judicial authority, shall be liable to sale for the recovery of arrears of revenue accruing during the period of such attachment, until after the end of the year in which such arrears accrued.

Estates under Court of Wards or attachment.

XVIII. It shall be competent to the Collector at any time before the sale of an estate shall have commenced to exempt such estate from sale; and in like manner it shall be competent to the Commissioner of Revenue at any time before the sale of an estate shall have commenced, to exempt such estate from sale by a special order to the Collector to that effect in each case; and no sale of an estate shall be legal if held after the receipt of an order of exemption in respect to such estate.

Estates may be exempted from sale.

Proviso. Provided, however, and it is hereby enacted, that the Collector or Commissioner shall duly record in a proceeding the reason for granting such exemption; and provided also, that an order for exemption so issued by the Commissioner shall not affect the legality of a sale which may have taken place before the receipt by the Collector of the order for exempting it from sale.

XIX. Sales shall ordinarily be made by the Collector in the Land Revenue Cutcherry at the sudder station of the district, provided, however, that it shall be competent to the Board of Revenue to prescribe a place for holding sales other than such cutcherry, whenever they shall consider it beneficial to the parties concerned.

Sales where to be made.

XX. In case the Collector shall be unable from sickness, from the occurrence of a holiday, or from any other cause, to commence the sale on the day of sale fixed as aforesaid, or if, having commenced it, he be unable, from any cause, to complete it, he shall be competent to adjourn it to the next day following, not being Sunday or other close holiday, recording his reasons for such adjournment, forwarding a copy of such record to the Commissioner of Revenue, and announcing the adjournment by a written proclamation stuck up in his cutcherry; and so on, from day to day, until he shall be able to commence upon, or to complete the sale; but, with the exception of adjournments so made, recorded, and reported, each sale shall invariably be made on the day of sale fixed in the manner aforesaid.

Adjournment of sales.

XXI. On the day of sale fixed according to Section VI of this Act, sales shall proceed in regular order; the estate to be sold bearing the lowest number on the towjee or register in use in the Collector's office of the district being put up first, and so on, in regular sequence; and it shall not be lawful for the Collector or other officer as aforesaid to put up any estate out of its regular order by number, except where it may be necessary to do so on default of deposit, as provided in Section XXII of this Act.

Order of selling.

XXII. The party who shall be declared the purchaser of an estate at any such public sale as aforesaid, shall be required to deposit immediately, or as soon after the conclusion of the sale of the estate as the Collector may think necessary, either in cash, Bank of Bengal Notes, or Post Bills, or Government Securities duly indorsed, 25 per cent. on the amount of his bid, and, in default of such deposit, the estate shall forthwith be put up again and sold.

Deposit on account of purchase-money.

XXIII. The full amount of purchase money shall be made good by the purchaser before sunset of the thirtieth day from that on which the sale of the estate bought by him took place, reckoning that day as one of the thirty; or if the thirtieth day be a Sunday or other close holiday, then on the first office day after the thirtieth, and in default of payment within the prescribed period as aforesaid, then and afterwards as often as such default shall occur, the deposit shall be forfeited to Government, the estate shall be re-sold, and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the estate, or to any part of the sum for which it may subsequently be sold, and in the event of the proceeds of the sale which may be eventually consummated being less than the price bid by the defaulting bidder aforesaid, the difference shall be leviable from him by any process authorized for realizing an arrear of public revenue, and it shall be so levied and credited to the defaulting proprietor of the estate sold; and if default of payment of purchase money shall have occurred more than once, the defaulting bidders shall be held jointly and severally responsible for such difference to the extent of the amount of their respective bids. Provided always, that every such re-sale shall be made after notification and in the forms prescribed by Section VI of this Act; and that such notification shall not be issued until the expiration of three clear days after the day on which the default shall have occurred. Provided also, that payment or tender of payment by or on behalf of the proprietor of the arrear for which the estate was first sold and of the arrear which may have subsequently become due, if such payment or tender of payment be made before sunset of the day preceding the day of the notification of re-sale and after the defaulting purchaser shall have made the deposit required by Section XXII of this Act, shall bar such re-sale.

Proviso 1st.

Proviso 2nd.

XXIV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Revenue to receive an appeal against any sale made under this Act if preferred to him on or before the fifteenth day from the date of sale, reckoning as in Section XXIII, or if preferred to the Collector for transmission to the Commissioner, on or before the tenth day from the day of sale, and not otherwise; and the Commissioner shall be competent in every case of appeal so preferred, to annul any sale of an estate made under this Act, which shall appear to him not to have been conducted according to the provision of this Act, awarding at the same time to the purchaser a payment from the proprietor of any moderate compensation for his loss, if the sale shall have been occasioned by neglect of the proprietor, such compensation not to exceed the interest, at the current rate of Government Securities, on the amount of deposit or balance of purchase money during the period of its being retained in the Collector's office; and the order of the Commissioner shall, in such cases, be final.

Appeals.

XXV. It shall be competent to the Commissioner of Revenue, on the ground of hardship or injustice, to suspend the passing of final orders in any case of appeal from a sale and to represent the case to the Board of Revenue, who, if they see cause, may recommend to the local Government to annul the sale; and the local Government in any such case may annul the sale and cause the estate to be restored to the proprietor on such conditions as may appear equitable and proper.

Annulment of sale in special cases.

XXVI. All sales of which the purchase money has been paid up as prescribed in Section XXIII of this Act, and against which no appeal shall have been preferred, shall be final and conclusive at noon of the thirtieth day from the day of sale, reckoning the said day of sale as the first of the said thirty days. First,—The holder of the under-tenure shall be at liberty to apply for the registration of his under-tenure, by petition presented to the Collector of the district in whose jurisdiction the parent estate is situated, within three years from the date of the passing of this Act. The application shall contain the following particulars as far as the same are ascertainable:

2. The denomination of the tenure.
3. The name or names of the village or villages whereof the land is composed, or wherein it is situated.
4. The area of the land comprised in the tenure, with its boundaries in complete detail.
5. The amount of rent and cesses payable annually for the tenure, and the duties, if any, required to be performed on account of it.
6. The date of the deed constituting the tenure, or the date when the tenure was created.
7. The name of the proprietor who created the tenure.
8. The name of the original holder of the under-tenure.
9. The name of the present possessor, and if he be not the original holder, his relationship to that person, and the mode in which he succeeded to the tenure, whether by inheritance, gift, purchase, or otherwise, and whether he holds jointly or solely.

Secondly,—The Collector on receipt of such application shall serve a notice on the recorded proprietor of the estate in which the tenure is situated, with a copy of the application, and shall also cause a notice with a copy of the application annexed to be published at the places and in the manner prescribed by Section VI of this Act, requiring the proprietor or any party interested, within thirty days from the date of the issue of the said notice, to file any objection he may have to the registry of the tenure, or to any statement contained in the application. In the absence of any objection, the Collector, if after making due inquiry he is satisfied of the applicant's claim, shall register the tenure. If any objection is made, he shall require both parties, within a reasonable time, to produce their respective proofs, and shall fix a day, by notification in his cutcherry, for the summary investigation of the case. If after such summary investigation he shall be of opinion that the applicant has failed to establish his claim, he shall reject the application. If after such investigation he shall be of the contrary opinion, he shall forthwith register the under-tenure in the provisional registry book. Any party dissatisfied with the Collector's award may, within one year from the date of the award, but not afterwards, institute a suit in the Civil Court for the reversal of the same, and after the final decision of the Civil Court, the tenure shall be dealt with accordin to such decision. If the decision be in favor of the claimant of the tenure, on his producing an authenticated copy of such final decree, the tenure shall be transferred from the provisional registry to the permanent registry book; but if the final decision be otherwise, on the proprietor producing an authenticated copy of the same, the tenure shall be erased from the provisional registry book.

XXXVII. The following rules for the registration of talookdaree tenures and farms, forming the third class of tenures excepted in Section XXXV of this Act, shall be observed.

All the rules prescribed in the last preceding Section shall apply to this class of tenures also, with the following additional rules.

Immediately upon receipt of the application, the Collector shall cause whatever measurement, survey, and local enquiry he may deem necessary for the security of the Government revenue, to be made. When no objection on the part of the proprietor of the parent estate, or of any other party interested is filed; or when, if such objection is filed, the Collector after summary investigation may be of opinion that the applicant has established his claim so far as the rights of the proprietor and other private parties are concerned; before registering the tenure, the Collector shall satisfy himself that it was created in good faith so far as the interests of the Government revenue are concerned, and that the rent payable by the holder is not less than is fully sufficient to afford a fair proportion of the revenue assessed upon the parent estate. If the Collector be not satisfied upon this point, he shall reject the application. If he be satisfied upon this point, he shall register the tenure in the provisional registry book under the rules prescribed in Section XXXVIII of this Act. Provided always that, in the case of such tenures created after the passing of this Act, no application for registration shall be received, unless the same be submitted within one month from the date of the deed constituting the tenure.

XXXVIII. Appeals from Collector's registration awards.

XXXIX. The awards of Collectors passed under Sections XXXVI and XXVII of this Act shall be open to appeal to the superior revenue authorities in the usual course.

Restriction of jurisdiction of Civil Courts.

XL. No Civil Court shall be competent to interfere with any award of any revenue authority passed under Sections XXXVI and XXXVII of this Act, foundod upon any consideration regarding the good faith in which a tenure may have been created so far as the interests of the Government revenue are concerned, or the adequacy of the rent for the security of that revenue.

Protection of under-tenures permanently registered.

XLI. After the expiration of one year from the date of registration in the provisional registry book, the Collector shall transfer the registration to the permanent registry book, unless it be shown that a Civil suit has been filed to annul the registration; in which case he shall suspend registration in the permanent registry book pending the final result of such suit. The entry in the permanent registry book shall be an effectual protection of the under-tenure so registered, unless within sixty years from the date of registry a decree be passed at the suit of Government by a Civil Court, pronouncing the registration to have been obtained by fraud, to the injury of the Government revenue.

Rights of a purchaser of an estate not permanently settled sold for its own arrears.

Rights of a purchaser being a sharer in any estate.

XLIII. Excepting sharers in estates under butwarrah who may have saved their shares from sale under Sections XXXIII and XXXIV. Regulation XIX of 1814, and those who have done so under Section X or Section XI of this Act, any recorded proprietor or co-partner who may purchase in his own name or in the name of another the estate of which he is proprietor or co-partner; or who by re-purchase or otherwise may recover possession of the said estate after it has been sold for arrears under this Act; and likewise

Provided that an appeal from any order passed under this Section shall lie to the Revenue Commissioner, whose decision shall be final.

Default in making deposit to be considered a contempt.

XLVI. A default to make good a bid by making the deposit required by Section XXII of this Act shall be held to be a contempt.

Government may purchase at a sale.

"We transmit, as applicable to H. M's. Officers serving in India, four copies of H. M.'s Warrant, dated 23rd October 1855, regarding the grant of fixed rates in lieu of Pensions to the Widows and Families of Officers killed in action."

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS we have deemed it advisable to allow to the Widows and Families, or to certain of the Relatives hereinafter specified, of Officers of Our Army who since the declaration of war with Russia have been or may be killed in action, or who have died or may die of wounds received in face of the Enemy within six months after being wounded, the alternative of receiving a fixed sum of money, in lieu of such Rates of Pension, and Compassionate and other Allowances as are prescribed by Our Royal Warrant of the 15th June 1855 ; Our Will and Pleasure is, that this Our Royal Warrant, to be administered and interpreted by Our Secretary-at-War, shall be the sole and standing authority upon the matters herein contained.

RULES and REGULATIONS for granting a fixed Sum of Money in lieu of PENSIONS, COMPASSIONATE ALLOWANCES, and GRATUITIES to the WIDOWS, FAMILIES, and RELATIVES of OFFICERS KILLED IN ACTION, or dying of Wounds received in the Face of the Enemy, within six months after being wounded.

1. The amount of money to be paid to a Widow, Widow and Children, or other Relatives of an Officer killed in action, or dying of wounds received in the face of the enemy, within six months after being wounded, shall, whatever branch of the Service he may have belonged to, be the regulation price fixed for commissions in Cavalry and Infantry of the Line, as set forth in the following scale, viz. :—

		Cavalry.	Infantry.
To the Widow, Widow and Children, Children, Father, Mother Sister or Sisters of ...	Lieut.-Col.	£6,175	£4,500
Ditto ditto ..	Major ..	£4,575	£3,200
Ditto ditto ..	Captain .	£3,225	£1,800
Ditto ditto ...	Lieutenant	£1,190	£700
Ditto ditto ..	Ensign ..	£840	£450

—but it shall in no case exceed the regulated price actually paid by the Officer for the purchase of his Commission or Commissions.

2. When an Officer so killed, or so dying of his wounds within six months, shall leave a Widow only, the price thus fixed shall be paid to her for her sole and absolute benefit, provided she be not left in such wealthy circumstances as would otherwise preclude all claim to a pension; and she shall be required to give, according to such form as may be hereafter prescribed by the Secretary-at-War, an acknowledgment as having received such sum in lieu of and as a full compensation for all pension and gratuity to which she may have proved herself entitled in consequence of the loss of her husband.

3. In the event of an Officer leaving a Widow and Children who have established a claim to the Pension and Compassionate Allowance, then and in that case the money awarded in lieu thereof shall be invested in Government Securities in the names of two or more Trustees to be nominated by the Secretary-at-War for the time being, and shall remain so invested, and the interest shall be receivable by the Widow until her death, when the money shall be divided, share and share alike, among the Children then alive of such deceased Officer. In the event, however, of the Widow surviving her said Children, the money shall then become her sole and absolute property, as laid down in Article 2.

4. In the event of an Officer leaving a Child or Children, but no Widow, the money shall be invested, as stated in Article 3, and the interest thereof shall be applied by the Trustees for the benefit of such Child or Children until he, she, or they shall attain the age of twenty-one, when the money, as in the case of the Widow, shall become the absolute property of such surviving Child or Children, share and share alike. Should, however, such Child or Children die before attaining the age of twenty-one years, then and in that case the money, after discharging all just liabilities, shall revert to the Crown.

5. In the event of an Officer leaving at his death neither Widow, Child, nor Children, then the money shall be paid to his Father, and if he leave no Father, it may be paid to his Mother, for his or her sole and absolute benefit, provided that neither be excluded by wealthy circumstances. And in the event of their being neither Father nor Mother, then the money shall be paid to the Sister or Sisters, as the case may be, share and share alike, and provided they shall have attained the age of twenty-one years. But should any Sister or Sisters be under that age, then the money shall be invested, and the interest be applied, as stated in Article 4, until such Sister or Sisters shall become twenty-one years of age, when it shall become the absolute property of the survivors or survivor. Should no survivors or survivor attain the age of twenty-one years, then the money, after discharging all just liabilities, shall revert to the Crown.

6. No grant of money under the provisions of this Warrant shall be made to the Widow if she were ineligible for a Pension under the provisions of the Royal Warrant of the 15th June 1855; but the ineligibility of the Widow to any grant under this Warrant shall not affect the interests of the legitimate Children of such deceased Officer, for whose benefit the money shall be invested, as stated in Article 4, except they be left in such wealthy circumstances as would disqualify them for the Compassionate Allowances under the provisions of Article 2.

7. In the event of it being represented and satisfactorily proved to the Secretary-at-War that any Widow on whose behalf money shall have been invested for the benefit of herself and Children, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall thereafter so conduct herself as to become unworthy of the Bounty of the Crown, or shall neglect or ill-treat her Children then and in that case the Secretary-at-War shall have full power to make such arrangements for apportioning the interest of the money, and making better provision for the Children, as in his judgment may seem most advisable.

8. The allowances to be granted under the authority of this Warrant are not applicable to the cases of Officers killed in action or dying of wounds before the declaration of war with Russia, but it is to take a retrospective effect up to that date; and, therefore, any Officer's Widow to whom there may have been granted a Pension, Compassionate Allowances for Children, or gratuity for herself and Children, or any other relative of an Officer who may have received a Pension or gratuity under the Warrant of the 15th June 1855, who may wish to commute such Pension, allowances, or gratuities for the sum fixed under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be permitted to do so, but in that case whatever sums may have been received by or on account of the Widow or Children or other relatives will have to be deducted from any amount paid under the terms of this Warrant.

9. A return of all sums paid under the provisions of this Warrant shall be laid annually before Parliament on or after the 1st of April.

Given at Our Court at St. James', this twenty-third day of October 1855, in the nineteenth year of Our reign.

By Her Majesty's Command.

LIGHT-HOUSES.

His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified for general information, that the following Lights will be exhibited on Flat Island and on the Coast of Mauritius, on and from the 1st December next, viz. :—

A first class revolving Catoptric Light on Flat Island.

A first class fixed Catoptric Light on Cannonier Point.

A green Mast Light on Cooper's Island, at the mouth of the Harbour.

Detailed descriptions of, and sailing directions for these Lights, are published below for general information.

J. DOWLAND,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
7th September 1855.

Sailing Directions for making the Anchorage off the Harbour of Port Louis, Mauritius, with reference to the Light-Houses recently erected upon "Flat Island" and "Cannonier Point," and also the two Mast Lights near the entrance of the Harbour.

DESCRIPTION OF THE LIGHTS.

"Flat Island."

This is a revolving Catoptric Light of the first order, situated at the South-West or highest extremity of the Island, in Latitude S. 19° 53′ 26″ and Longitude E. 57° 38′ 8″, determined by Triangulation from the Observatory of Port Louis. Variation of the Compass 11° 47′ 13″ West.

Its elevation above the mean level of the sea (the rise of tide being only about 3 feet) is 366 feet, and it will be visible in clear weather from the deck of a vessel 13 feet above the water, a distance of about 25 Nautical Miles.

"Cannonier Point."

This is a fixed Catoptric Light, also of the first order.

It is situated in Latitude S. 20° 0′ 35″ and Longitude E. 57° *32′ 39″. Its elevation above the mean level of the sea is 39 feet 6 inches, and it will be seen from the deck of a vessel 13 feet above the water, a distance of about 10 Nautical Miles.

The objects of this Light are, to indicate the position of a dangerous shoal, nearly *1¼ miles from the shore, and to keep vessels clear of the coral reefs to the North-East and South-West of the Point.

"Harbour Mast Lights."

One of these is placed as a leading Light (Red) at the Martello Tower at the mouth, and on the left bank of the Grand River; and the other (Green) at Fort George, on Tonnelier Island.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS.

Vessels making the land from the Eastward (Windward) side of the Island should give a berth of 2½ Miles to the reefs off Amber Island and be careful not to approach the Light on Flat Island on a course to the Westward of *N. N. W. ½ W., until Gunner's Quoin bears West, when they may shape a mid-channel course between Gunner's Quoin and Flat Island.

When to the Westward of the Quoin the Light at Cannonier Point will become visible and must be approached with the Flat Island Light, bearing astern E. N. E. ½ N., until abreast of Cannonier Point, when that Light will bear S. E. by S., a berth of rather more than 2 Nautical Miles being thus given to the dangerous reef and shoal off the Point. They may then haul up to S. W. by S. for the anchorage, distant about 10 Nautical Miles taking care to keep the Cannonier Point Light white for a distance of 6¼ Miles, when the Flat Island and Cannonier Lights will appear in one—the change of this color to red within that distance will indicate a too near approach to the land.

The red Light at the mouth of the Grand River will now be opened bearing S S W, for which vessels may safely steer until the Mast Light (Green) upon Fort George on Tonnelier Island bears S. E ¼ S., when they may immediately let go the anchor, being on the best ground—a nearer approach to the Light at Grand River would bring them too close to the reefs.

If the night is clear, the "Corps de Garde" Mountain will be clearly seen in line with the Grand River Light.

It is, however, generally advisable for vessels passing Cannonier Point at night, to lay to, keeping sail occasionally upon the ship, for the purpose of maintaining a good position for making the anchorage at day-break, in preference to attempting it at night, by which, in a very few instances, any time will be gained. Considerable risk, as well as the necessity for anchoring outside at all will also be thus avoided.

E. C. FROME,
Surveyor General.

EDWARD KELLY,
Harbour Master.

Legislative Council.

The 26th January 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 26th January 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 30th of April next:—

A Bill to improve the Law relating to sales of Land for arrears of Revenue in the Bengal Presidency.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to discontinue the practice of obtaining the previous sanction of the Board of Revenue to sales of estates for arrears of revenue, or other demands of Government, in the Province of Cuttack; and whereas it is just that a person having a lien upon an estate, and paying the money necessary to protect it from sale for arrears of revenue, should be reasonably secured; and whereas it is expedient to afford sharers in estates who duly pay their shares of the Sudder Jumma of their estates, easy means of protecting their shares from sale by reason of the default of their co-sharers; and whereas it is expedient to afford landholders, particularly absentees, facilities in guarding against the accidental sale of their estates for arrears of revenue by reason of the neglect or fraud of their agents; and whereas it is expedient to enforce the registration of dependent talooks existing at the time of settlement, and to give absolute security to such talooks when so registered; and whereas it is expedient to protect the holders of under-tenures created in good faith, not resumable by the grantors or their representatives and held at rents fully sufficient for the security of the public revenue, from loss by the avoidance of their tenures on the occasion of a sale of the superior estate for arrears of public revenue, for which such holders may not be in any degree responsible; and it is therefore proper for the above and other purposes to improve the law relating to sales of land for arrears of revenue in the Bengal Presidency: It is enacted as follows:—

I. Act I of 1845, except in so far as it repeals other laws, and except in regard to sales made or advertised, suits commenced, and acts done under authority thereof; Regulation X of 1818; and Sections XV, XVI, XVII, and XVIII of Regulation XIV of 1793, are hereby repealed.

Laws repealed.

II. If the whole or a portion of a kist or instalment of any month of the era, according to which the settlement and kistbundee of any mehal have been regulated, be unpaid on the first of the following month of such era, the sum so remaining unpaid shall be considered an arrear of revenue.

What is an arrear of revenue.

III. Upon the promulgation of this Act, the Board of Revenue at Calcutta shall determine upon what dates all arrears of revenue and all demands which, by the Regulations and Acts in force, are directed to be realized in the same manner as arrears of revenue, shall be paid up in each permanently settled district under their jurisdiction, and in each of the districts not permanently settled in the Province of Cuttack; in default of which payment the estates in arrear in those districts, except as hereinafter provided, shall be sold at public auction to the highest bidder. And the said Board shall give notice of the dates so fixed in the official Gazette, and shall direct corresponding publication to be made as far as regards each district, in the language of that district, in the office of the Collector, or other officer duly authorized to hold sales under this Act, in the Courts of the Judge, Magistrate, (or Joint Magistrate, as the case may be,) Principal Sudder Ameens, Sudder Ameens, and Moonsiffs, and at every Thannah station of that district; and the dates so fixed shall not be chang-

In the Province of Benares and in districts not permanently settled, with the exception of the districts in the Province of Cuttack, no sale shall take place for arrears of land revenue or other demands of Government, without the special sanction of the Board of Revenue previously obtained in each several case of sale. Provided that the said Board, at the time of authorizing such sale, shall fix the latest day on which in each case such arrears or demands shall be received.

Provided always, that no estate, and no share or interest in any estate, shall be sold for the recovery of arrears or demands of the descriptions mentioned below, otherwise than after a notification in the language of the district, specifying the nature and amount of the arrear or demand, and the latest date on which payment thereof shall be received, shall have been affixed for a period of not less than fifteen clear days preceding the date fixed for payment, according to Section III or Section IV of this Act as the case may be, in the office of the Collector or other officer duly authorized to hold sales under this Act, in the Court of the Judge within whose jurisdiction the land advertised lies, in the Courts of the Principal Sudder Ameens and Sudder Ameens of the district, and in the Moonsiff's Court and Police Thannah of the division in which the estate to which the notification relates, or a part of it, is situated, the same to be certified by the receipt of the officer at whose office such notification may have been affixed; and also at the cutcherry of the malgoozar or owner of the estate, or at some conspicuous place upon the estate, the same to be certified by the peon or other person employed for the purpose.

First,—Arrears due from estates in the Province of Benares.

Secondly,—Arrears due from estates, not permanently settled, other than estates in the Province of Cuttack.

Thirdly,—Arrears other than those of the current year, or of the year immediately preceding.

Notifications of sale to be issued, and no tender after latest day of payment to stop the sale.

VI. The Collector or other officer duly authorized to hold sales under this Act shall, as soon as possible after the latest day of payment fixed in the manner prescribed in Section III or Section IV of this Act, issue notifications in the language of the district, to be affixed in his own office and in the Court of the Judge of the district, and to be published in the official Gazette, specifying the estate or estates which will be sold as aforesaid, and the day on which the sale of the same will commence, which day shall not be less than fifteen or more than thirty clear days from the date of affixing the notification in the office of the Collector or other officer as aforesaid. And, except as hereinafter provided, all estates so specified shall, on the day notified for sale, or on the day or days following, be put up to public auction by and in the presence of the Collector or other officer as aforesaid, and shall be sold to the highest bidder. And no payment, or tender of payment, made after sunset of the said latest day of payment, shall bar or interfere with the sale, either at the time of sale or after its conclusion.

Notice to ryots, &c.

VII. Whenever an estate is notified for sale as provided by Section VI of this Act, the Collector or other officer as aforesaid shall affix a proclamation in the language of the district in his own office, and as soon thereafter as may be in the Moonsiff's Courts and Police Thannahs within which the estate or any part of it is situated, and also at the cutcherry of the malgoozar or the owner of the estate, or at some conspicuous place upon the estate, forbidding the ryots and under-tenants to pay rent to the defaulting proprietor from the date of the day after that fixed for the last day of payment, on pain of not being entitled to credit in their accounts with the purchaser for any sums paid after the date aforesaid.

Claims against Government not to invalidate a sale

VIII. No claim to abatement or remission of revenue, unless the same shall have been allowed by the authority of Government, and no private demand or cause of action whatever, held or supposed to be held by any defaulter against Government, shall bar or render void or voidable a sale under this Act; nor shall the plea that money belonging to the defaulter, and sufficient to pay the balance or part of it, was in the Collector's hands, bar or render void or voidable a sale under this Act, unless such money stand in the defaulter's name alone and without dispute, and unless after application in due time made by the defaulter, or after the written agreement provided for in Section XV of this Act, the Collector shall have neglected, or refused on insufficient grounds, to transfer it to the credit of the estate.

Deposits receivable from persons not proprietors.

IX. The Collector or other officer as aforesaid shall, at any time before sunset of the latest day of payment determined according to Section III or Section IV of this Act, receive as a deposit from any person not being a proprietor of the estate in arrear the amount of the arrear of revenue due from it, to be carried to the credit of the said estate at sunset as aforesaid, unless before that time the arrear shall have been paid by a defaulting proprietor of the estate. And in case the person so depositing, whose money shall have been credited to the estate in the manner aforesaid, shall be a party in a suit pending before a Court of Justice for the possession of the same or any part thereof, it shall be competent to the said Court to order the said party to be put into temporary possession of the said estate or part thereof, subject to the rules in force for taking security in the cases of parties in Civil suits. And if the person so depositing, whose money shall have been credited as aforesaid, shall prove before a competent Civil Court that the deposit was made in order to protect an interest of the said person, which would have been endangered or damaged by the sale of the estate, or which he believed in good faith would have been endangered or damaged by such sale, he shall be entitled to recover the amount of the deposit, with or without interest, as the Court may determine, from the proprietor of the said estate. And if the party so depositing, whose money shall have been credited as aforesaid, shall prove before such a Court that the deposit was necessary in order to protect any lien he had on the estate, the amount so credited shall be added to the amount of the original lien.

Separation of shares held in common tenancy.

X. When a recorded sharer of a joint estate, held in common tenancy, desires to pay his share of the Government revenue separately, he may submit to the Collector a written application to that effect. The application must contain a specification of the extent and nature of the interest held in the estate by the applicant. The Collector will then cause to be published in his own cutcherry, in that of the Judge, Magistrate, (or Joint Magistrate, as the case may be), Principal Sudder Ameens, Sudder Ameens, and Moonsiffs, and in the Police Thannahs in whose jurisdiction the estate or any part thereof is situated, as well as on some conspicuous part of the estate itself, a copy of the application made to him. If within six weeks from the date of the publication of these notices, no objection is made by any other recorded sharer, the Collector will open a separate account with the applicant, and will credit separately to his share all payments made by him on account of it. The date on which the Collector records his sanction to the opening of a separate account, shall be held to be that from which the separate liabilities of the share of the applicant commence.

Separation of shares consisting of specific portions of land.

XI. When a recorded sharer of a joint estate, whose share consists of a specific portion of the land of the estate, desires to pay his share of the Government revenue separately, he may submit to the Collector a written application to that effect. The application must contain a specification of the land comprised in his share, and of the boundaries and extent thereof, together with a statement of the amount of sudder jumma heretofore paid on account of it. On the receipt of this application, the Collector will cause it to be published in the manner prescribed for publication of notice in the last preceding Section. In the event of no objection being urged by any recorded co-sharer within six weeks from the time of publication, the Collector will open a separate account with the applicant, and will credit separately to his share all payments made by him on account of it. The date on which the Collector records his sanction to the opening of a separate account, shall be held to be that from which the separate liabilities of the share of the applicant commence.

Summary inquiry by the Collector.

XII. If any recorded proprietor of the estate, whether the same be held in common tenancy or otherwise, object that the applicant has no right to the share claimed by him, or that his interest in the estate is less than, or is of a different nature from, that claimed by him, the Collector will institute a summary inquiry into the fact of possession, and if he be satisfied that the applicant is really in possession of the share as claimed by him, he will open a separate account for his share, as directed in one or other of the last two preceding Sections. If, in the case of a claimant of specific land, the objection be that the jumma alleged by the applicant to be the separate jumma of his specific share of the lands of the estate is not the jumma which has been recognized as such by the other sharers, the Collector will make a summary inquiry into the fact, and will reject or admit the application. The orders of the Collector under this Section shall be subject to appeal to the higher revenue authorities in regular course, and shall be subject to reversal or alteration by a regular suit in the Civil Courts, provided that such suit shall have been instituted within one year from the date of the final award of the revenue authorities, but not otherwise.

Sale of separate shares.

XIII. Whenever the Collector shall have ordered a separate account or accounts to be kept for one or more shares, if the estate shall become liable to sale for arrears of revenue, the Collector in the first place shall put up to sale only that share, or those shares, of the estate from which, according to the separate accounts, an arrear of revenue may be due. In all such cases notice of the intention of excluding the share or shares from which no arrear is due shall be given in the advertisement of sale prescribed in Section VI of this Act. The share or shares sold, together with the share or shares excluded from the sale, will continue to constitute one integral estate, the share or shares sold being charged with the separate portion or the aggregate of the several separate portions of jumma assigned thereto.

Entire estate may be sold under certain conditions.

XIV. If in any case of a sale held according to the provisions of the last preceding Section, the highest offer for the share exposed to sale shall not equal the amount of arrear due thereupon to the date of sale, the Collector shall stop the sale, and shall declare that the entire estate will be put up to sale for arrears of revenue at a future date, unless the other recorded sharer or sharers, or one or more of them, shall within ten days purchase the share in arrear by paying to Government the whole arrear due from such share. If such purchase be completed, the Collector or other officer as aforesaid shall give such certificate as is provided for in Section XXVII of this Act, to the purchaser or purchasers, who shall have the same rights as if the share had been purchased by him or them at the sale. If no such purchase be made within ten days as aforesaid, the entire estate shall be sold, after the notification and in the form prescribed in Section VI of this Act, in the same manner as if the entire estate had been in arrear after the latest day of payment.

Deposit for the protection of an estate from sale.

XV. If any recorded proprietor or co-partner of an estate shall deposit with the Collector money, or Government Securities endorsed and made payable to the order of the Collector, and shall sign an agreement pledging the same to Government by way of security for the jumma of the entire estate, and authorizing the Collector to apply to the payment of any arrear of revenue that may become due from that estate the whole or any portion of the said money or securities that may be necessary for that purpose, then in the case of any arrear of revenue due from the said estate not being paid before sunset of the latest day of payment fixed under Section III or Section IV of this Act, the Collector shall apply to the payment of such arrear the said money or securities, or such part thereof, or of any interest due on the said securities, as may be necessary; and for this purpose the Collector shall first apply any money that may be in his hands, and any interest that may be due upon such securities. And so long as any money or securities as aforesaid shall remain and be available as aforesaid, the estate for the protection of which the said deposit was made shall be exempted from sale for arrears of revenue.

Withdrawal of the deposit.

XVI. It shall be competent to the person making a deposit under the provision of the last preceding Section, or his representative or assignee, at any time to withdraw the deposit, and to revoke the pledge of the same; and from the date of such withdrawal and revocation the estate shall be subject to the ordinary rules relating to sales for arrears of revenue.

Estates under Court of Wards or attachment.

XVII. No estate shall be liable to sale for the recovery of arrears which have accrued during the period of its being under the management of the Court of Wards; and no estate the sole property of a minor or minors, and descended to him or them by the regular course of inheritance duly notified to the Collector for the information of the Court of Wards, but of which the Court of Wards has not assumed the management under Regulation VI. 1822, shall be sold for arrears of revenue accruing subsequently to his or their succession to the same, until the minor or minors, or one of them, shall have attained the full age of eighteen years. And no estate held under attachment by the revenue authorities otherwise than by order of a judicial authority, shall be liable to sale for arrears accruing whilst it was so held under attachment. And no estate held under attachment by a revenue officer, in pursuance of an order of a judicial authority, shall be liable to sale for the recovery of arrears of revenue accruing during the period of such attachment, until after the end of the year in which such arrears accrued.

Estates may be exempted from sale.

XVIII. It shall be competent to the Collector at any time before the sale of an estate shall have commenced to exempt such estate from sale; and in like manner it shall be competent to the Commissioner of Revenue at any time before the sale of an estate shall have commenced, to exempt such estate from sale by a special order to the Collector to that effect in each case; and no sale of an estate shall be legal if held after the receipt of an order of exemption in respect to such estate.

Proviso.

Provided, however, and it is hereby enacted, that the Collector or Commissioner shall duly record in a proceeding the reason for granting such exemption; and provided also, that an order for exemption so issued by the Commissioner shall not affect the legality of a sale which may have taken place before the receipt by the Collector of the order for exempting it from sale.

Sales where to be made.

XIX. Sales shall ordinarily be made by the Collector in the Land Revenue Cutcherry at the sudder station of the district, provided, however, that it shall be competent to the Board of Revenue to prescribe a place for holding sales other than such cutcherry, whenever they shall consider it beneficial to the parties concerned.

Adjournments of sales.

XX. In case the Collector shall be unable from sickness, from the occurrence of a holiday, or from any other cause, to commence the sale on the day of sale fixed as aforesaid, or if, having commenced it, he be unable, from any cause, to complete it, he shall be competent to adjourn it to the next day following, not being Sunday or other close holiday, recording his reasons for such adjournment, forwarding a copy of such record to the Commissioner of Revenue, and announcing the adjournment by a written proclamation stuck up in his cutcherry; and so on, from day to day, until he shall be able to commence upon, or to complete the sale; but, with the exception of adjournments so made, recorded, and reported, each sale shall invariably be made on the day of sale fixed in the manner aforesaid.

Order of selling.

XXI. On the day of sale fixed according to Section VI of this Act, sales shall proceed in regular order; the estate to be sold bearing the lowest number on the towjee or register in use in the Collector's office of the district being put up first, and so on, in regular sequence; and it shall not be lawful for the Collector or other officer as aforesaid to put up any estate out of its regular order by number, except where it may be necessary to do so on default of deposit, as provided in Section XXII of this Act.

Deposit on account of purchase-money.

XXII. The party who shall be declared the purchaser of an estate at any such public sale as aforesaid, shall be required to deposit immediately, or as soon after the conclusion of the sale of the estate as the Collector may think necessary, either in cash, Bank of Bengal Notes, or Post Bills, or Government Securities duly indorsed, 25 per cent. on the amount of his bid, and, in default of such deposit, the estate shall forthwith be put up again and sold.

Full payment of purchase money.

XXIII. The full amount of purchase money shall be made good by the purchaser before sunset of the thirtieth day from that on which the sale of the estate bought by him took place, reckoning that day as one of the thirty; or if the thirtieth day be a Sunday or other close holiday, then on the first office day after the thirtieth; and in default of payment within the prescribed period as aforesaid, then and afterwards as often as such default shall occur, the deposit shall be forfeited to Government, the estate shall be re-sold, and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the estate, or to any part of the sum for which it may subsequently be sold, and in the event of the proceeds of the sale which may be eventually consummated being less than the price bid by the defaulting bidder aforesaid, the difference shall be leviable from him by any process authorized for realizing an arrear of public revenue, and it shall be so levied and credited to the defaulting proprietor of the estate sold; and if default of payment of purchase money shall have occurred more than once, the defaulting bidders shall be held jointly and severally responsible for such difference to the extent of the amount of their respective bids. Provided always, that every such re-sale shall be made after notification and in the forms prescribed by Section VI of this Act; and that such notification shall not be issued until the expiration of three clear days after the day on which the default shall have occurred. Provided also, that payment or tender of payment by or on behalf of the proprietor of the arrear for which the estate was first sold and of the arrear which may have subsequently become due, if such payment or tender of payment be made before sunset of the day preceding the day of the notification of re-sale and after the defaulting purchaser shall have made the deposit required by Section XXII of this Act, shall bar such re-sale.

Proviso 1st.

Proviso 2nd.

XXIV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Revenue to receive an appeal against any sale made under this Act if preferred to him on or before the fifteenth day fro n the date of sale, reckoning as in Section XXIII, or if preferred to the Collector for transmission to the Commissioner, on or before the tenth day from the day of sale, and not otherwise; and the Commissioner shall be competent in every case of appeal so preferred, to annul any sale of an estate made under this Act, which shall appear to him not to have been conducted according to the provision of this Act, awarding at the same time to the purchaser a payment from the proprietor of any moderate compensation for his loss, if the sale shall have been occasioned by neglect of the proprietor, such compensation not to exceed the interest, at the current rate of Government Securities, on the amount of deposit or balance of purchase money during the period of its being retained in the Collector's office; and the order of the Commissioner shall, in such cases, be final.

Appeals.

XXV. It shall be competent to the Commissioner of Revenue, on the ground of hardship or injustice, to suspend the passing of final orders in any case of appeal from a sale and to represent the case to the Board of Revenue, who, if they see cause, may recommend to the local Government to annul the sale; and the local Government in any such case may annul the sale and cause the estate to be restored to the proprietor on such conditions as may appear equitable and proper.

Annulment of sale in special cases.

XXVI. All sales of which the purchase money has been paid up as prescribed in Section XXIII of this Act, and against which no appeal shall have been preferred, shall be final and conclusive at noon of the thirtieth day from the day of sale, reckoning the said day of sale as the first of the said thirty days. And sales against which an appeal may have been preferred, and the appeal dismissed by the Commissioner, shall be final and conclusive from the date of such dismissal, if more than thirty days from the day of sale, or if less, then at noon of the thirtieth day as above provided.

Sales when final.

XXVII. Immediately upon a sale becoming final and conclusive, the Collector or other officer as aforesaid shall give to the purchaser a certificate of title in the form prescribed in Schedule A annexed to this Act. And the said certificate shall be deemed in any Court of Justice sufficient evidence of the title to the estate or share of an estate sold being vested in the person or persons named from the date specified; and the Collector shall also notify such transfer by written proclamation in his own cutcherry, and in those of the Moonsiff and Darogah of the jurisdiction within which any part of the estate or share of an estate sold shall be situated, and also at the cutcherry of the malgoozar or owner of the estate, or share of an estate, or on some conspicuous place on the estate, or share of an estate.

Certificate of sales.

XXVIII. The Collector shall apply the purchase money first to the liquidation of all arrears due from the estate or share sold upon the latest day of payment; and secondly, to the liquidation of all outstanding demands debited to the estate or share of an estate in the public accounts of the district, holding the residue, if any, in deposit on account of the late recorded proprietor or proprietors of the estate or share of an estate sold, to be paid to his or their receipt on demand in the manner following: to wit, in shares proportioned to their recorded interest in the estate or share of an estate sold, if such distinction of shares were recorded, or if not, then as an aggregate sum to the whole body of proprietors upon their joint receipt. Provided that, if before payment to the late proprietor or proprietors of any surplus that may remain of the purchase money, the same be claimed by any creditor in satisfaction of a debt, such surplus shall not be payable to such claimant, nor shall it be withheld from the proprietor, except under precept of a Civil Court.

Application of purchase money.

Proviso.

XXIX. If a sale made under this Act be annulled by a final decree of a Civil Court, execution of such decree must be obtained before six months after the date thereof; otherwise the party obtaining the decree shall lose all benefit therefrom. And when execution of such a decree is duly obtained, the party obtaining it shall not be restored to possession, until any amount of surplus purchase money that may have been paid away by order of a Civil Court be repaid by him, with interest at the highest current rate of Government Securities. And if such party shall neglect to pay any amount so recoverable, within six months from the date of such final decree, he shall lose all benefit therefrom.

Effects of annulment by decree of Court of sales under this Act.

XXX. Any suit brought to oust the certified purchaser as aforesaid, on the ground that the purchase was made on behalf of another person not the certified purchaser, or on behalf partly of himself and partly of another person, though by agreement the name of the certified purchaser was used, shall be dismissed with costs.

No suits on the ground of benamee purchase.

XXXI. The annulment by a Commissioner or by Government of a sale made under this Act shall be publicly notified by the Collec-

Proviso.

XXXIV. In the event of a sale being annulled by a final decree of a Court of Justice, the purchase money shall be refunded to the purchaser by Government, together with interest at the highest rate of the current public securities.

Thirdly,—Tenures of whatsoever description, and farms for terms of years, which have been created since the time of settlement, which have been duly registered under Section XXXVII of this Act, and whereon no arrear of rent was due on the latest day of payment of revenue as fixed under Sections III and IV of this Act.

Registration of old talookdaree tenures.

XXXVI. The following rules for the registration of talookdaree tenures, forming the first and second classes excepted in the last preceding Section, shall be observed:—

First,—The holder of the under-tenure shall be at liberty to apply for the registration of his under-tenure, by petition presented to the Collector of the district in whose jurisdiction the parent estate is situated, within three years from the date of the passing of this Act. The application shall contain the following particulars as far as the same are ascertainable:

1. The pergunnah or pergunnahs in which the tenure is situated.
2. The denomination of the tenure.
3. The name or names of the village or villages whereof the land is composed, or wherein it is situated.
4. The area of the land comprised in the tenure, with its boundaries in complete detail.
5. The amount of rent and cesses payable annually for the tenure, and the duties, if any, required to be performed on account of it.
6. The date of the deed constituting the tenure, or the date when the tenure was created.
7. The name of the proprietor who created the tenure.
8. The name of the original holder of the under-tenure.
9. The name of the present possessor, and if he be not the original holder, his relationship to that person, and the mode in which he succeeded to the tenure, whether by inheritance, gift, purchase, or otherwise, and whether he holds jointly or solely.

Secondly,—The Collector on receipt of such application shall serve a notice on the recorded proprietor of the estate in which the tenure is situated, with a copy of the application, and shall also cause a notice with a copy of the application annexed to be published at the places and in the manner prescribed by Section VI of this Act, requiring the proprietor or any party interested, within thirty days from the date of the issue of the said notice, to file any objection he may have to the registry of the tenure, or to any statement contained in the application. In the absence of any objection, the Collector, if after making due inquiry he is satisfied of the applicant's claim, shall register the tenure. If any objection is made, he shall require both parties, within a reasonable time, to produce their respective proofs, and shall fix a day, by notification in his cutcherry, for the summary investigation of the case. If after such summary investigation he shall be of opinion that the applicant has failed to establish his claim, he shall reject the application. If after such investigation he shall be of the contrary opinion, he shall forthwith register the under-tenure in the provisional registry book. Any party dissatisfied with the Collector's award may, within one year from the date of the award, but not afterwards, institute a suit in the Civil Court for the reversal of the same, and after the final decision of the Civil Court, the tenure shall be dealt with accordin to such decision. If the decision be in favor of the claimant of the tenure, on his producing an authenticated copy of such final decree, the tenure shall be transferred from the provisional registry to the permanent registry book; but if the final decision be otherwise, on the proprietor producing an authenticated copy of the same, the tenure shall be erased from the provisional registry book.

Registration of new talookdaree tenures and farms.

XXXVII. The following rules for the registration of talookdaree tenures and farms, forming the third class of tenures excepted in Section XXXV of this Act, shall be observed.

All the rules prescribed in the last preceding Section shall apply to this class of tenures also, with the following additional rules.

Immediately upon receipt of the application, the Collector shall cause whatever measurement, survey, and local enquiry he may deem necessary for the security of the Government revenue, to be made. When no objection on the part of the proprietor of the parent estate, or of any other party interested is filed; or when, if such objection is filed, the Collector after summary investigation may be of opinion that the applicant has established his claim so far as the rights of the proprietor and other private parties are concerned; before registering the tenure, the Collector shall satisfy himself that it was created in good faith so far as the interests of the Government revenue are concerned, and that the rent payable by the holder is not less than is fully sufficient to afford a fair proportion of the revenue assessed upon the parent estate. If the Collector be not satisfied upon this point, he shall reject the application. If he be satisfied upon this point, he shall register the tenure in the provisional registry book under the rules prescribed in Section XXXVIII of this Act. Provided always that, in the case of such tenures created after the passing of this Act, no application for registration shall be received, unless the same be submitted within one month from the date of the deed constituting the tenure.

Protection of under-tenures provisionally registered.

XXXVIII. Talookdaree tenures, for the registration of which application shall be made within the prescribed time shall, in case of the sale of the parent estate for arrears of revenue, be protected pending the summary investigation of the Collector, and shall be protected eventually by provisional or permanent registration, if the award of the Collector upon such application be in favor of the applicant, or in case of that award being against the applicant, if that award be reversed by the final decision of a Civil Court.

XXXIX. The awards of Collectors passed under Sections XXXVI and XXVII of this Act shall be open to appeal to the superior revenue authorities in the usual course.

Restriction of jurisdiction of Civil Courts.

XL. No Civil Court shall be competent to interfere with any award of any revenue authority passed under Sections XXXVI and XXXVII of this Act, founded upon any consideration regarding the good faith in which a tenure may have been created so far as the interests of the Government revenue are concerned, or the adequacy of the rent for the security of that revenue.

Protection of under-tenures permanently registered.

XLI. After the expiration of one year from the date of registration in the provisional registry book, the Collector shall transfer the registration to the permanent registry book, unless it be shown that a Civil suit has been filed to annul the registration; in which case he shall suspend registration in the permanent registry book pending the final result of such suit. The entry in the permanent registry book shall be an effectual protection of the under-tenure so registered, unless within sixty years from the date of registry a decree be passed at the suit of Government by a Civil Court, pronouncing the registration to have been obtained by fraud, to the injury of the Government revenue.

Rights of a purchaser of an estate not permanently settled sold for its own arrears.

Rights of a purchaser being a sharer in any estate.

XLIII. Excepting sharers in estates under butwarrah who may have saved their shares from sale under Sections XXXIII and XXXIV. Regulation XIX of 1814, and those who have done so under Section X or Section XI of this Act, any recorded proprietor or co-partner who may purchase in his own name or in the name of another the estate of which he is proprietor or co-partner; or who by re-purchase or otherwise may recover possession of the said estate after it has been sold for arrears under this Act; and likewise any purchaser of an estate sold for arrears or demands other than those accruing upon itself, and due for the current or last preceding year, shall by such purchase acquire the estate subject to all its encumbrances existing at the time of sale, and shall not acquire any rights in respect to under-tenants or ryots which were not possessed by the previous proprietor at the time of the sale of the said estate.

Provided that an appeal from any order passed under this Section shall lie to the Revenue Commissioner, whose decision shall be final.

Default in making deposit to be considered a contempt.

XLVI. A default to make good a bid by making the deposit required by Section XXII of this Act shall be held to be a contempt.

The new book by D. L. R., which we have for some time past been anxiously looking for, is published, and will no doubt be as popular as the preceding works of this justly favorite author, whose writings are even more highly esteemed in England and America than in India.—Bengal Hurkaru, September 28, 1855.

He is well known in the literary circles of England as one of the purest English writers of the day To say that the work before us is among the happiest productions of his pen, is to say more for it than the highest eulogy can express It has been long expected, but public patience has received an ample reward.—Eastern Star, September 29, 1855

It is a valuable contribution to our Indian Literature.—Calcutta Christian Advocate, October 6

A Book of Gems, well worthy the Author's high reputation.—Central Star, October 13

We cannot but recommend this volume to all who admire sprightly writing and elegantly selected poetry.—Indian Times, October 17.

A very pleasant book which we can cordially recommend to the attention of our readers—A delightful melange about flowers and flower gardens, floriculture in general, and the enjoyments of rural life—Bombay Times, October 27, 1855.

LIGHT-HOUSES.

His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified for general information, that the following Lights will be exhibited on Flat Island and on the Coast of Mauritius, on and from the 1st December next, viz.:—

A first class revolving Catoptric Light on Flat Island.

A first class fixed Catoptric Light on Cannonier Point.

A green Mast Light on Cooper's Island, at the mouth of the Harbour.

Detailed descriptions of, and sailing directions for these Lights, are published below for general information.

J. DOWLAND,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
7th September 1855.

Sailing Directions for making the Anchorage off the Harbour of Port Louis, Mauritius, with reference to the Light-Houses recently erected upon "Flat Island" and "Cannonier Point," and also the two Mast Lights near the entrance of the Harbour.

DESCRIPTION OF THE LIGHTS.

"FLAT ISLAND."

This is a revolving Catoptric Light of the first order, situated at the South-West or highest extremity of the Island, in Latitude S. 19° 53′ 26″ and Longitude E. 57° 38′ 8″, determined by Triangulation from the Observatory of Port Louis. Variation of the Compass 11° 47′ 13′ West.

Its elevation above the mean level of the sea (the rise of tide being only about 3 feet) is 366 feet, and it will be visible in clear weather from the deck of a vessel 13 feet above the water, a distance of about 25 Nautical Miles.

"CANNONIER POINT."

This is a fixed Catoptric Light, also of the first order.

It is situated in Latitude S. 20° 0′ 35″ and Longitude E. 57° *32′ 39″. Its elevation above the mean level of the sea is 39 feet 6 inches, and it will be seen from the deck of a vessel 13 feet above the water, a distance of about 10 Nautical Miles.

The objects of this Light are, to indicate the position of a dangerous shoal, nearly *1¼ miles from the shore, and to keep vessels clear of the coral reefs to the North-East and South-West of the Point.

"HARBOUR MAST LIGHTS."

One of these is placed as a leading Light (Red) at the Martello Tower at the mouth, and on the left bank of the Grand River; and the other (Green) at Fort George, on Tonnelier Island.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS.

Vessels making the land from the Eastward (Windward) side of the Island should give a berth of 2¼ Miles to the reefs off Amber Island and be careful not to approach the Light on Flat Island on a course to the Westward of *N. N. W. ½ W., until Gunner's Quoin bears West, when they may shape a mid-channel course between Gunner's Quoin and Flat Island.

When to the Westward of the Quoin the Light at Cannonier Point will become visible and must be approached with the Flat Island Light, bearing astern E. N. E. ½ N., until abreast of Cannonier Point, when that Light will bear S. E. by S., a berth of rather more than 2 Nautical Miles being thus given to the dangerous reef and shoal off the Point. They may then haul up to S. W. by S. for the anchorage, distant about 10 Nautical Miles taking care to keep the Cannonier Point Light white for a distance of 6¼ Miles, when the Flat Island and Cannonier Lights will appear in one—the change of this color to red within that distance will indicate a too near approach to the land.

The red Light at the mouth of the Grand River will now be opened bearing S. S. W., for which vessels may safely steer until the Mast Light (Green) upon Fort George on Tonnelier Island bears S. E. ½ S., when they may immediately let go the anchor, being on the best ground—a nearer approach to the Light at Grand River would bring them too close to the reefs.

If the night is clear, the "Corps de Garde" Mountain will be clearly seen in line with the Grand River Light.

It is, however, generally advisable for vessels passing Cannonier Point at night to lay to, keeping sail occasionally upon the ship, for the purpose of maintaining a good position for making the anchorage at day-break, in preference to attempting it at night, by which, in a very few instances, any time will be gained. Considerable risk, as well as the necessity for anchoring outside at all will also be thus avoided.

E. C. FROME,
Surveyor General.
EDWARD KELLY,
Harbour Master.

CIVIL SERVICE ANNUITY FUND OFFICE,
The 9th January 1856.

BENGAL CIVIL FUND.

At a Half-yearly General Meeting of Subscribers to the Bengal Civil Fund, held at the Town Hall on the 30th January 1856.

PRESENT:

Messrs. C. Allen, G G. Mackintosh, Hon'ble E. Drummond, C. Beadon, A. R. Young, J. W. Dalrymple, C. T. Buckland, G. G. Morris, E. F. Harrison, J. A. Crawford, and S. Lushington.

C. ALLEN, ESQUIRE, in the Chair.

Read the following Report, with Statement of Account, submitted by the Managers:—

"The Managers submit their proceedings for the past half-year for the consideration and sanction of the Meeting.

"Subject to the approval of the Subscribers, they have admitted to the benefits of the Fund the following Family:—

Mrs. Cunliffe, ...	£ 300 0
Four Children, ...	„ 360 0
Yearly allowance, ...	„ 660 0

"The Widow and four Children (Daughters) of the late Mr. R. E. Cunliffe, (Annuitant of 14th February 1853,) who died in England on the 31st March 1855, from that date.

"Mr. F. J. Cockburn has applied for the admission of his wife to the benefits of the Fund on the payment of a fine of Rupees 100. Mr. Cockburn was married in Van Dieman's Land on the 25th January 1855, and leaving Melbourne on the following 20th June, he arrived in Calcutta on the 17th August, and reported his marriage on the 20th idem. As Mr. Cockburn had not reported his marriage within six months, which expired on the 25th of July, he was informed, that under Art. 6 of the Rules, his wife could only be admitted by a General Meeting. Mr. Cockburn contended, that as it was impossible for him to report his marriage during the thirty-five days of the six months spent on board of Ship, that time ought not to be counted as part of the six months. The Managers were of opinion, that if Mr. Cockburn had reported his marriage immediately on his arrival, he might perhaps have been held to have constructively complied with the Rule; but as he had not made that report for some days after his arrival, he could not in any way be considered to have done so. The Managers recommend that Mr. Cockburn's wife be admitted to the benefits of the Fund, on payment by that Gentleman of a fine of Rupees 500.

"The Meeting held in January last year requested the Managers to report at this Meeting the financial result of the alteration in practice, from assessing, in the case of absentee Subscribers, the gross salary of the Office, to that of deducting Subscriptions from the sums actually received by Subscribers. Although the Accounts ending 30th April 1855, now submitted, do not embrace a year of the operations of the new Absentee Rules, yet from the data collected for a year up to December last, it may be pretty accurately stated that the loss to the Fund has been about Rupees 7,870, which is less than was anticipated

"The Accounts for the past year, 1854-55, are submitted. It will be observed that the amount at credit of the Unappropriated Fund differs from the Estimate made in the Secretary's Report, which was among the printed papers circulated in August last, by about Rupees 49,000. This arises chiefly from a sum of Interest, Rupees 32,700, having been included in the Estimate, on the supposition that it was realized on 30th April, whereas it was not so till the following day, and to its having been impossible to estimate the value of Mrs. Latter's Pension, which has proved to be Rupees 13,697, owing to that Lady's age being then unknown.

"The subject mooted in the printed papers circulated amongst the Subscribers at large in August last is submitted for discussion at this Meeting.

The new book by D. L. He is well known in the literary circles of England as one of the purest English writers of the day. To say that the work before us is among the happiest productions of his pen, is to say more for it than the highest eulogy can express. It has been long expected, but public patience has received an ample reward.—Eastern Star, September 29, 1855.

It is a valuable contribution to our Indian Literature.—Calcutta Christian Advocate, October 6.

A Book of Gems, well worthy the Author's high reputation.—Central Star, October 13.

We cannot but recommend this volume to all who admire sprightly writing and elegantly selected poetry.—Indian Times, October 17.

Mr. Richardson—better known to the reading public as "D. L. R."—has a wide reputation as a careful and polished writer.—Bombay Telegraph and Courier, October 22.

A very pleasant book which we can cordially recommend to the attention of our readers—A delightful melange about flowers and flower gardens, floriculture in general, and the enjoyments of rural life.—Bombay Times, October 27, 1855.

Proclamation.

FORT WILLIAM, FOREIGN DEPARTMENT,

THE 11TH FEBRUARY 1856.

By a Treaty concluded in the year 1801 the Honorable East India Company engaged to protect the Sovereign of Oude against every foreign and domestic enemy; while the Sovereign of Oude, upon his part, bound himself to establish "such a system "of Administration, to be carried into effect by his own Officers, as should be conducive "to the prosperity of his Subjects, and calculated to secure the lives and properties of the "inhabitants."

The obligations which the Treaty imposed upon the Honorable East India Company have been observed by it for more than half-a-century, faithfully, constantly, and completely.

In all that time, though the British Government has itself been engaged in frequent wars, no foreign foe has ever set his foot on the soil of Oude; no rebellion has ever threatened the stability of its throne: British Troops have been stationed in close proximity to the King's person; and their aid has never been withheld whenever his power was wrongfully defied.

On the other hand, one chief and vital stipulation of the Treaty has been wholly disregarded by every successive ruler of Oude; and the pledge which was given for the establishment of such a system of Administration as should secure the lives and properties of the people of Oude, and be conducive to their prosperity, has from first to last been deliberately and systematically violated.

By reason of this violation of the compact made the British Government might long since have justly declared the Treaty void, and might have withdrawn its protection from the Rulers of Oude; but it has hitherto been reluctant to have recourse to measures which would be fatal to the power and authority of a royal race who, whatever their faults towards their own subjects, have ever been faithful and true to their friendship with the English nation.

Nevertheless, the British Government has not failed to labor, during all that time, earnestly and perseveringly, for the deliverance of the people of Oude from the grievous oppression and misrule under which they have suffered.

Many years have passed since the Governor General, Lord William Bentinck, perceiving that every previous endeavour to ameliorate the condition of the people of Oude had been thwarted or evaded, made formal declaration to the Court of Lucknow that it would become necessary that he should proceed to assume the direct management of the Oude Territories.

The words and the menace which were then employed by Lord William Bentinck were, eight years ago, repeated in person by Lord Hardinge to the King. The Sovereign of Oude was on that day solemnly bid remember that, whatever might now happen, "it would be manifest to all the world" that he "had received a friendly and "a timely warning."

But the friendly intentions of the British Government have been wholly defeated by the obstinacy, or incapacity, or apathy of the Vizeers and Kings of Oude. Disinterested counsel and indignant censure, alternating through more than fifty years with repeated warning, remonstrance and threats, have all proved ineffectual and vain. The chief condition of the Treaty remains unfulfilled; the promises of the King rest unperformed; and the people of Oude are still the victims of incompetency, corruption, and tyranny, without remedy or hope of relief.

It is notorious throughout the land, that the King, like most of his predecessors, takes no real share in the direction of public affairs.

The powers of Government throughout his Dominions are for the most part abandoned to worthless favourites of the Court, or to violent and corrupt men, unfit for their duties and unworthy of trust.

The Collectors of the Revenue hold sway over their Districts with uncontrolled authority, extorting the utmost payment from the people, without reference to past or present engagements.

The King's Troops, with rare exceptions, undisciplined and disorganized, and defrauded of their pay by those to whom it is entrusted, are permitted to plunder the villages for their own support; so that they have become a lasting scourge to the Country they are employed to protect.

Gangs of freebooters infest the districts; Law and Justice are unknown; armed violence and bloodshed are daily events; and life and property are nowhere secure for an hour.

The time has come when the British Government can no longer tolerate in Oude these evils and abuses, which its position under the Treaty serves indirectly to sustain, or continue to the Sovereign that protection, which alone upholds the power whereby such evils are inflicted.

Fifty years of sad experience have proved that the Treaty of 1801 has wholly failed to secure the happiness and prosperity of Oude; and have conclusively shown that no effectual security can be had for the release of the people of that Country from the grievous oppression they have long endured, unless the exclusive Administration of the Territories of Oude shall be permanently transferred to the British Government.

To that end it has been declared, by the special authority and consent of the Honorable the Court of Directors, that the Treaty of 1801, disregarded and violated by each succeeding Sovereign of Oude, is henceforth wholly null and void.

His Majesty Wajid Ali Shah was invited to enter into a new engagement, whereby the Government of the Territories of Oude should be vested exclusively, and for ever, in the Honorable East India Company; while ample provision should be made for the dignity, affluence, and honor of the King, and of his family.

But His Majesty the King refused to enter into the amicable agreement which was offered for his acceptance.

Inasmuch, then, as His Majesty Wajid Ali Shah, in common with all his predecessors, has refused or evaded or neglected to fulfil the obligation of the Treaty of 1801, whereby he was bound to establish within his Dominions such a system of Administration as should be conducive to the prosperity and happiness of his subjects; and inasmuch as the Treaty he thereby violated has been declared to be null and void; and inasmuch as His Majesty has refused to enter into other agreements which were offered to him in lieu of such Treaty; and inasmuch as the terms of that Treaty, if it had still been maintained in force, forbid the employment of British Officers in Oude, without which no efficient system of Administration could be established there: it is manifest to all that the British Government had but one alternative before it.

Either it must altogether desert the people of Oude, and deliver them up helpless to oppression and tyranny which, acting under the restrictions of Treaty, it has already too long appeared to countenance; or it must put forth its own great power on behalf of a people for whose happiness it more than fifty years ago engaged to interpose, and must at once assume to itself the exclusive and permanent Administration of the Territories of Oude.

The British Government has had no hesitation in choosing the latter alternative.

Wherefore Proclamation is hereby made that the Government of the Territories of Oude is henceforth vested, exclusively and for ever, in the Honorable East India Company.

All Amils, Nazims, Chuckladars, and other Servants of the Durbar; all Officers, Civil and Military; the Soldiers of the State, and all the Inhabitants of Oude, are required to render henceforth implicit and exclusive obedience to the Officers of the British Government.

If any Officer of the Durbar, Jageerdar, Zemindar, or other person, shall refuse to render such obedience; if he shall withhold the payment of Revenue or shall otherwise dispute or defy the authority of the British Government ; he shall be declared a rebel : his person shall be seized, and his Jageers or lands shall be confiscated to the State.

To those who shall immediately and quietly submit themselves to the authority of the British Government, whether Amils or Public Officers, Jageerdars, Zemindars, or other Inhabitants of Oude, full assurance is hereby given of protection, consideration and favour.

The Revenue of the Districts shall be determined on a fair and settled basis.

The gradual improvement of the Oude Territories shall be steadily pursued.

Justice shall be measured out with an equal hand.

Protection shall be given to life and property ; and every man shall enjoy henceforth his just rights without fear or molestation.

G. F. EDMONSTONE,

Secretary to the Government of India.

But the Government may appoint any other qualified person to be Superintendent of Abkaree Revenue in any district or locality, and may vest such person with the charge of the Abkaree Revenue therein; and any person so appointed shall exercise in such district or locality all the powers and authority vested by this Act in the Collector of Land Revenue, and such powers and authority shall cease to be exercised in such district or locality by the Collector of Land Revenue during the continuance of such appointment.

VII. The Board of Revenue, with the sanction of Government, may prescribe such rules relative to the granting of licenses under the preceding Section, to the notices to be given by the proprietor of a licensed distillery when he commences and discontinues work, to the size and description of the stills, to the passing and storing of the spirits, to the inspection and examination of the distillery and warehouses, and of the spirits manufactured and stored therein, and to the furnishing of statements and lists of such spirits, and of the stills, coppers, casks, and other utensils used in the distillery, as may from time to time be judged expedient; and such rules, when sanctioned by Government, shall have the force of law.

Rate of duty to be levied on spirits.

VIII. A duty shall be levied on spirits manufactured at distilleries worked according to the European method at the rate of one rupee the imperial gallon London-proof, to be augmented or reduced in proportion to the strength of the spirit. No spirit shall be removed from any such distillery, or the warehouses connected therewith, upon which the aforesaid duty has not been paid, or for the duty chargeable on which a bond has not been executed as hereinafter provided; and for all spirits removed upon payment of duty or under bond, passes shall be issued by the Collector, which shall specify the quantity and strength of the spirit, the place of its destination, the person to whom it is consigned, and whether the duty has been paid or secured by bond.

A drawback of the duty paid as above on spirits manufactured after the European method, and exported by sea, in the manner hereinafter prescribed, to any port not subject to the Government of the East India Company, or to the Straits of Malacca, shall be allowed by the Collector of Customs at the port of exportation. Provided always, that the exportation shall be made within one year from the date of the payment of duty under this Act, and that the spirits when brought to the Custom House shall be accompanied by the pass in which such payment is certified.

Spirits under bond shall be taken from the distillery direct to the Custom House Wharf under passes to be granted for that purpose by the Collector.

Duty to be recovered on any deficiency in spirits under bond.

XII. When spirits are passed from a distillery under bond, duty shall be recoverable upon any difference between the quantity of spirits so passed from the distillery and the quantity ascertained by gauge and proof at the Custom House, less such allowance for ullage and leakage as may be prescribed by the Board of Revenue.

Spirits deficient in strength to be liable to confiscation.

If, upon proof at the Custom House, the strength of any spirits shall be found to be less than that at which they were passed from the distillery, as entered in the pass or invoice thereto annexed by the surveyor or officer in charge of the distillery, such spirits, with the cask in which they are contained, shall be liable to confiscation.

Spirits intended for exportation may be removed for local consumption.

Spirits so removed shall be treated on settlement of the bond in the same manner as if they had been exported by sea.

Recovery of sums due under bonds.

Spirits intended for exportation by sea, either under bond or with claim to drawback, shall not be shipped from any place except the Custom House, or upon any vessel to which a Custom House officer has not been appointed to superintend the receipt of export cargo. All spirits put on board of any vessel, otherwise than as above directed, shall be treated as if passed for local consumption. If the duty on the said spirits has been paid, no drawback shall be allowed; and if the spirits have been passed from the distillery under bond, the duty chargeable thereon shall remain due upon the bond. Spirits shipped for exportation shall not be relanded without a special pass from the Collector of Revenue, in addition to the usual order of the Collector of Customs.

But the Government may appoint any other qualified person to be Superintendent of Abkaree Revenue in any district or locality, and may vest such person with the charge of the Abkaree Revenue therein; and any person so appointed shall exercise in such district or locality all the powers and authority vested by this Act in the Collector of Land Revenue, and such powers and authority shall cease to be exercised in such district or locality by the Collector of Land Revenue during the continuance of such appointment.

Board of Revenue to prescribe rules for regulating European distilleries.

VII. The Board of Revenue, with the sanction of Government, may prescribe such rules relative to the granting of licenses under the preceding Section, to the notices to be given by the proprietor of a licensed distillery when he commences and discontinues work, to the size and description of the stills, to the passing and storing of the spirits, to the inspection and examination of the distillery and warehouses, and of the spirits manufactured and stored therein, and to the furnishing of statements and lists of such spirits, and of the stills, coppers, casks, and other utensils used in the distillery, as may from time to time be judged expedient; and such rules, when sanctioned by Government, shall have the force of law.

Rate of duty to be levied on spirits.

VIII. A duty shall be levied on spirits manufactured at distilleries worked according to the European method at the rate of one rupee the imperial gallon London-proof, to be augmented or reduced in proportion to the strength of the spirit. No spirit shall be removed from any such distillery, or the warehouses connected therewith, upon which the aforesaid duty has not been paid, or for the duty chargeable on which a bond has not been executed as hereinafter provided; and for all spirits removed upon payment of duty or under bond, passes shall be issued by the Collector, which shall specify the quantity and strength of the spirit, the place of its destination, the person to whom it is consigned, and whether the duty has been paid or secured by bond.

Drawback on exportation.

IX. A drawback of the duty paid as above on spirits manufactured after the European method, and exported by sea, in the manner hereinafter prescribed, to any port not subject to the Government of the East India Company, or to the Straits of Malacca, shall be allowed by the Collector of Customs at the port of exportation. Provided always, that the exportation shall be made within one year from the date of the payment of duty under this Act, and that the spirits when brought to the Custom House shall be accompanied by the pass in which such payment is certified.

Spirits may be removed for exportation under bond.

X. Spirits may be removed from any licensed distillery for exportation as aforesaid without payment of duty, under such rules and restrictions as may be from time to time prescribed by the Board of Revenue, on the person removing them executing a bond with security to the East India Company in the Form A. hereunto annexed, for the payment of the prescribed duty upon such portion of the said spirits as may not be exported within four months from the date of the bond. Provided, however that it shall be lawful for the Collector, with the sanction of the Commissioner, on sufficient cause shown, to extend the period allowed for the exportation of the spirits for a further term of four months.

Rules to be observed in the exportation of spirits.

XI. Spirits intended for exportation by sea shall be gauged and proved, previous to shipment, by an officer of the Customs. The amount of drawback to be allowed upon spirits for which duty has been paid shall be regulated according to the strength and quantity of the said spirits as ascertained by such proof and gauge; and the quantity of spirits brought for exportation under any bond shall be determined in the same manner. Spirits under bond shall be taken from the distillery direct to the Custom House Wharf under passes to be granted for that purpose by the Collector.

Duty to be recovered on any deficiency in spirits under bond.

XII. When spirits are passed from a distillery under bond, duty shall be recoverable upon any difference between the quantity of spirits so passed from the distillery and the quantity ascertained by gauge and proof at the Custom House, less such allowance for ullage and leakage as may be prescribed by the Board of Revenue.

Spirits deficient in strength to be liable to confiscation.

If, upon proof at the Custom House, the strength of any spirits shall be found to be less than that at which they were passed from the distillery, as entered in the pass or invoice thereto annexed by the surveyor or officer in charge of the distillery, such spirits, with the cask in which they are contained, shall be liable to confiscation.

Spirits intended for exportation may be removed for local consumption.

XIII. Spirits brought to the Custom House Wharf under bond for exportation may nevertheless be removed for local consumption, under passes to be granted for that purpose by the Collector of Revenue, upon payment of the prescribed duty of one rupee the imperial gallon London-proof on the quantity so removed. Spirits so removed shall be treated on settlement of the bond in the same manner as if they had been exported by sea.

Recovery of sums due under bonds.

XIV. All sums due to Government under bonds executed according to the provisions of this Act may be recovered either by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the parties by whom the bonds are executed, or by suit on the bond against those parties in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Spirits how to be shipped.

XV. Spirits intended for exportation by sea, either under bond or with claim to drawback, shall not be shipped from any place except the Custom House, or upon any vessel to which a Custom House officer has not been appointed to superintend the receipt of export cargo. All spirits put on board of any vessel, otherwise than as above directed, shall be treated as if passed for local consumption. If the duty on the said spirits has been paid, no drawback shall be allowed; and if the spirits have been passed from the distillery under bond, the duty chargeable thereon shall remain due upon the bond. Spirits shipped for exportation shall not be relanded without a special pass from the Collector of Revenue.

Spirits shipped for exportation not to be relanded.

in addition to the usual order of the Collector of Customs.

No drawback on spirits exported to Indian ports or shipped as stores.

XVI. No drawback shall be allowed on spirits exported to any Port to which the operation of Section III Act No. VI of 1848 may extend, or upon spirits shipped as stores; nor shall spirits under bond be so exported or shipped without payment of the duty prescribed by this Act.

Rum Shrub, &c. how to be charged with duty—may be exported under the same rules as spirits.

XVII. Rum shrub, cordials, and other liquors, prepared in a licensed distillery under the supervision of the surveyor or officer in charge of the distillery, shall be charged with duty according to the quantity of spirit used in the preparation; and all the provisions contained in this Act respecting spirits, except such as relate to gauge and proof, shall be applicable to such liquors. When any such liquors are removed for exportation without payment of duty, the bonds to be executed by the persons removing them shall be in the annexed Form B

No. 243 of 1856.—The following Proclamation, issued in the Foreign Department, is published in General Orders :—

No. 761, dated 11th February 1856.—By a Treaty concluded in the year 1801, the Hon'ble East India Company engaged to protect the Sovereign of Oude against every foreign and domestic enemy ; while the Sovereign of Oude, upon his part, bound himself to establish "such a system of Administration, to be carried into effect by his own Officers, as should be conducive to the prosperity of his subjects, and calculated to secure the lives and properties of the inhabitants."

The obligations which the Treaty imposed upon the Hon'ble East India Company have been observed by it for more than half a century, faithfully, constantly, and completely.

In all that time, though the British Government has itself been engaged in frequent wars, no foreign foe has everset his foot on the soil of Oude ; no rebellion has ever threatened the stability of its throne ; British Troops have been stationed in close proximity to the King's person ; and their aid has never been withheld whenever his power was wrongfully defied.

On the other hand, one chief and vital stipulation of the Treaty has been wholly disregarded by every successive Ruler of Oude, and the pledge which was given for the establishment of such a system of Administration as should secure the lives and properties of the people of Oude, and be conducive to their prosperity, has from first to last been deliberately and systematically violated.

By reason of this violation of the compact made, the British Government might long since have justly declared the Treaty void, and might have withdrawn its protection from the Rulers of Oude, but it has hitherto been reluctant to have recourse to measures which would be fatal to the power and authority of a royal race who, whatever their faults towards their own subjects, have ever been faithful and true to their friendship with the English nation.

Nevertheless, the British Government has not failed to labor, during all that time, earnestly and perseveringly for the deliverance of the people of Oude from the grievous oppresion and misrule under which they have suffered.

Many years have passed since the Governor General, Lord William Bentinck, perceiving that every previous endeavour to ameliorate the condition of the people of Oude had been thwarted or evaded, made formal declaration to the Court of Lucknow that it would become necessary that he should proceed to assume the direct management of the Oude Territories.

The words and the menace which were then employed by Lord William Bentinck were, eight years ago, repeated in person by Lord Hardinge to the King. The Sovereign of Oude was on that day solemnly bid remember that, whatever might now happen, "it would be manifest to all the world that he had received a friendly and a timely warning."

But the friendly intentions of the British Government have been wholly defeated by the obstinacy, or incapacity, or apathy of the Viziers and Kings of Oude. Disinterested counsel and indignant censure, alternating through more than fifty years with repeated warning, remonstrance and threats, have all proved ineffectual and vain. The chief condition of the Treaty remains unfulfilled; the promises of the King rest unperformed; and the people of Oude are still the victims of incompetency, corruption, and tyranny, without remedy or hope of relief.

It is notorious throughout the land, that the King, like most of his predecessors, takes no real share in the direction of public affairs.

The powers of Government throughout his Dominions are for the most part abandoned to worthless favourites of the Court, or to violent and corrupt men, unfit for their duties and unworthy of trust.

The Collectors of the Revenue hold sway over their Districts with uncontrolled authority, extorting the utmost payment from the people, without reference to past or present engagements.

The King's Troops, with rare exceptions, undisciplined and disorganized, and defrauded of their pay by those to whom it is entrusted, are permitted to plunder the villages for their own support; so that they have become a lasting scourge to the Country they are employed to protect.

Gangs of freebooters infest the Districts; Law and Justice are unknown; armed violence and bloodshed are daily events; and life and property are nowhere secure for an hour.

The time has come when the British Government can no longer tolerate in Oude these evils and abuses, which its position under the Treaty serves indirectly to sustain, or continue to the Sovereign that protection which alone upholds the power whereby such evils are inflicted.

Fifty years of sad experience have proved that the Treaty of 1801 has wholly failed to secure the happiness and prosperity of Oude; and have conclusively shown that no effectual security can be had for the release of the people of that Country from the grievous oppression they have long endured, unless the exclusive Administration of the Territories of Oude shall be permanently transferred to the British Government.

To that end it has been declared, by the special authority and consent of the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, that the Treaty of 1801, disregarded and violated by each succeeding Sovereign of Oude, is henceforth wholly null and void.

His Majesty Wajid Ali Shah was invited to enter into a new engagement, whereby the Government of the Territories of Oude should be vested exclusively, and for ever, in the Hon'ble East India Company, while ample provision should be made for the dignity, affluence, and honor of the King and of his family.

But His Majesty the King refused to enter into the amicable agreement which was offered for his acceptance.

Inasmuch, then, as His Majesty Wajid Ali Shah, in common with all his predecessors, has refused or evaded or neglected to fulfil the obligation of the Treaty of 1801, whereby he was bound to establish within his Dominions such a system of Administration as should be conducive to the prosperity and happiness of his subjects; and inasmuch as the Treaty he thereby violated has been declared to be null and void; and inasmuch as His Majesty has refused to enter into other agreements which were offered to him in lieu of such Treaty; and inasmuch as the terms of that Treaty, if it had still been maintained in force, forbade the employment of British Officers in Oude, whithout which no efficient system of Administration could be established there, it is manifest to all that the British Government had but one alternative before it.

Either it must altogether desert the people of Oude, and deliver them up helpless to oppression and tyranny which, acting under the restrictions of Treaty, it has already too long appeared to countenance; or it must put forth its own great power on behalf of a people for whose happiness it more than fifty years ago engaged to interpose, and must at once assume to itself the exclusive and permanent Administration of the Territories of Oude.

The British Government has had no hesitation in choosing the latter alternative.

Wherefore Proclamation is hereby made that the Government of the Territories of Oude is henceforth vested, exclusively and for ever, in the Hon'ble East India Company.

All Amils, Nazims, Chuckladars, and other Servants of the Durbar; all Officers, Civil and Military, the Soldiers of the State, and all the Inhabitants of Oude, are required to render henceforth implicit and exclusive obedience to the Officers of the British Government.

If any Officer of the Durbar, Jageerdar, Zemindar, or other person, shall refuse to render such obedience; if he shall withhold the payment of Revenue, or shall otherwise dispute or defy the authority of the British Government; he shall be declared a rebel, his person shall be seized, and his jageers or lands shall be confiscated to the State.

To those who shall immediately and quietly submit themselves to the authority of the British Government, whether Amils or Public Officers, Jageerdars, Zemindars, or other Inhabitants of Oude, full assurance is hereby given of protection, consideration and favour.

The Revenue of the Districts shall be determined on a fair and settled basis.

The gradual improvement of the Oude Territories shall be steadily pursued.

Justice shall be measured out with an equal hand.

Protection shall be given to life and property; and every man shall enjoy henceforth his just rights without fear of molestation.

LIGHT-HOUSES.

His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified for general information, that the following Lights will be exhibited on Flat Island and on the Coast of Mauritius, on and from the 1st December next, viz.:—

A first class revolving Catoptric Light on Flat Island.

A first class fixed Catoptric Light on Cannonier Point.

A green Mast Light on Cooper's Island, at the mouth of the Harbour.

Detailed descriptions of, and sailing directions for these Lights, are published below for general information.

J. DOWLAND,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
7th September 1855.

Sailing Directions for making the Anchorage off the Harbour of Port Louis, Mauritius, with reference to the Light-Houses recently erected upon "Flat Island" and "Cannonier Point," and also the two Mast Lights near the entrance of the Harbour.

DESCRIPTION OF THE LIGHTS.

"FLAT ISLAND."

This is a revolving Catoptric Light of the first order, situated at the South-West or highest extremity of the Island, in Latitude S. 19° 53′ 26″ and Longitude E 57° 38′ 8″ determined by Triangulation from the Observatory of Port Louis. Variation of the Compass 11° 47′ 13″ West.

Its elevation above the mean level of the sea (the rise of tide being only about 3 feet) is 366 feet, and it will be visible in clear weather from the deck of a vessel 13 feet above the water, a distance of about 25 Nautical Miles.

"CANNONIER POINT."

This is a fixed Catoptric Light, also of the first order.

It is situated in Latitude S. 20° 0′ 35″ and Longitude E 57° *32′ 39″. Its elevation above the mean level of the sea is 39 feet 6 inches, and it will be seen from the deck of a vessel 13 feet above the water, a distance of about 10 Nautical Miles.

The objects of this Light are, to indicate the position of a dangerous shoal, nearly *1¼ miles from the shore, and to keep vessels clear of the coral reefs to the North-East and South-West of the Point.

"HARBOUR MAST LIGHTS."

One of these is placed as a leading Light (Red) at the Martello Tower at the mouth, and on the left bank of the Grand River; and the other (Green) at Fort George, on Tonnelier Island.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS.

Vessels making the land from the Eastward (Windward) side of the Island should give a berth of 2¼ Miles to the reefs off Amber Island and be careful not to approach the Light on Flat Island on a course to the Westward of N. N. W. ½ W., until Gunner's Quoin bears West, when they may shape a mid-channel course between Gunner's Quoin and Flat Island.

When to the Westward of the Quoin the Light at Cannonier Point will become visible and must be approached with the Flat Island Light, bearing astern E. N. E. ½ N, until abreast of Cannonier Point, when that Light will bear S. E by S., a berth of rather more than 2 Nautical Miles being thus given to the dangerous reef and shoal off the Point. They may then haul up to S. W. by S. for the anchorage, distant about 10 Nautical Miles taking care to keep the Cannonier Point Light white for a distance of 6¾ Miles, when the Flat Island and Cannonier Lights will appear in one—the change of this color to red within that distance will indicate a too near approach to the land.

The red Light at the mouth of the Grand River will now be opened bearing S S W., for which vessels may safely steer until the Mast Light (Green) upon Fort George on Tonnelier Island bears S. E. ½ S., when they may immediately let go the anchor, being on the best ground—a nearer approach to the Light at Grand River would bring them too close to the reefs.

If the night is clear, the "Corps de Garde" Mountain will be clearly seen in line with the Grand River Light.

It is, however, generally advisable for vessels passing Cannonier Point at night, to lay to, keeping sail occasionally upon the ship, for the purpose of maintaining a good position for making the anchorage at day-break, in preference to attempting it at night, by which, in a very few instances, any time will be gained. Considerable risk, as well as the necessity for anchoring outside at all will also be thus avoided.

E. C. FROME,
Surveyor General.
EDWARD KELLY,
Harbour Master.

He is well known in the literary circles of England as one of the purest English writers of the day. No. 279 of 1856.—The Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council is pleased to direct, that the following changes shall be made in existing Rules for the supply of Accoutrements, Saddlery and Harness to the Army.

BUFF ACCOUTREMENTS.

The minimum period of service of Buff Accoutrements is reduced from ten to seven years, and that of Leather Accoutrements from five to four years.

Bridles belonging to sets of Artillery Harness are required to last four years instead of five.

When Accoutrements which have lasted the prescribed time, may be considered unfit for further service, they may be at once condemned by Special Committees without waiting for the assembly of the Annual Committee at the usual period and may be replaced by Indents on the nearest Magazines.

The same rule will be observed with regard to Harness and Saddlery, supplies of which will however be kept in certain Magazines only.

With a view to prevent the delay that has hitherto occurred in the replacement of worn-out Saddlery and Harness, it is directed that every Officer whose equipment may have served one year less than the prescribed period and is likely to require renewal, shall inform the Commissary in charge of the Magazine on which he may be dependent, in order that measures may be adopted for the timely provision of a new equipment.

Saddlery and Harness will be supplied directly from the manufactories to the under-mentioned Magazines.

To that at Ferozepore, which will issue supplies to all Corps North-West of Umballa.

2. To the Delhi Magazine, which will provide for all Corps above Muttra, including those at Umballa.

3. To the Cawnpore Magazine, which will provide for all Corps at or above Dinapore, including Muttra.

4. To the Arsenal, which will provide for all Corps below Dinapore as well as those in Burmah.

A few Articles, furnished by the Ferozepore Magazine, will be kept at the Frontier Depôts to replace quickly any that may be destroyed or lost on service.

The Officers in charge of the four main Depôts of Saddlery will so regulate their Indents on the manufactories as to prevent any considerable quantity of Saddlery and Harness being kept more than one year in store.

PRICE THREE RUPEES.

Published by Messrs. P. S. DeRozario & Co.

 The book extends to 204 full-sized octavo pages.

The new book by D. L. R., which we have for some time past been anxiously looking for, is published, and will no doubt be as popular as the preceding works of this justly favorite author, whose writings are even more highly esteemed in England and America than in India.—Bengal Hurkaru, September 28, 1855.

He is well known in the literary circles of England as one of the purest English writers of the day. To say that the work before us is among the happiest productions of his pen, is to say more for it than the highest eulogy can express. It has been long expected, but public patience has received an ample reward.—Eastern Star, September 29, 1855.

It is a valuable contribution to our Indian Literature.—Calcutta Christian Advocate, October 6.

A Book of Gems, well worthy the Author's high reputation.—Central Star, October 13.

We cannot but recommend this volume to all who admire sprightly writing and elegantly selected poetry.—Indian Times, October 17.

Mr. Richardson—better known to the reading public as "D. L. R."—has a wide reputation as a careful and polished writer.—Bombay Telegraph and Courier, October 22.

A very pleasant book which we can cordially recommend to the attention of our readers—A delightful melange about flowers and flower gardens, floriculture in general, and the enjoyments of rural life.—Bombay Times, October 27, 1855.

His last work is well worthy of a post in any library where the quality and not quantity of books is considered. Phœnix, November 13, 1855.

The 20th February 1856.

With reference to the Notification dated the 25th July 1854, No. 3200, "absolutely prohibiting the Officers of Government, of whatever rank or class, from selling or being concerned in the sale of property of any amount or description to Native Princes and Chiefs, or to their relatives or Ministers, or to any Native Gentlemen of rank or opulence residing under the protection of the British Government," the Governor General in Council is pleased to notify that the Notification in question was not intended to apply in its full strictness to any but Political Officers, and Officers discharging political as well as ordinary civil functions, whether employed directly under the Government of India, or under any of the Local Governments, and that in regard to all other Officers, the order of the 31st October 1821 is to be considered as still in force.

But His Lordship in Council is strongly impressed with a sense of the necessity for discouraging as much as possible pecuniary dealings of every description between Public Officers and Natives under their authority or residing within their jurisdiction, or in their vicinity, and the permission of Government will never be given to any transaction of the kind if it should appear to afford even a plausible ground for suspicion of improper motives on the part either of the buyer or the seller.

Financial Department.

No. 107 of 1855.

OUR GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

1. We have carefully considered the papers accompanying your Letter noted in the margin, relative to the proposed enactment of Rules for the regulation of leave of absence, &c., to the large and increasing classes of Public Officers not in the Covenanted Service of the East India Company, but, nevertheless, in many cases performing duties of great importance and responsibility. It is scarcely necessary to observe that we desire to treat them in this, as in all other respects, with the utmost liberality and consideration that may be consistent with the interests of the Public Service.

Letter from, dated 23th July 1855, No. 101.

Forward the report of a special Committee (consisting of the Military Auditor General, the Secretary to the Government of Bengal and the Accountant to the Government of Bengal) which was appointed by the Government to consider the subject of framing a Code of Rules for the regulation of leave of absence and acting allowances for the Uncovenanted Service, and express an earnest hope that the proposed Code may receive the Court's sanction.

2. Adopting as a principle to be inviolably maintained, that in each separate case of absence of an Uncovenanted Officer, the expense occasioned thereby is to be defrayed out of the Absentee's Salary, we are prepared to concur in the grant, to Uncovenanted Servants (receiving Rupees 100 per month and upwards,) of the advantages as respects sick leave and leave on private affairs proposed in the Code under consideration. The advantages may be concisely stated as follows:—

1*st.*—Sick Leave.—The grant of leave for three years altogether, during the entire period of service, of which two years only may be continuous or reckon as service for Pension. During one year of absence, the Absentee to be subjected to the deduction of half, and during the remaining period, of two-thirds, of his allowances, provided that he shall in no case draw a larger sum than Rupees 6000, (£600,) per annum.

The maximum being thus fixed, we shall leave it to the Local Government, in the exercise of their discretion to determine in each case, how far the advantages of the Rules should be modified with reference to the length of service of the Applicant and other circumstances. We desire however that, after a continuous absence of two years on sick certificate, an interval of two years shall elapse before further leave on that account is granted.

2*nd.*—Leave on Private Affairs.—The grant of leave for one month in each year without deduction; for six months on sufficient cause being shown with deduction of half allowances provided the rate of Rupees 6,000 (£600,) per annum be not exceeded, and under special circumstances, for twelve months without forfeiture of appointment, but without pay and without the leave counting as service for Pension.

This latter advantage may we think be fairly conceded in special cases to Uncovenanted Servants, since a regular Furlough on Private Affairs cannot be granted to them, and the loss of their appointments involves practically the loss to them of the service. But it should not be allowed more than once during the period of service.

3*rd.*—We accede to your suggestion that Heads of Offices in cases of urgency may be authorized to grant leave of absence on Medical certificate to the extent of one month, provided the same be immediately reported for the sanction of Government.

4*th.*—The Rules proposed regarding the allowances of persons appointed to act for Absentees appear unobjectionable.

We are,

Your affectionate friends,

(Signed) E. MACNAGHTEN,

" W. H. SYKES,

and eight other Directors.

LONDON,
The 5th December 1855.

Rules for regulating Leave of Absence and Acting Allowances to Public Officers in India not in the Covenanted Service of the East India Company.

CHAPTER I.

Rules for Application of Leave of Absence.

Section I. Leave of absence to Officers not in the Covenanted Service of the East India Company, receiving their appointments direct from Government, will be granted by the Government only under which office is held, on application made publicly through the regular channel in the Department to which the Applicant may belong; but in respect of all other Officers, it will be optional with the Local Governments to delegate to heads of Offices or departments, power to act upon the Rules without special reference to higher authority.

Section II. Absence without leave will render the absentee liable to loss of appointment, and will be attended with entire forfeiture of salary for the whole period of such absence.

Section III. No leave of absence shall have any retrospective effect, except in cases of severe illness to be attested by Medical Certificate conforming in every respect to the directions contained in Section IV.

Chapter II.

Rules for Sick Leave.

Section IV. When an application for leave of absence is made on the ground of ill health, it must be accompanied by a statement of the case from the Medical man by whom the Applicant has been attended, distinctly stating from personal observation, the nature of the disease, the symptoms by which it is manifested, the causes by which it has been probably produced, and the period during which it has existed so far as the knowledge of the Medical Officer extends; and by a certificate from the Chief Medical Officer of the station or district, or if at a Presidency Town, from a Presidency or other Official Surgeon certifying after careful personal investigation, the necessity for temporary removal, and the period for which absence is, to the best of his judgment, absolutely requisite for restoration to health. If the requisite leave be for a longer period than six months, the certificate must in the first instance be countersigned by the Superintending Surgeon of the division in which the applicant may be located; and in cases of leave beyond Sea, be afterwards submitted, with the statement of the case, for the consideration and countersignature of the Members of the Medical Board.

The certificate shall be given in the following form:—

I., A. B., Surgeon at or of——do hereby certify that E. F. (here enter designation of office) is in a bad state of health, and I solemnly and sincerely declare that according to the best of my judgment, a change of air is essentially necessary to his recovery; and that the circumstances of his case are such as to render leave of absence for the period of——absolutely necessary (or highly desirable.)

The following form shall be observed by the Superintending Surgeon and Members of the Medical Board in countersigning the certificate:—

I (or we) do hereby certify that according to the best of my (or our) professional judgment, after careful consideration of his case, I (or we) believe the state of health of E. F. to be such, as to render leave of absence for a period of——absolutely necessary (or highly desirable) for his recovery.

An application for extension of leave must, if the Applicant be in India, be accompanied by a certificate to a like effect from the Medical Officer by whom the Applicant is attended, together with a statement showing sufficient reason for the extension solicited; and such certificate must be countersigned by the Members of the Medical Board, or by the Superintending Surgeon of the division in which the Applicant may be located. In like manner, if the Applicant shall have proceeded beyond the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, he must furnish a certificate and statement to the required effect from a Surgeon or Physician, at the place of his temporary residence, by whom he has been attended; such attendance and the period of it to be stated, and the certificate to be countersigned by the Examining Physician of the East India Company if the Absentee is in Europe, or by the principal Medical Authority of the Colony or country to which the Absentee may have proceeded; or some sufficient reason stated for the want of such countersignature if not produced.

The Officer countersigning must either personally examine the Applicant, or state some sufficient reason why he has been unable to do so, when any of the required particulars are neglected, leave will be refused.

Section V. Leave of absence will be granted under the following limitations to Servants who may be declared by a sufficient Medical certificate to require leave for the restoration of their health:—

1. The limit to leave on Medical certificate is fixed at three years during the entire period of service, of which not more than two years may be continuous and two years only will be permitted to reckon as service qualifying for Pension.

2. Leave of absence on Medical certificate will not be granted for a longer period than twelve months at any one time, which may however be extended if necessary under renewed Medical certificate, for periods not exceeding six months within the limit of two years continuously. After a continuous absence of two years on Medical certificate, an interval of two years shall elapse before further leave on that account is granted.

3. During one year of the entire period of absence under this Rule, the Absentee will be subjected to a deduction of one half, and during the remainder to a deduction of two-thirds of his allowances, provided however that he shall in no case draw a larger sum than Rupees 6,000 (£600) per annum.

4. In cases of extreme urgency, the Heads of Offices are authorized to grant leave of absence on Medical certificate to the extent of one month, provided the same be immediately reported for the sanction of Government.

Chapter III.

Rules for Leave on Private Affairs.

Section VI. Leave of absence may be granted for one month in each year, or, to Judicial Officers, during the authorized closing of the Civil Courts, without deduction from salary.

Section VII. In addition to the above, and on sufficient cause being shewn, leave of absence may be granted on private affairs for not more than six months, one half the Absentee's salary being deducted for such period of absence, provided the rate of Rupees 6,000 (£600) per annum be not exceeded.

Clause 2. The leave granted under this Section will be computed from the date of the Absentee's quitting his post to the date of his return thereto. A second leave of the same description cannot be taken till the expiration of six years from the date of return to duty from a former leave. No portion of the salary allowed to be drawn will be claimable till the Absentee shall have returned to his duty.

Clause 3. Leave taken under this and the preceding Section will reckon as service qualifying for Pension.

Section VIII. In addition to the leave which may be granted under the preceding Rules on Medical certificate or private affairs, Government may at any time under special circumstances and at its discretion, grant leave of absence once during the period of service not exceeding twelve months on private affairs, without forfeiture of appointment, but without pay; such period of absence not to count as service towards Pension.

Section. IX. No leave of absence on private affairs shall be claimable by any party whatever under these Rules as a matter of right; such leave will be granted only at the pleasure of the Government or its authorized Officers when the concession of the indulgence in no way interferes with the interests of the Public Service, and it shall be the duty of the Government in every instance (except in the case of leave granted under Section VI) to consider and determine whether the grounds of the application are sufficiently urgent to justify the concession of the leave.

Section X.—Parties who may desire to draw their allowances while absent on leave, will be required to give security in such amount and form, as may be fixed by Government for the refund of any excess that may be drawn in case of their coming under retrenchment.

CHAPTER IV.

Rules for Allowances, &c.

Section XI.—No person appointed to a situation under the Government shall draw the salary of his appointment for any period prior to the date of his joining it.

Section XII.—An Officer holding a situation, appointed to one of equal or higher value, will until he joins, draw so much of the salary of his new Office as may be equal to the salary of his former situation; provided he does not exceed the time allowed for joining under the following Rules; should he do so, no salary will be passed to him for such period in excess.

Section XIII.—The time ordinarily allowed for joining an appointment is to be calculated at the rate of fifteen miles a day (Sundays excepted) together with a week to prepare for the journey; but on occasions of emergency, it will be optional with the Government to prescribe the period within which any journey is to be performed.

Section XIV.—A person officiating temporarily in any situation, will draw so much of the salary of such situation as may equal the sum deducted on account of absence from the real incumbent, and the substantive allowances of every Officer temporarily acting in a situation of superior emolument, will be subject to deduction at the same rate; but no additional expense is on any account to be incurred by the absence of any Officer on leave.

ON FLOWERS AND FLOWER GARDENS,

BY D. L. RICHARDSON.

PRICE THREE RUPEES.

Published by Messrs. P. S. DeRozario & Co.

 The book extends to 264 full-sized octavo pages.

The new book by D. L. R., which we have for some time past been anxiously looking for, is published, and will no doubt be as popular as the preceding works of this justly favorite author, whose writings are even more highly esteemed in England and America than in India.—Bengal Hurkaru, September 28, 1855.

He is well known in the literary circles of England as one of the purest English writers of the day. To say that the work before us is among the happiest productions of his pen, is to say more for it than the highest eulogy can express. It has been long expected, but public patience has received an ample reward.—Eastern Star, September 29, 1855.

It is a valuable contribution to our Indian Literature.—Calcutta Christian Advocate, October 6

A Book of Gems, well worthy the Author's high reputation.—Central Star, October 13.

We cannot but recommend this volume to all who admire sprightly writing and elegantly selected poetry.—Indian Times, October 17.

Mr. Richardson—better known to the reading public as "D. L. R."—has a wide reputation as a careful and polished writer.—Bombay Telegraph and Courier, October 22

A very pleasant book which we can cordially recommend to the attention of our readers—A delightful melange about flowers and flower gardens, floriculture in general, and the enjoyments of rural life.—Bombay Times, October 27, 1855.

His last work is well worthy of a post in any library where the quality and not quantity of books is considered. —Phœnix. November 13, 1855.

Application to Supreme Courts to declare exclusive privilege as to an invention not to have been acquired on following grounds

XXIII. It shall be lawful for any person to apply by motion to any of Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature for a rule to show cause why the Court should not declare that an exclusive privilege in respect of an invention has not been acquired under the provisions of this Act by reason of all or any of the objections following (to be specified in the rule), that is to say—

Invention not new.

That the said invention was not, at the time of presenting the petition for leave to file the specification, a new invention, or

Petition not the inventor, &c.

Like application as to part of an invention.

XXIV. Any person may, in like manner, apply to any of Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature for a rule to show cause why the Court should not declare that an exclusive privilege has not been acquired under the provisions of this Act in any part of the invention to be specified in the rule by reason of all or any of the objections following (to be specified in the rule,) that is to say—

That such part of the invention was not new at the date of the petition for leave to file the specification, Application by Advocate General, &c., on breach of special condition.

XXV. It shall be lawful for the Advocate General of the East India Company at any of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George, and Bombay, or any other person, by order of the Governor General in Council, to apply to any of the said Courts of Judicature for a rule calling upon the petitioner, his executors, administrators, or assigns, to show cause why the question of the breach of any special condition upon which the leave to file a specification has been granted, or any other question of fact on which the revocation of the exclusive privilege by the Governor General in Council under the power hereinbefore reserved may, in the judgment of the said Governor General in Council, depend, should not be tried in the form of an issue directed by the said Court; and, if the rule be made absolute, the Court, unless the breach or other matter of fact be admitted, may thereupon direct such issue to be tried, and certify the result of such trial to the Governor General in Council. The costs of such trial, and also the costs of any proceedings in any of the said Courts of Judicature under the provisions of this Act, shall be in the discretion of the Court.

Service of proceedings on all persons interested.

XXVI. Notice of any rule obtained or proceeding taken under either of the last three preceding Sections shall be served on all persons appearing to be proprietors or to have shares or interests in the exclusive privilege under the provisions of Section XXXIV of this Act, and it shall not be necessary to serve such notice on any other persons.

Supreme Court may direct any issue for trial to other Courts.

XXVII. Any of the said Courts of Judicature, if it think fit, may direct an issue for the trial, before the same Court or any other Court of Her Majesty or any principal Court of original jurisdiction in civil cases of the East India Company, of any question of fact arising upon an application under Section XXIII, XXIV, or XXV of this Act, and such issue shall be tried accordingly in a summary manner, and, if the issue be directed to another Court, the finding shall be certified by the Court before which the same was tried, to the Court directing the issue. If the issue be directed to any of Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature, the Court by which the issue is tried may, before the finding is certified, direct a new trial of such issue according to the usual course and practice of such Court. If the issue be directed to a Court of the East India Company, the finding shall not be subject to appeal to any other Court of the said Company, but the evidence taken upon the trial shall be recorded, and a copy thereof, certified by the Judge, shall be transmitted, together with any remarks he may think fit to make thereon, to the Court by which the issue was directed; and such Court may either act upon the decision of the Court which tried the issue, or direct a new trial if it shall appear necessary.

New trial.

Judgment.

XXVIII. If it shall appear to any of the said Courts of Judicature at the hearing of any application under the provisions of Section XXIII or XXIV of this Act that, by reason of any of the objections therein mentioned, the said exclusive privilege in the invention or in any part thereof has not been acquired, the Court shall give judgment accordingly, and shall make such order as to the costs of and consequent upon the application as it may think just; and thereupon the petitioner, his executors, administrators, and assigns, shall, so long as the judgment continues in force, cease to be entitled to such exclusive privilege.

Costs.

XXIX. If the Court, at the hearing of any such application as last aforesaid, shall think that the petitioner has, in the description of his invention in the petition or specification, included something which at the date of the petition was not new or whereof he was not the inventor, or that the specification is in any particular defective or insufficient, but that the error, defect, or insufficiency was not fraudulently intended, the Court may adjudge the said exclusive privilege to have been acquired and to be valid, save as to the part thereof affected by such error, defect, or insufficiency, or, if the Court shall think that the error, defect, or insufficiency can be amended without injury to the public, they may adjudge the exclusive privilege in the whole of the invention to be valid, and may, upon such terms as shall appear reasonable, order the specification to be amended in any of the said particulars; and thereupon the petitioner, his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall, within the time limited by the said Court for the purpose, file a specification amended according to such order.

Amendment of specification.

XXX. An exclusive privilege shall not be defeated upon the ground that there is any misdescription of the invention in the petition, unless such misdescription was fraudulent.

Misdescription in the petition, if not fraudulent, not to defeat the privilege.

XXXI. Whenever it shall be adjudged by any of the said Courts of Judicature that an exclusive privilege as to the whole or any part of an invention has not been acquired, the said Secretary to the Government of India shall, upon the production of the judgment or order, cause an entry thereof to be made in the said book, hereinbefore directed to be kept, and shall cause a reference to such entry to be made in the margin of the entry of the specification contained in such book.

Entry in registry book of judgment, &c. declaring privilege invalid.

XXXII. If, upon proceedings instituted within two years from the date of a petition to file a specification, the actual inventor shall prove to the satisfaction of any of Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature or of the principal Court of the East India Company having jurisdiction in Civil cases within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the Defendant shall reside as a fixed inhabitant, that the petitioner was not the actual inventor and that, at the time of the petition, he knew or had good reason to believe that the knowledge of the invention was obtained by himself or by some other person surreptitiously or in fraud of the actual inventor, or by means of a communication made in confidence by the actual inventor to him or to any person through whom he derived such knowledge, the Court may compel the petitioner to assign to the actual inventor any exclusive privilege obtained under this Act and to account for and pay over the profits thereof.

In what case actual inventor entitled to assignment of an exclusive privilege fraudulently obtained.

XXXIII. In any action for the infringement of such exclusive privilege the Plaintiff shall deliver with his plaint particulars of the breaches complained of in the said action, and the Defendant, in pleading thereto, shall deliver with his pleas particulars of the grounds (if any) upon which he means to contend that the Plaintiff is not entitled to an exclusive privilege in the invention. In like manner, upon any application to any of the said Courts of Judicature under Section XXIII, XXIV, or XXV of this Act, the applicant shall deliver particulars of the objections on which he means to rely. At the trial of any such action or issue no evidence shall be allowed to be given in support of any alleged infringement or of any objection impeaching the validity of such exclusive privilege which shall not be contained in the particulars delivered as aforesaid. If it be alleged that the invention was publicly known or used prior to the date of the petition for leave to file such specification, the places where and the manner in which the invention was so publicly known or used shall be stated in such particulars. Provided, always, that it shall be lawful for any Court in which the action or proceeding is pending, or in which the issue is tried, to allow the Plaintiff or Defendant respectively to amend the particulars delivered as aforesaid upon such terms as shall seem fit.

Particulars to be delivered.

XXXIV. A book shall be kept in the Office of the Secretary to the Government of India in the Home Department (such book to be open to inspection without fee) wherein every person filing a specification under this Act shall cause to be stated, under a number corresponding with the number of the specification, some place in India where service of any rule or proceedings for the purpose of cancelling or revoking his exclusive privilege may be made. All persons, partnerships, or Companies from time to time being proprietors of, or having shares or interests in, such exclusive privilege, shall cause to be entered in such book, under such number as aforesaid, their names, together with the name of some place for the service of such proceedings as aforesaid. All such rules and proceedings as aforesaid shall be deemed sufficiently served on any such person, partnership, or Company if a copy thereof be left at the place entered in such book, or (if any other place be substituted for the same by entry in the said book) at the place last substituted, by delivering the same to any person resident at, or in charge of, such place; or, if there be no person resident at, or in charge of, such place, or if such place be not within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, by causing such rule or proceeding to be sent by Post by a registered letter directed to such person, partnership, or Company at such place; and if any such person, partnership, or Company shall neglect to make or cause to be made such entry, then service of such rule or proceeding may be effected by affixing a copy thereof to some conspicuous part of the Court House or in such other manner as the Court may direct.

At the end of this period, their Journals bearing the remarks of the Surgeon to the General Hospital, &c, shall be forwarded through the Officiating Superintending Surgeon, Presidency, to the Medical Board.

No. 9, dated 22nd February 1856.—Read a Despatch from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, No. 107 of 1855, dated the 5th December.

Resolution.—The Hon'ble the Court of Directors having approved, with certain modifications, of a Code of Rules recommended by this Government for regulating leave of absence and acting allowances to Public Officers in India not in the Covenanted Service of the East India Company, the Most Noble the Governor General in Council is pleased to resolve, that the following Rules, together with the Despatch above adverted to, be published in the Official Gazette for general information, and be held applicable, from the date of the publication of the Notification, to all Officers in the Uncovenanted Service of the Government, who may be in the receipt of salaries of Rupees 100 a month and upwards.

Financial Department.

No. 107 of 1855.

OUR GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

1. We have carefully considered the papers accompanying your letter noted in the margin, relative to the proposed enactment of Rules for the regulation of leave of absence, &c., to the large and increasing classes of Public Officers not in the Covenanted Service of the East India Company, but, nevertheless, in many cases performing duties of great importance and responsibility. It is scarcely necessary to observe that we desire to treat them in this, as in all other respects, with the utmost liberality and consideration that may be consistent with the interests of the Public Service.

Letter from, dated 28th July 1855, No. 101.

Forward the report of a Special Committee (consisting of the Military Auditor General, the Secretary to the Government of Bengal and the Accountant to the Government of Bengal) which was appointed by the Government to consider the subject of framing a Code of Rules for the regulation of leave of absence and acting allowances for the Uncovenanted Service, and express an earnest hope that the proposed Code may receive the Court's sanction.

2. Adopting as a principle to be inviolably maintained, that in each separate case of absence of an Uncovenanted Officer, the expense occasioned thereby is to be defrayed out of the Absentee's Salary, we are prepared to concur in the grant to Uncovenanted Servants (receiving Rupees 100 per month and upwards) of the advantages as respects sick leave and leave on private affairs proposed in the Code under consideration The advantages may be concisely stated as follows :—

1*st.*—Sick Leave—The grant of leave for three years altogether, during the entire period of service, of which two years only may be continuous or reckon as service for Pension During one year of absence, the Absentee to be subjected to the deduction of half, and during the remaining period, of two-thirds, of his allowances, provided that he shall in no case draw a larger sum than Rupees 6,000 (£600) per annum.

The maximum being thus fixed, we shall leave it to the Local Government, in the exercise of their discretion to determine in each case, how far the advantages of the Rules should be modified with reference to the length of service of the Applicant and other circumstances We desire however that, after a continuous absence of two years on Sick certificate, an interval of two years shall elapse before further leave on that account is granted

2*nd*—Leave on Private Affairs—The grant of leave for one month in each year without deduction ; for six months, on sufficient cause being shown, with deduction of half allowances, provided the rate of Rupees 6,000 (£600) per annum be not exceeded ; and under special circumstances, for twelve months, without forfeiture of appointment, but without pay and without the leave counting as service for Pension.

This latter advantage may we think be fairly conceded in special cases to Uncovenanted Servants, since a regular Furlough on Private Affairs cannot be granted to them, and the loss of their appointments involves practically the loss to them of the service But it should not be allowed more than once during the period of service

3*rd*—We accede to your suggestion, that Heads of Offices, in cases of urgency, may be authorized to grant leave of absence on Medical certificate to the extent of one month, provided the same be immediately reported for the sanction of Government

4*th*.—The Rules proposed regarding the allowances of persons appointed to act for Absentees appear unobjectionable.

We are,
Your affectionate friends,
(Signed) E MACNAGHTEN,
" W H. SYKES,
And Eight other Directors.

LONDON,
The 5th December 1855.

Rules for regulating Leave of Absence and Acting Allowances to Public Officers in India not in the Covenanted Service of the East India Company.

CHAPTER I.

Rules for Application of Leave of Absence.

Section I. Leave of absence to Officers not in the Covenanted Service of the East India Company, receiving their appointments direct from Government, will be granted by the Government only under which office is held, on application made publicly through the regular channel in the Department to which the Applicant may belong ; but in respect of all other Officers, it will be optional with the Local Governments to delegate to Heads of Offices or Departments power to act upon the Rules without special reference to higher authority.

Section II. Absence without leave will render the Absentee liable to loss of appointment, and will be attended with entire forfeiture of salary for the whole period of such absence.

Section III. No leave of absence shall have any retrospective effect, except in cases of severe illness to be attested by Medical certificate, conforming in every respect to the directions contained in Section IV.

CHAPTER II.

Rules for Sick Leave.

Section IV. When an application for leave of absence is made on the ground of ill-health, it must be accompanied by a Statement of the case from the Medical man by whom the Applicant has been attended, distinctly stating, from personal observation, the nature of the disease, the symptoms by which it is manifested, the causes by which it has been probably produced, and the period during which it has existed so far as the knowledge of the Medical Officer extends ; and by a Certificate from the Chief Medical Officer of the Station or District ; or if at a Presidency Town, from a Presidency or other Official Surgeon certifying, after careful personal investigation, the necessity for temporary removal, and the period for which absence is, to the best of his judgment, absolutely requisite for restoration to health. If the requisite leave be for a longer period than six months, the Certificate must in the first instance be countersigned by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division in which the Applicant may be located ; and in cases of leave beyond Sea, be afterwards submitted, with the Statement of the case, for the consideration and countersignature of the Members of the Medical Board.

The Certificate shall be given in the following form :—

I, A B, Surgeon at or of——, do hereby certify that E F. (here enter designation of office) is in a bad state of health, and I solemnly and sincerely declare that, according to the best of my judgment, a change of air is essentially necessary to his recovery ; and that the circumstances of his case are such as to render leave of absence for the period of —— absolutely necessary (or highly desirable.)

The following form shall be observed by the Superintending Surgeon and Members of the Medical Board in countersigning the Certificate :—

I (or we) do hereby certify that according to the best of my (or our) professional judgment, after careful consideration of his case, I (or we) believe the state of health of E. F. to be such as to render leave of absence for a period of —— absolutely necessary (or highly desirable) for his recovery.

An application for extension of leave must, if the Applicant be in India, be accompanied by a Certificate to a like effect from the Medical Officer by whom the Applicant is attended, together with a Statement showing sufficient reason for the extension solicited ; and such Certificate must be countersigned by the Members of the Medical Board, or by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division in which the Applicant may be located. In like manner, if the Applicant shall have proceeded beyond the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, he must furnish a Certificate and Statement to the required effect from a Surgeon or Physician, at the place of his temporary residence, by whom he has been attended; such attendance and the period of it to be stated, and the Certificate to be countersigned by the Examining Physician of the East India Company if the Absentee is in Europe; or by the principal Medical Authority of the Colony or Country to which the Absentee may have proceeded; or some sufficient reason stated for the want of such countersignature if not produced.

The Officer countersigning must either personally examine the Applicant, or state some sufficient reason why he has been unable to do so: when any of the required particulars are neglected, leave will be refused.

Section V. Leave of absence will be granted under the following limitations to Servants who may be declared by a sufficient Medical certificate to require leave for the restoration of their health:—

1. The limit to leave on Medical certificate is fixed at three years during the entire period of service, of which not more than two years may be continuous and two years only will be permitted to reckon as service qualifying for Pension.

2. Leave of absence on Medical certificate will not be granted for a longer period than twelve months at any one time, which may however be extended if necessary under renewed Medical certificate, for periods not exceeding six months within the limit of two years continuously. After a continuous absence of two years on Medical certificate, an interval of two years shall elapse before further leave on that account is granted.

3. During one year of the entire period of absence under this Rule, the Absentee will be subjected to a deduction of one-half, and during the remainder to a deduction of two-thirds of his allowances, provided however that he shall in no case draw a larger sum than Rupees 6,000 (£600) per annum.

4. In cases of extreme urgency, the Heads of Offices are authorized to grant leave of absence on Medical certificate to the extent of one month, provided the same be immediately reported for the sanction of Government.

Chapter III.

Rules for Leave on Private Affairs.

Section VI. Leave of absence may be granted for one month in each year, or, to Judicial Officers, during the authorized closing of the Civil Courts, without deduction from salary.

Section VII. In addition to the above, and on sufficient cause being shown, leave of absence may be granted on private affairs for not more than six months, one-half the Absentee's salary being deducted for such period of absence, provided the rate of Rupees 6,000 (£600) per annum be not exceeded.

Clause 2. The leave granted under this Section will be computed from the date of the Absentee's quitting his post to the date of his return thereto. A second leave of the same description cannot be taken till the expiration of six years from the date of return to duty from a former leave. No portion of the salary allowed to be drawn will be claimable till the Absentee shall have returned to his duty.

Clause 3. Leave taken under this and the preceding Section will reckon as service qualifying for Pension.

Section VIII. In addition to the leave which may be granted under the preceding Rules on Medical certificate or private affairs, Government may at any time, under special circumstances and at its discretion, grant leave of absence once during the period of service not exceeding twelve months on private affairs, without forfeiture of appointment, but without pay: such period of absence not to count as service towards Pension.

Section. IX. No leave of absence on private affairs shall be claimable by any party whatever under these Rules as a matter of right; such leave will be granted only at the pleasure of the Government or its authorized Officers when the concession of the indulgence in no way interferes with the interests of the Public Service; and it shall be the duty of the Government in every instance (except in the case of leave granted under Section VI.) to consider and determine whether the grounds of the application are sufficiently urgent to justify the concession of the leave.

Section X. Parties who may desire to draw their allowances while absent on leave will be required to give security in such amount and form as may be fixed by Government for the refund of any excess that may be drawn in case of their coming under retrenchment.

Chapter IV.

Rules for Allowances, &c.

Section XI. No person appointed to a situation under the Government shall draw the salary of his appointment for any period prior to the date of his joining it.

Section XII. An Officer holding a situation, appointed to one of equal or higher value, will, until he joins, draw so much of the salary of his new Office as may be equal to the salary of his former situation; provided he does not exceed the time allowed for joining under the following Rules; should he do so, no salary will be passed to him for such period in excess.

Section XIII. The time ordinarily allowed for joining an appointment is to be calculated at the rate of fifteen miles a day (Sundays excepted,) together with a week to prepare for the journey; but on occasions of emergency, it will be optional with the Government to prescribe the period within which any journey is to be performed.

Section XIV A person officiating temporarily in any situation will draw so much of the salary of such situation as may equal the sum deducted on account of absence from the real incumbent, and the substantive allowances of every Officer temporarily acting in a situation of superior emolument will be subject to deduction at the same rate; but no additional expense is on any account to be incurred by the absence of any Officer on leave.

Application to Supreme Courts to declare exclusive privilege not to have been acquired on following grounds -

XXIII. It shall be lawful for any person to apply by motion to any of Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature for a rule to show cause why the Court should not declare that an exclusive privilege in respect of an invention has not been acquired under the provisions of this Act by reason of all or any of the objections following (to be specified in the rule), that is to say—

Invention not new.

That the said invention was not, at the time of presenting the petition for leave to file the specification, a new invention, or

Petitioner not the inventor, &c.

That the petitioner was not the inventor thereof, and, in addition thereto, either that the applicant was the inventor or that the inventor has dedicated or made known the invention to the public or has acquiesced in the public use thereof, or

Invention not described in specification.

That the specification filed does not particularly describe and ascertain the nature of the invention or in what manner the same is to be performed, or

That the petitioner has wilfully made a false statement in his petition, or

That some part of the invention, or the manner in which that part is to be performed as described in the said specification, is not thereby sufficiently described and ascertained, and that such defect or insufficiency was fraudulent, and is injurious to the public.

Like application as to part of an invention.

XXIV. Any person may, in like manner, apply to any of Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature for a rule to show cause why the Court should not declare that an exclusive privilege has not been acquired under the provisions of this Act in any part of the invention to be specified in the rule by reason of all or any of the objections following (to be specified in the rule,) that is to say—

That such part of the invention was not new at the date of the petition for leave to file the specification,

That the petitioner was not the inventor of that part of the invention, and, in addition thereto, either that the applicant was the inventor of that part or that the inventor has dedicated or made known the same to the public or has acquiesced in the public use thereof, or

That that part of the invention, and the manner in which it is to be performed, is not sufficiently described and ascertained in the specification, and that such defect or insufficiency is injurious to the public.

Application by Advocate General, on breach of special condition.

XXV. It shall be lawful for the Advocate General of the East India Company at any of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George, and Bombay, or any other person, by order of the Governor General in Council, to apply to any of the said Courts of Judicature for a rule calling upon the petitioner, his executors, administrators, or assigns, to show cause why the question of the breach of any special condition upon which the leave to file a specification has been granted, or any other question of fact on which the revocation of the exclusive privilege by the Governor General in Council under the power hereinbefore reserved may, in the judgment of the said Governor General in Council, depend, should not be tried in the form of an issue directed by the said Court, and, if the rule be made absolute, the Court, unless the breach or other matter of fact be admitted, may thereupon direct such issue to be tried, and certify the result of such trial to the Governor General in Council. The costs of such trial, and also the costs of any proceedings in any of the said Courts of Judicature under the provisions of this Act, shall be in the discretion of the Court.

Service of proceedings on all persons interested.

XXVI. Notice of any rule obtained or proceeding taken under either of the last three preceding Sections shall be served on all persons appearing to be proprietors or to have shares or interests in the exclusive privilege under the provisions of Section XXXIV of this Act, and it shall not be necessary to serve such notice on any other persons.

Supreme Court may direct issue for trial to other Courts.

XXVII. Any of the said Courts of Judicature, if it think fit, may direct an issue for the trial, before the same Court or any other Court of Her Majesty or any principal Court of original jurisdiction in civil cases of the East India Company, of any question of fact arising upon an application under Section XXIII, XXIV, or XXV of this Act, and such issue shall be tried accordingly in a summary manner, and, if the issue be directed to another Court, the finding shall be certified by the Court before which the same was tried, to the Court directing the issue. If the issue be directed to any of Her Majesty's Courts of

New trial.

Judicature, the Court by which the issue is tried may, before the finding is certified, direct a new trial of such issue according to the usual course and practice of such Court. If the issue be directed to a Court of the East India Company, the finding shall not be subject to appeal to any other Court of the said Company, but the evidence taken upon the trial shall be recorded, and a copy thereof, certified by the Judge, shall be transmitted, together with any remarks he may think fit to make thereon, to the Court by which the issue was directed; and such Court may either act upon the decision of the Court which tried the issue, or direct a new trial if it shall appear necessary.

Judgment.

XXVIII. If it shall appear to any of the said Courts of Judicature at the hearing of any application under the provisions of Section XXIII or XXIV of this Act that, by reason of any of the objections therein mentioned, the said exclusive privilege in the invention or in any part thereof has not been acquired, the Court shall give judgment accordingly, and shall make such order as to the costs of and consequent upon the application as it may think just; and thereupon the petitioner, his executors, administrators, and assigns, shall, so long as the judgment continues in force, cease to be entitled to such exclusive privilege.

Costs.

XXIX. If the Court, at the hearing of any such application as last aforesaid, shall think that the petitioner has, in the description of his invention in the petition or specification, included something which at the date of the petition was not new or whereof he was not the inventor, or that the specification is in any particular defective or insufficient, but that the error, defect, or insufficiency was not fraudulently intended, the Court may adjudge the said exclusive privilege to have been acquired and to be valid, save as to the part thereof affected by such error, defect, or insufficiency, or, if the Court shall think that the error, defect, or insufficiency can be amended without injury to the public, they may adjudge the exclusive privilege in the whole of the invention to be valid, and may, upon such terms as shall appear reasonable, order the specification to be amended in any of the said particulars; and thereupon the petitioner, his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall, within the time limited by the said Court for the purpose, file a specification amended according to such order.

Amendment of specification.

XXX. An exclusive privilege shall not be defeated upon the ground that there is any misdescription of the invention in the petition, unless such misdescription was fraudulent.

Misdescription in the petition if not fraudulent, not to defeat the privilege

XXXI. Whenever it shall be adjudged by any of the said Courts of Judicature that an exclusive privilege as to the whole or any part of an invention has not been acquired, the said Secretary to the Government of India shall, upon the production of the judgment or order, cause an entry thereof to be made in the said book, hereinbefore directed to be kept, and shall cause a reference to such entry to be made in the margin of the entry of the specification contained in such book.

Entry in registry book of judgment, &c. declaring privilege not to have been acquired.

XXXII. If, upon proceedings instituted within two years from the date of a petition to file a specification, the actual inventor shall prove to the satisfaction of any of Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature or of the principal Court of the East India Company having jurisdiction in Civil cases within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the Defendant shall reside as a fixed inhabitant, that the petitioner was not the actual inventor and that, at the time of the petition, he knew or had good reason to believe that the knowledge of the invention was obtained by himself or by some other person surreptitiously or in fraud of the actual inventor, or by means of a communication made in confidence by the actual inventor to him or to any person through whom he derived such knowledge, the Court may compel the petitioner to assign to the actual inventor any exclusive privilege obtained under this Act and to account for and pay over the profits thereof.

In what case actual inventor entitled to assignment of an exclusive privilege fraudulently obtained.

XXXIII. In any action for the infringement of such exclusive privilege the Plaintiff shall deliver with his plaint particulars of the breaches complained of in the said action, and the Defendant, in pleading thereto, shall deliver with his pleas particulars of the grounds (if any) upon which he means to contend that the Plaintiff is not entitled to an exclusive privilege in the invention. In like manner, upon any application to any of the said Courts of Judicature under Section XXIII, XXIV, or XXV of this Act, the applicant shall deliver particulars of the objections on which he means to rely. At the trial of any such action or issue no evidence shall be allowed to be given in support of any alleged infringement or of any objection impeaching the validity of such exclusive privilege which shall not be contained in the particulars delivered as aforesaid. If it be alleged that the invention was publicly known or used prior to the date of the petition for leave to file such specification, the places where and the manner in which the invention was so publicly known or used shall be stated in such particulars. Provided, always, that it shall be lawful for any Court in which the action or proceeding is pending, or in which the issue is tried, to allow the Plaintiff or Defendant respectively to amend the particulars delivered as aforesaid upon such terms as shall seem fit.

Particulars to be delivered.

XXXIV. A book shall be kept in the Office of the Secretary to the Government of India in the Home Department (such book to be open to inspection without fee) wherein every person filing a specification under this Act shall cause to be stated, under a number corresponding with the number of the specification, some place in India where service of any rule or proceedings for the purpose of cancelling or revoking his exclusive privilege may be made. All persons, partnerships, or Companies from time to time being proprietors of, or having shares or interests in, such exclusive privilege, shall cause to be entered in such book, under such number as aforesaid, their names, together with the name of some place for the service of such proceedings as aforesaid. All such rules and proceedings as aforesaid shall be deemed sufficiently served on any such person, partnership, or Company if a copy thereof be left at the place entered in such book, or (if any other place be substituted for the same by entry in the said book) at the place last substituted, by delivering the same to any person resident at, or in charge of, such place; or, if there be no person resident at, or in charge of, such place, or if such place be not within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, by causing such rule or proceeding to be sent by Post by a registered letter directed to such person, partnership, or Company at such place, and if any such person, partnership, or Company shall neglect to make or cause to be made such entry, then service of such rule or proceeding may be effected by affixing a copy thereof to some conspicuous part of the Court House or in such other manner as the Court may direct.
